SINCE the announcement was made some time ago that John McCormack, noted Irish and American tenor, was contemplating a tour of the west, numerous Salem lovers of the great singer have been waiting eagerly for the date of his arrival. They will be interested therefore, to know, that he will appear in the public auditorium in Portland, May 21 under the direction of Stiers and Conson. Every one who has heard Mr. McCormack sing will agree with the New York music authority who writes: "John McCormack's song are as birds' song, spontaneous outpouring, without trace of self-consciousness or effort, expressing art in the simple terms of pure pleasure. He is unquestionably the chosen favorite of the great music loving public of America. As a singer he is a perfect artist. As an artist he is an inspiration and an uplift. He deserves the wealth and fame his art has brought him, because it is such as he who make the world a better place in which to live."

He will return to Salem tomorrow.

Miss Jessie Leiser, soprano, a student of Mrs. Kathryn Cryder Street, appeared in recital at Beaverton, Or., April 4, assisted by Mrs. Street, contralto, on the program. Mrs. Street also sang in recital the same week in the First Congregational church at Salem, Or.—Oregonian.

SPokane Woman GAINED 40 POUNDS

Electrical Treatment And Everything Else Failed To Help Her.—Tanlac Restores Her.

"There, that is what I have been looking for the past six months, now for my sister," said Mrs. Vi Legault, who resides at 2214 1/2 Post street, Spokane, Wash., pointing to the big Tanlac display in Murgittroy's drug store, recently.

"My sister's health has broken down," Mrs. Legault continued, "and I firmly believe Tanlac will fix her up as it did me three years ago.

"Before I took it I was suffering from a complication of ailments which had resulted in nervous prostration. My troubles all started from a bad stomach and I was in a pitiable condition. Everything I ate would sour causing me such awful pains in the pit of my stomach that I could hardly stand it. My nerves were in a bad shape. I was badly constipated and even now I hate to think of the terrible headaches I had. I also suffered from weakness and pains in my right side, which was the worst kind of torture. Electrical treatment and every thing else was tried on me, except an operation, which I refused to stand for, but nothing did me any good. I had always weighed around one hundred and forty eight pounds, but my suffering pulled me down to one hundred and twelve, and I was scarcely more than a frame. I really had no desire to live as my case seemed to be hopeless.

"Well some wonderful things happen in this world, and my recovery is one of them. I picked up a paper one day in Detroit, Michigan, where I was living at the time, and read a Tanlac testimonial given by a lady who lived but a short distance from me, and right then I decided to try Tanlac. The results I obtained are nothing less than remarkable. My appetite soon came back, my stomach got so I could eat and digest my food and every one of my troubles gradually left, and the first thing I knew I was regaining my lost weight and strength. After using five bottles of Tanlac I found that I had gone up to one hundred and fifty two pounds—actually gained forty pounds—making some 40 pounds more than I had ever weighed before. And although it has been nearly three years now—see Tanlac restored me I have never been bothered with any of my old troubles in this good day, and I have held my weight, always weighing around one hundred and fifty pounds. So you can see why I have been so anxious to find Tanlac for my sister. I am going to let her know right away where she can get it. I am glad to give this statement, for the best way I know to pay the debt of gratitude I owe Tanlac is to tell others how it has made life worth living for me."

REJECTION OF

The action was taken between 8 and 10 o'clock on the night of April 10.

"The text of the unfortunate amendment, which Japan claimed for insertion in the preamble was to endorse the 'principle of equality of nations and just treatment of their nationals'."

"This phrase was the last form upon which Japan could compromise after having been crumpled, along with many friendly British and American delegates, who sympathized with Japan, and attempted to persuade the strongest opponents of the Japanese desires, who declared they would return home if the phrase should be inserted by the league.

Japanese Work Hard

"General Smuts and Premier Botha of the Union of South Africa also assiduously endeavored in the interests of Japan, but our opponents, now facing a general election, continued in their obstinacy.

"The Japanese delegates, especially Chinda, have been most assiduously and most busily engaged in this matter during the past fortnight, doing almost everything possible.

"Despite a bad cold on the night of last moment of voting, but was unable April 10 Chinda pushed on until the to get an unanimous vote on the racial amendment. The amendment, thus, was rejected, the votes being divided 11 pro and 6 con."

On Saturday, April 12, the United Press carried a despatch from its staff correspondent, Fred S. Ferguson, stating that it was understood the Japanese for equality had not been added to the covenant.

A. P. Report False

Later Saturday afternoon the Associated Press circulated the statement that the league of nations commission had "adopted by 11 votes out of 17 the Japanese amendment on racial equality."

This incorrect report was circulated in certain coast cities and caused a great deal of excitement at a time when California, particularly, is agitated over the Japanese equality question.

The error resulted from ignorance of the fact that a unanimous vote was required to carry the amendment.

Senator James D. Phelan, supposing the story to be true, issued a statement calling upon the American people to "fight the proposed provision until it is defeated by an enlightened public opinion."

The United Press in its report of Saturday night carried the complete and correct version of the Japanese amendment action.

HOW WEAK WOMEN ARE MADE STRONG

Mrs. Westmoreland Tells in the Following Letter.

Harrison, N. Y.—"When my first child was born I did not know about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and had a very hard time. I read in the newspaper about the Vegetable Compound and when my second child came I took it and was well during the whole time, and childbirth was a hundred times easier. Ever since then I have used it for any weakness and would not be without it for the world. I do all my work and am strong and healthy. I am nursing my baby, and I still take the Vegetable Compound as it keeps a woman in good health. You may publish my testimonial for the good of other women, if you choose to do so."—Mrs. C. WESTMORELAND, Harrison, N. Y.

Women who suffer from displacements, irregularities, inflammation, ulceration, backache, headaches and nervousness should lose no time in giving this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. ## Pickford Denies Reported Dishonorable Discharge

Los Angeles, Cal., April 14.—Reports that he had been discharged from the navy in disgrace as a result of the investigation of alleged instances where men had "bought" soft places in the service were vigorously denied in a statement issued here today by Jack Pickford, actor.

"I was granted a discharge which shows my standing was of the very highest and which recommended me for further enrollment," Pickford said.

"The reason I have not denied recent reports which declared I was dropped from the service was that I had been ordered by the president of the court not to discuss the naval case in which I testified."
