If you have been reading the advertisements on the screens of the local theaters, you know that this week is national "Humane Week." It is extensively observed in the east and is beginning to be very popular in the western cities of the continent. Perhaps no cause is more worthy of our support than is the protection of dumb animals. The public is becoming more and more in sympathy with the society that has the furtherance of kindness to animals as its object. The world war has helped the cause immeasurably; the heroism of the Red Cross dogs; the loyalty of the cavalry horses; the valor of the brave little carrier pigeons—all these have gone to show that the principles of the humane society are worthy of attention.

A fair example of the victories that the society is winning is shown in the action of Commissioner Mann of Portland who is planning to introduce an ordinance making it a misdemeanor for an autoist to fail to report to the police bureau after hitting, injuring or killing an animal.

Says Commissioner Mann: "There is no excuse for an automobile driver hitting a dog, for if proper warning is given by the blowing of a horn the average dog will get out of the pathway of the machine. Should an accident occur, however, the least that the driver can do is to report the accident to the owner or to the police department.

"This is humane week and for that reason I would like to call to the attention of the autoists that in the first place kindness should be shown to the dumb brutes and in the second place dogs are personal property, are taxed and are entitled to the same consideration as any other personal property."

The pupils of Sacred Heart academy will give an "April Shower" tomorrow evening in St. Joseph's hall. Elaborate preparations are being made for the event. The ever popular "fish pond" will be one of the features and a dinner will be served on the lawn. If the "showers" of previous years can be taken as examples the success of the undertaking is already assured.

No general admission will be charged.

Women's Relief Corps Aid society will meet at the home of Mrs. Mollie Dennison, 1475 North Commercial street, Thursday afternoon, Ida Babstos, president; Mrs. Chas. Barber, secretary; Mrs. Myrtle Reichtel, Edith Bertell and Anna Bennett. The aim of the sewing circle is to secure funds and work to help the destitute soldiers of the Civil war and their families. Officers of the circle are, Florence Spencer, president; Mary E. Cook, treasurer; Mary E. Shane, secretary. The work of the organization has enlarged greatly during the war, the aid society working in unison with the Sedgwick chapter W. R. C. auxiliary of the Willamette chapter American Red Cross, the officers of which are, Mrs. Helen Southwick, president; Miss Hattie Skelton, treasurer; Mrs. L. Bushnell, secretary.

Among the numerous things accomplished by them during 1918-1919 it has been estimated that 3622 hours of work have been donated to various local branches of the Red Cross, 106 pairs of socks have been knitted (some by the husbands of the members) and $208.28 in cash has been donated.

Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served at a late hour. The guest list included Miss Gladys Humphrey, Miss Ruth Cady, Miss Jewel Steele, Miss Emma Simmons, Miss Marie Waggoner, Miss Olga Gath, Miss Ethel Nisley, Miss Anora Hassler, Miss Evelyn Martin, Eugene Hansott, Donovan Hassler, Arthur Gath, Fay Webb, George Schurman, Edward Gath, Sam Palmerston, Tom Webb and Cecil Martin.

Miss Mabel Brassfield was charming hostess at a meeting of the La Area club, at her home on North Capitol street last evening. The usual business session was held followed by a social hour. The hostess was assisted in serving dainty refreshments by her sister, Mrs. Emery Thompson. Plans were made, in the course of the meeting, for a May dance to be given at the Masonic Temple, Thursday, May 1st. Members of the club who were present were Miss Estelle Wilcox, Miss Bertha Waldorf, Miss Emma Waldorf, Miss Stans Anderson, Miss Thelma Blossing, Miss Dora Anderson, Mrs. Ada Zewel, Mrs. A. A. Many Salem people, particularly former students of Willamette university, will be interested in the following item clipped from a Portland paper:

"Miss Dorothy Flegel will leave tomorrow for the east, accompanying her father, A. F. Flegel. They will visit in Ohio, going on to Washington, D. C., and other cities in the southeast. They also will visit Lieutenant and Mrs. Earl Flegel (Barbara Steiner), formerly of Salem, at Camp Mills and spend some weeks in New York. Mr. Flegel plans to return to Portland early in June but his daughter will remain in the metropolis until mid-June."

Mrs. John Brophy who went to Portland to visit friends and attend the flying circus, returned to Salem today.

