Several cases of influenza were reported in the city yesterday and three calls were made to Red Cross headquarters for nurses. Dr. H. E. Pennington, city physician, said his cases had been reported in the city but there was influenza south of the city. It is not known whether or not Dr. Pennington is attempting to suppress real news of conditions in the city. When called upon this morning he was not disposed to discuss the matter.

The student body of the International Correspondence school will meet this evening at the room of the school, 211 Gray building, to read the answer to their telegram to Ralph E. Weske, president of the I. C. S., at Seranton, relative to the discharge of Benjamin R. Perkins. As much interest has been shown in the fight between Mr. Perkins and the state superintendent, it is thought that all the students will be on hand.

D. D. Sociolofsky was looking around today for his stolen Ford car which disappeared from his home, 985 North Summer street last night between midnight and 7 o'clock this morning. As his ally is out of order, Mr. Sociolofsky left his car for the night out in front of his home. The license number is 90,302 and it's a Ford. Should anyone happen to find an unclaimed Ford with this license number, it should be reported to the police station.

The city pile driver was moved today to North Winter street where a bridge will be built across Mill creek. Work will begin at once in the driving of piles and city street commissioner Walt S. Low says it may require three or four weeks to complete the job, much depending on the weather. The bridge is to be 128 feet long, with a driveway of 24 feet and six feet side walks on each side. The bridge will cost about $1200. The city pile driver is one where horse power is used, slow but sure.

The hop market is stronger and there is an upward tendency in prices. This is due, it is said to the probabilities that American brewers may have an extended life of about seven months to the fact that the war time ruling as to prohibition July 1 may not become effective. It is thought that many brewers are short on hops going on the supposition that war time prohibition would be effective July 1. In Salem the prevailing prices for the better hops is 30 cents for this year, 28 cents a pound for 1920 and 25 cents for 1921. It is understood that about 2000 acres of new hops have been planted in Oregon this year.

Founders' day will be celebrated at Champeog, Marion county, on Saturday, May 3. This date is the 50th anniversary of the historic meeting at Champeog and the 19th celebration. The affair will be under the auspices of the Oregon Pioneer association and the Oregon Historical society. Judge P. H. D'Arcy, pioneer of 1857, will act as president of the day. There will be an instrumental concert in the morning by the Periwold band of Yamhill county. The afternoon program will begin with the "Star Spangled Banner," followed by short addresses. All speakers are to be limited to five minutes each. The Pomona has been chartered to run from Portland to the grounds. For those leaving Salem by the 9:45 Oregon Electric, the steamer will meet them at Wilsonville. Returning it will leave Champeog at 4 o'clock to meet the south bound Electric for Salem, arriving here 6:40 o'clock. No host was available May 2 hence the celebration was postponed one day.

frame house that happened to be handy for the demonstration. The house caved in but the tank kept on its course. At Marshfield the tank got stalled amidst the ruins of the burned area in that city and in the mix up there was a breakage in the clutch. However, announcement is made that it will arrive in Salem in fighting shape, and will be seen in the business section shortly after 1 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

Dr. A. E. Winship of Boston, editor of the Journal of Education, was a visitor in Salem and vicinity yesterday. He is on a speaking tour in the northwest and made a special visit to Salem to inspect several county schools and to report what the west is doing in the way of industrial school work. For he it known, Oregon stands as one of the pioneers in state school club work and the east is coming to the west to find how it is done. Much of the success of the schools of the state in this industrial club work is due to the fact that the country schools have the cooperation of the agricultural department of the government, the state agricultural college and of the state department of education. With the two school supervisors, Mrs. M. L. Pulkerson and J. W. L. Smith, and also George W. Kyle, Dr. Winship was taken to see the industrial club work of the Auburn and Bethel schools and later to see what had been accomplished at the Keizer school where industrial work has long been a feature of the school's special work.

For those who are wondering how the dear pupil is to study geography next winter, with the European map so messed up, W. M. Smith, county superintendent, says that the big school book publishers have not been asleep. He says they are already preparing their map plates and as soon as things are settled over there, the publishers will begin issuing special maps which may be pasted in all the geographies now in use. The picture of Kaiser Wilhelm it is understood will not adorn any of the new maps.

Vick Brod wish to express their appreciation to all the garages in the city for closing during the funeral services of Elbert Thompson and also for giving the use of their cars.

Russell Emmert, a former school boy, is doing considerable traveling and seeing things. He witnessed the reception given President Wilson recently at Boston. On the U. S. S. Harding, he sailed from Boston to winter quarters near Cuba. In his travels he went 1200 miles south of Cuba, as far as the Island of Trinidad.

The Oregon guard companies of Salem, E P G and H, will be mustered out some time next week. This matter was brought up at the meeting held yesterday in Portland of the general staff. It is thought that all companies will be mustered out the same evening, although as yet no orders have been issued naming the date. With the Salem Oregon guard companies entirely out of the service, there will remain in Salem but one military organization, that of Company M, Oregon national guard. Among those to be mustered out next week are Private Governor Ben W. Cloritt and Corporal Justice George H. Burnett.

