GRIP, INFLUENZA

Hamin's Wizard Oil a Reliable, Antiseptic Preventive

During influenza epidemics spray the nose and throat several times a day with one part Wizard Oil and two parts water, using an atomizer. If you haven't an atomizer, gargle the throat and snuff the mixture up the nose. This treatment sets up an antiseptic wall of defense against "Flu" germs.

Chest colds and sore throat lead to grip. Stop them at once with Wizard Oil before they can develop into dangerous influenza.

Get it from druggists for 30c. If not satisfied, return the bottle and get your money back.

Ever constipated or have sick headache? Just try Wizard Liver Whips, pleasant little pink pills, 30c at druggists. Guaranteed.

EMMERT BURKHOLDER WEDDING

Last Saturday afternoon at the home of the bride, east of Needy, Mr. Floyd A. Emmert and Miss Grace Burkholder were married, Bishop J. D. Mishler performing the ceremony. They will soon be at home to their friends on the Hendrich place east of town recently purchased by Mr. Emmert. Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. Emmert just east of town, fifty five of the friends of the happy couple called and spent the evening with them, bringing a shower of beautiful presents. During the evening refreshments were served. Their many friends extend congratulations.—Hubbard Enterprise.

Court House Notes

In the case that was filed last year of Earl Wood versus J. O. Hayes, the court has ordered that it be continued under the title of F. B. Decker and F. E. Callister, administrators of the estate of Earl Wood, versus J. O. Hayes.

Obita Richmond has filed suit for a divorce from George A. Richmond. She states in her complaint that they were married in 1904 in Nebraska and that they have one daughter 9 1/2 years old. She alleges that her husband is shiftless and worthless, that he drank and that he failed to support her. She asks for the custody of her daughter and a monthly payment to help in the support of her daughter.

In the county court Ralph Cartwright, Ed Jory and Joseph Schotthofer, as appraisers for the estate of Jacob P. Minch, deceased, reported that the property is worth $21,919.18. Of this sum, the 315-acre farm is appraised at $23,000, on which there is a $6000 mortgage.

The estate of Thomas Glenson, deceased, has been appraised at $5202.33. The appraisers were Olga Gray, E. M. Page and Donald W. Miles.

In the matter of the estate of Ursula Nelbert, deceased, the county court confirmed the sale of real property by the administrator.

Mary M. Foster, administratrix of the estate of James L. Foster, has filed her final report. It has been approved by the court and the administratrix discharged and relieved of further liability.

The final report of Fred L. Kirvin, administrator of the estate of Harvey L. Kirvin was accepted by the county court, approved and the administrator relieved of further duty and liability.
