SALEM, OREGON.

Died

KIGHTLINGER—At her home in south Salem, Sunday April 27, 1919, Mrs. S. C. Kightlinger after an illness of one week.

For the past few weeks she had been at the bedside of her mother, Mrs. A. E. Tower, who died and who was buried in Salem about a week ago. The illness contracted during the time she was with her mother, was the immediate cause of her death.

Besides her husband, she is survived by a daughter, Mary Elizabeth. The funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Leslie M. E. church and will be conducted by the Rev. H. N. Aldrich, pastor of the church.

Mrs. Kightlinger was born in Motley, Minn., and moved with her parents to Washington and later to Salem. In July of 1897 she married S. C. Kightlinger.

She was a consistent and faithful member of the Leslie M. E. church, having become a member of the church in 1903. She was also a member of the Silver Bell Circle of the Women of Woodcraft and the Oregon Grape Camp, Modern Woodmen. She had always been active in church work and fraternal work, devoting much of her time to the welfare of others.

The services at the church will be attended by members in a body of the fraternal and church circles to which she belonged, and by members of the Foresters of America and of the Modern woodmen of which her husband is a member.

McGUIRE—At the home of her son, A. D. McGuire, 1695 Nagaw street Sunday April 27, 1919, Mrs. Maria McGuire, at the age of 87 years.

Besides her son in Salem she is survived by the following children: Mrs. Clara Wolschler, Mrs. Anna Lewis of Zion City, Illinois, Mrs. Laura D. Skidwin, Salem; D. H. McGuire, Colfax, Wn.; C. C. McGuire, Spokane; A. D. McGuire, C. U. McGuire, Woodburn, Walter D. McGuire of Hood River and Homer C. C. McGuire of Chehalis, Wn.

The body will lie in state at the parlors of Webb and Clough until Tuesday noon. Tuesday afternoon the body will be forwarded to Hood River for burial.

Mrs. McGuire is an Oregon pioneer coming to Salem in 1852 with her parents who took up a donation land claim six miles south of Salem.

CITY NEWS.

Yesterday was a great day at the golf links, with an attendance of about 80. More than usual interest was shown in the contest for the Watt Shipp trophy wherein each player was limited to one club. The trophy was won by T. L. Holler of the Will tennis stars. The remarkable part about the score of 40 made by Mr. Holler is the fact that this was his second game, and he beat the old time players. Other low scores were George G. Brown 41, T. B. Kay 41, H. H. Smith 43, Dr. H. H. Olinger 43, C. H. Robertson 43, S. E. Edwards 43, Curtis Cross 45, Chester G. Cox 46, Sam Kasper 46, A. E. Keene 47 and Frank Spears 49. In order that the women might have something to play for, W. H. Lerehen offered a special prize of two golf balls for playing under the same condition as the men. This prize was won by Mrs. O. C. Locke with a score of 45. Mrs. Ed Baker made a score of 47 and Mrs. H. H. Olinger 51. Next Sunday will be the first match with the Eugene players to be played in Salem. About 30 are expected. Announcement is made that hereafter a dance will be held every other Tuesday beginning May 6.

Dr. Coan, the noted missionary who has spent a large part of his life in Armenia and Syria, was again a visitor in Salem yesterday and was an expected addition to the services at the First Presbyterian church. At the morning service he spoke briefly and appropriately in connection with the solemnity of the communion and reception of new members, and in the evening occupied the pulpit, delivering a most stirring address on the results of the world war in the near east.

Dr. Coan is a man who speaks with profound force and conviction on this topic, and in the course of his address he not only denounced the German nation for its unpardonable duplicity and ruthlessness in Armenia and Syria, but held up the civilized, Christian nations to condemnation generally for their policy of aloofness in allowing the atrocities of the Turk to go on unnoticed and unpunished for decades. He attaches the greatest significance to the conquest of Palestine by the British forces.

Among other important events in the summer calendar of the First Presbyterian church is a bazaar to be held early in the month of June. In preparation for this event the ladies of the congregation will meet with the Aid society for an all-day working 'bee' each week, each lady to come provided with sewing equipment and a basket of lunch. The proceeds of the bazaar will be devoted to the fund for purchasing the obligation on the new lot.

An audience of at least 250 people should be seated in the auditorium of the public library tomorrow night—Tuesday, April 29—for the last number of the library lecture course. The principal feature will be the lecture by Prof. John R. Sikes, Mrs. D., on the subject "The music of France." The address will be supplemented by several musical numbers, including a cello solo by Prof. Sikes.

Mrs. P. E. Bauer of Seattle arrived in the city Saturday night and will spend the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Garrison, 1096 N. Commercial street. Her husband was for a number of years pastor of the First Congregational church of this city, and is now with a Congregation- al church in Seattle.