Passion week services will be held in the First Congregational church every night this week beginning this evening at 8 o'clock.

The U. S. employment bureau can place half a dozen men with the highway work at Brooks. The company that was awarded the contract for the road between Brooks and Gorvais needs half a dozen men to assist in putting up the machinery. The pay is $3.50 a day.

C. B. Cliney has purchased the green house of Carl Ruoff at Seventh and Market streets. This will give Mr. Cliney control of both ends of the florist business as he will now have his own source of supplies. Mr. Cliney came to Salem in October of 1916 and one year later purchased the retail florist business of Mr. Ruoff.

Telegrams to victory liberty loan headquarters from Portland indicate that a number of counties in the state intend to make a short job of the campaign next week. Instead of taking the two weeks' limit, there is the intention of a number of counties to put it over in two or three days. The workers here in Salem are inclined to an active campaign of three days. With 300 workers out next Monday morning and with the experience of the past four campaigns, it is thought that Salem will have subscribed its quota within the three days' work.

GRIP, INFLUENZA

Hamlin's Wizard Oil a Reliable, Antiseptic Preventive

During influenza epidemics spray the nose and throat several times a day with one part Wizard Oil and two parts water, using an atomizer. If you haven't an atomizer, gargle the throat and snuff the mixture up the nose. This treatment sets up an antiseptic wall of defense against "Flu" germs.

Chest colds and sore throat lead to grip. Stop them at once with Wizard Oil before they can develop into dangerous influenza.

Get it from druggists for 30c. If not satisfied, return the bottle and get your money back.

Ever constipated or have sick headache? Just try Wizard Liver Whips, pleasant little pink pills, 30c at druggists. Guaranteed.

The annual meeting of the Central Baptist association representing six or eight churches in this part of the valley, holds its sessions with the church at Haystack four miles north of Salem, today and tomorrow. A number of delegates came in over the Oregon Electric this morning. Rev. G. F. Hall, of the First Baptist church, is mediator of the meeting. Among the speakers on the program are Pres. H. K. Halgren, of the state R. Y. P. U. Pres. L. W. Riley of McMinnville college, State Evangelist S. J. Reid and Mrs. Geo. Campbell of China.

Willamette valley lumbermen may derive a crumb of comfort from the statement of Senator McNary that H. B. Spencer and other officials of the railroad administration will be in Portland April 21 and 22, and will then take up the matter of rates on railroad ties which has been a cause of complaint from all the mills of western Oregon. Mr. Spencer, who is the director of purchases for the railroads, is now on his way west in company with Director General W. D. Hines and Traffic Director Edward Chambois. Senator McNary is also in conference today with the railroad administration with regard to the National Klumath cut off.

Not only the church membership of Salem but all who are at all in sympathy with religious movements, will find much interest and inspiration in the Passion week program to be given in the First Methodist church, beginning tonight, Tonight Dr. Avison will deliver an address in keeping with the hour, and there will be vocal solos by A. A. Schramm. Tomorrow night there will be an address by Prof. Matthews of Willamette university, and Miss Barton will render special music. Friday night will be made memorable by a grand program of sacred music under the direction of Prof. Sites, prominent in which will be the "Crucifixion" by Steiner. Those who have attended performances under the direction of Prof. Sites can well anticipate what is in store in this program.

Curiosity prompted the reporter to check over a part of the March and April files of the Capital Journal in order to get an idea as to what lines of business were the most prominent in the classified advertising columns, and as to whether the offerings in certain lines were increasing in number. For this purpose there was selected the three most common lines in the "for sale" class—farm lands, city property and stock and poultry. It was shown that during the first week in March—which may be taken as an index of the whole month—there were 107 pieces of city property offered for sale; 24 farm properties, and 36 offerings of livestock and poultry. During the first week of April there were 104 pieces of city property offered for sale, 139 pieces of farm and fruit properties, 43 offerings of livestock, etc. These totals multiplied by four give an idea of the number of offerings in these three lines coming into the office during the month. Over against these offerings is an immense number of inquiries for these same lines, and the two together go to show the investment possibilities in Salem and vicinity, as well as the place held by the Journal as a medium of information.

Percy Greenlee Judd, was born an American citizen at Sugar Grove, Illinois, about 53 years ago. Later in life he decided to go to Canada and like many another American in order to prove up on a homestead claim, had to forswear allegiance to the United States and become a subject of King George V. He now lives on rural route 3, Salem and has made application to the county clerk to become once again an American citizen and a voter. His last residence in Canada was Kolland. In two years time, if he can make a satisfactory showing before Judge Bingham, he will once again become a citizen of his native country and be permitted to register and vote.