J. W. Marony has received word that Howard E. Weed of Portland, a noted landscape gardener will give an illustrated lecture on penicils at the Commercial club auditorium, Monday, May 5th. The affair will be under the auspices of the Floral society and will be free to the public. It is believed that if more people knew of the beautiful and instructive lectures given by the society, the meetings would become very popular, and hereafter the dates will be published regularly.

AN OVERBURDENED MOTHER

If the steps a mother takes and the work she does could only be measured by figures, what an array they would make. Through girlhood, wifehood and motherhood women toil on, often suffering from backache, pain in side, headache, nervousness and sleeplessness, symptoms of more serious ailments peculiar to her sex. Thousands of such women, however, have found relief from suffering by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as is evidenced by the letters of recommendation continually being published in this paper.

Governor Olcott Superintendent Churchill and Assistant Carleton are in Portland today.

claims are based largely on her famous "twenty one demands" directed against China, which he declared are hostile to the allies. President Wilson read the text of the demands to the council.

Aside from the stand against recognition of secret treaties it is known the majority of the peace delegates are inclined to favor China's contention that Kiao Chau and the Shantung peninsula, seized from Germany by Japan during the war, should revert to China, inasmuch as Germany obtained possession of them by force.

Would Make Peace First
In British circles it was reported at the conclusion of yesterday's session that the "big four" expressed a desire to defer settlement of the question until after peace is signed, the peace treaty merely decreeing that Germany shall lose her rights in China. From the same sources it was learned the Chinese delegates had decided to consult their government whether this course would be satisfactory. The Japanese, however, declared that no such suggestion had been made to them by the council. They further stated that such a plan would be directly opposed to Japan's demands and that the Japanese delegation, particularly the military section, is now firmly determined to settle the matter at once.

Rumors were in circulation today that the Italians have begun to show a disposition toward accepting a compromise of their Adriatic claims. It was even hinted they would be willing to relinquish a portion of the Dalmatian territory they demand in exchange for an uncolored title to Fiume. As Fiume, the principal port of contention, was not even contained in the pact of London it was believed the other allies would not consider such a compromise.

FELT LIKE MUSCLES WERE TIED IN KNOT

That Is Exactly The Way Tindal Says His Rheumatism Acted.

"I had never taken a dose of Tansle in my life till some six weeks ago, but I have received more benefit from the three bottles I have just finished than from all the other medicines I have taken put together," said George R. Tindal, of 0002 13th Ave. South, Seattle, the other day. Mr. Tindal is employed at the Skinner & Eddy ship yards.

"For several years," he continued, "I suffered terribly from muscular rheumatism and kidney trouble. The muscles of my right arm would draw up at the elbow, and feel like they were tied in a knot. I had no appetite and the little I forced down didn't do me much, if any, good. My kidneys worried me night and day. I had an awful misery up and down my spine, and my back right over my kidneys would hurt so bad that if I stooped over it would almost kill me to straighten up again. I couldn't rest well at night, and many a time I would wake up at midnight, and never sleep another wink the balance of the night, then my back would start hurting so bad that I could hardly get up out of bed.

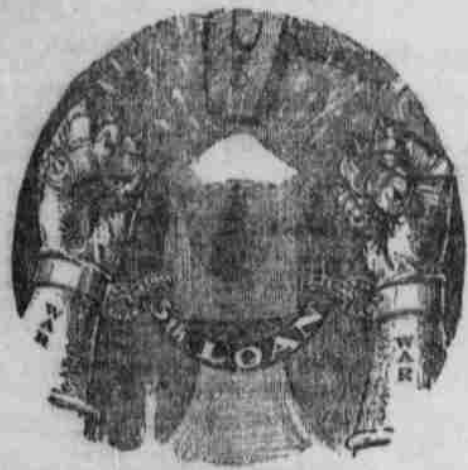

"I guess I have taken most every kind of medicine sold without getting a bit of relief, and I was in mighty bad shape when I decided to see if Tansle would help me. Well, I can honestly say that I haven't had an ache or a pain since shortly after I started on Tansle. I sleep like a log at night, and my wife tells me that I'm liable to eat us both out of house and home if I keep on with the appetite Tansle has given me. I feel as well and hearty in every way that I have told the boys down at the ship yard how much good Tansle has done for me, for I hope that my experience will be the means of helping others who may have troubles like I had."

Tansle is sold in Salem by Dr. S. C. Stone, in Hubbard by Hubbard Drug Co., in Mt. Angel by Ben Goeck, in Corvallis by John Kelly, in Turner by H. P. Correll, in Woodburn by Lyman H.
