KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feed your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a saucer-complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all ailments comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets is a well-known physician in Ohio, pointed out a valuable compound which could be prepared to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for cod liver oil, in their action, get along effectively. They bring about that combination of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 10c and 25c boxes. All druggists.

GRANDMA NEVER LET HER HAIR GET GRAY

Kept Her Locks Youthful, Dark And Glossy With Common Garden Sage And Sulphur.

When you darken your hair with Rago Tea and Sulphur, an one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and troublesome. At little cost you can buy at any drug store the ready to use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound and look years younger.

ARRESTS TO FOLLOW TAG SALE SQUABBLE
Tacoma, Wash., April 8.—Officers are today seeking Steve Burke, Tacoma secretary-treasurer of the soldiers' and sailors' council, and J. L. Johns of Seattle, state organizer on warrants issued late yesterday by W. D. Aakre, Pierce county prosecutor.
The men are charged with criminal conspiracy to sell tags unlawfully last Saturday.
Six other members of the soldiers' and sailors' council and W. T. ("Parley") Morris, labor leader, were charged in an information filed yesterday afternoon by Prosecutor Aakre, with criminal conspiracy. The charge on conviction carries with it a fine of $1,000 a year in the county jail, or both.
The other men named in the information are Herman Otch, Walter Scott, J. L. Jefferson, W. Rae, J. Brimcomoli and Victor Veron.
The witnesses named in the information are the members of the city council, chief of police and Police Sergeant Paleoner.
Burke and Johns are supposed to be in Seattle.
The information filed against the nine men yesterday was worded as follows: "Did unlawfully and feloniously conspire together to accomplish an unlawful purpose, to-wit: to publicly sell tags upon the public streets of Tacoma, a city of the first class, on Saturday, April 5, 1919, in violation of city ordinance and in defiance of the city authorities after having been refused permission to do so by the commissioner of public safety F. H. Pettit, whose permission was required."

CITY NEWS

The Salem Velie company is unloading a car load of Velie Sixes today. J. W. Jones, local manager, reports the sale of a Bethlehem truck to Roberts and Carey, to be used by them in hauling their dairy products to Portland.
Capt. J. E. Cullison of Portland is in the city today in the course of a trip through the district, clearing up the remnants of red tape in connection with the war exemption boards. Capt. Cullison has been in charge of the draft work in Oregon during the past two years, and is also acting as disbursing officer for the state.
You must clean the stomach and bowels, purify the blood, each spring, or you leave winter's germs and impurities in your blood and system. Drive them away, clean out the stomach and bowels—take Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea, a spring cleanser purifier. 35c. Tea or Tablets.

Northwestern Wool Growers Will Not Hold
Portland, Or., April 9.—Northwestern wool growers will probably be early sellers this year. They are showing a disposition to get the wool off their hands as soon as possible and they appear ready to meet the market. Last year's high prices, it is plain, will not be repeated, but the sheep men want to get as close to the old figures as they can.
Western business has started briskly in California and Nevada, where the sale prices range from 10 to 15 cents under those of last spring. There has also been some trading in the new Yakima clip, about 100,000 pounds having been sold and close to 250,000 pounds consigned. Yakima prices runs from 35 to 38 cents. A close comparison with last year's values is difficult, as the Yakima wools are of better quality this season. Several hundred bales of new Washington wools have been received at Portland warehouses, and some of the lots have been sold. Oregon shearing will start around Echo in a few days. According to the views expressed by northwestern growers, they would rather sell their wool this year than consign it.
The eastern wool market is looking up and there is a possibility that some of last year's wools that are held here may be worked off through the Boston auctions. At the confounding March sales at Boston, 35,000,000 pounds were offered and 31,000,000 pounds sold, which was an excellent showing. The demand was strong for good wools and buyers paid less attention to the government's minimum quotations. The same attitude on the part of buyers was seen at the London sales last week.

Farm Wags To Jump Beyond Billion Mark During Year
Washington, April 9.—Farm wages this year will jump beyond the billion dollar mark, agriculture department figures indicated today.
The American farm has begun to share with the bread man the increased prosperity that came to him last year and is promised by a "greatest in history" wheat crop this year.
In pre-war days, the bread band earned approximately $500,000,000, or about half what he is expected to receive this year. Reports to the department of agriculture show that last year farm wages had jumped 72 per cent over those of the five years from 1909 to 1915.

All the organizations, public and private, that are helping get jobs for demobilized soldiers, sailors and war workers, centre their work in the U. S. Employment Service and its bureaux for soldiers and sailors.

The U. S. Employment Service registers all soldiers sailors and war workers, while they are yet in the camp, on shipboard or in the factory.

We may have differences of opinion on many matters, but we are all agreed on this:

The responsibility of every American citizen today is to do everything possible to secure jobs for our returning fighting men.

The U. S. Employment Service has been officially designated as the organization through which we should all work.

Your part, Mr. Employer, is to list, and to keep listed, with the local bureaux for soldiers and sailors of the U. S. Employment Service, the jobs you have available for these men. There is no fee, no charge for this service.

Here is the address of the Salem Bureau, which is with the U. S. Employment Service, 128 South Liberty St., Salem, Oregon.

A Message to Employers from THE WOOLEN MILLS STORE Commercial Street Salem, Oregon.

The U. S. Employment Service is still in the ring.