Infernal Machine Sent To Mayor Hanson Through Mail Fails To Explode

Seattle, Wash., April 28.—An infernal machine of sufficient power, according to the police, to blow out the entire side of the county city building was discovered in mail addressed to Mayor Hanson and opened at his offices this morning. It failed to explode, although the glass container, holding sulphuric acid designed to set off the bomb, broke. The machine was sent from New York, according to the postmark. Mayor Hanson is in Colorado making a victory loan campaign for the government.

M. H. Strouse, auditor of the building department, who handles the mayor's mail in the absence of the mayor's secretary, G. A. Conklin, while the latter is on tour with Hanson, opened the dread package.

It was a wooden tube about eight inches in length and one and one half in diameter. The return address was that of Gimbel Bros., 32d and 33d streets and Broadway, New York city.

The package was sealed so when it was opened a small phial of acid broke. On the inside and tightly packed were three dynamite caps wrapped together with thread above about a third of a stick of dynamite. The caps were discolored by the small drops of acid it reached.

Congressman Hawley returned last night from his sojourn in the upper valley, where he visited a number of points where there were matters of public importance to be investigated, incidentally making addresses on subjects of national interest. One event of special interest was a visit to his old home near Monroe, in Benton county, where a crowd of his old friends and neighbors got together at the church, called upon him for an address and made him the guest of honor at an old-fashioned farmers dinner. Tomorrow Mr. Hawley leaves for Tillamook and other points on the coast to look into proposed harbor projects.

W. C. Niemeyer knows what it means to be marooned. Yesterday evening he was out in a skiff in the river and found the current so strong just north of the Southern Pacific railroad bridge that he found it advisable to make for the island in the center of the river. There he sent out the usual signs of distress which included waving a lantern and his handkerchief attached to a pole. After two or three hours he managed to attract attention of some passers by. He called to a man on the bank to telephone for help but found no sympathy there. The man said he had a row to make and could give no time to marooned folks. Finally Al Gerald, night watekman of the Spaulding mill heard of the trouble. The Spaulding launch could not be used as the only man found had no license to run a launch on the river. Another man appealed for help by Mr. Gerald said he would help no man, even if marooned. Finally a launch belonging to a boat house was secured and after five hours along on the island and a chilly night coming on, Mr. Niemeyer was rescued.

A certain light will make a person look old and another light in the house will make one look young or at least younger. W. M. Hamilton, manager of the Portland Railway Light and Power company, will deliver a talk Tuesday evening at the high school auditorium not only on how to light the house, but how to light it and thereby improving one's personal appearance. All depends on lights and shadows—mostly shadows—and Mr. Hamilton will explain these. He will also take up the right and wrong kind of lighting and show how the eye sight may be injured by incorrect lighting of the home. The lecture will be illustrated by 30 slides. All angles of home lighting will be discussed by Mr. Hamilton. It is free and no collection will be taken.

Mrs. King, the Chinese woman who stirred things up considerably last week in Chinatown, is now in the county jail, charged with threatening the life of several folks. It is understood that one of her boys went to Portland to interest a brother or cousin in Mrs. King's troubles. By the way, she has had her full share. Several years ago while living on a farm it seems her boys got into trouble with neighbors. About two years ago her husband was killed, being run over by a truck and left her nothing for her support or for the two boys. Her present troubles started when the hut of Wang, in Chinatown, was found on fire a few days ago.

Mrs. A. E. Zahn of Carthage, N. W., has written for information as to price and fruit conditions are in the valley and also for general information that would help her in forming an opinion of the Willamette valley as a desirable place to live. The only pamphlet that has been issued on Salem and vicinity is that of the Commercial club, compiled about five years ago.

George Patterson, an employe of the Ray Woolen mills has purchased a fruit tract of 25 acres from Mrs. Marvin of Portland. The land is in the Waldo hill and was sold at a valuation of $4000. The transfer was handled by W. H. Grabenhorst & Co.

It is a trifle expensive not to observe the city ordinance while driving past a street car when said car is taking on or discharging passengers. The new ordinance provides that the automobile must stop and wait until all passenger are on or off, if going in the same direction as the street car. If on the other side and going in an opposite direction, the auto must be brought to a full stop, and then proceed slowly. Three arrests were made Sunday for violation of this ordinance. L. E. Stiffler of 200 South 25d street paid $5 into the city treasury today for not being careful enough at State and Commercial. F. L. Miller of Silverton broke the ordinance at Liberty and State and put up $5. N. A. Webb of rural route 8 was arrested for passing a street car while passengers were getting off. He appeared before Recorder Haco this morning and was given until 9 o'clock tomorrow morning to plead guilty or not guilty.
