THE SPIRIT OF THE PEOPLE

The best way of loosening large and inaccessible nuts, which are sometimes found about the chassis, is to use a sloped wrench of the proper size, with a big stiffness to furnish the leverage. This combination will handle almost anything.

When over sized tires are to be used, the car owner should be certain that there is enough clearance between all the tires and the nearest part of the car. When the tires are under heavy load there is danger that there will not be clearance between the wheels and fenders and the engine. Be certain that when the springs are compressed to a limit by some extra bump, that the tires will not come in contact with some part of the chassis.

Dull, lifeless eyes, colorless lips, sallow, yellow cheeks, give a girl little chance for a "man" these days. Don't lose heart, just take Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea—helps to make you attractive and fair. Don't delay, begin today. D. J. Fry.

Friends of John Claire Monteith will be interested in the following account of his concert last week in Portland: John Claire Monteith, baritone, appeared in concert last Wednesday night at the Mallory hotel. Mr. Monteith is a specialist in program make up and the versatility of his interpretation makes him one of the most enjoyable concert soloists in the Pacific northwest.

"The recitative and aria 'Vision Fugitive' from the opera 'Herosidade' (Massenet) was sung with finished style and showed the flexible, velvet-like quality of his baritone voice. In folk songs and ballads Mr. Monteith is equally pleasing and the dramatic 'Pauper's Drive' and the 'Smuggler's Song' were given with stirring effect. He included also songs by three Portland composers, known to the musical world, Katherine Glen, Tom Dobson and Bainbridge-Crist. Miss Ida May Cook was piano accompanist and the program included:

Obstinata (Pontanillo); The Nine Penny Fiddle (Hughes); The Lady Bug (Bainbridge-Crist); Ask Nothing More (Marzials); Flower Fetters (Willeby); The Pauper's Drive (Homer); Twilight (Katherine Glen); The Water Lily (Grieg); Vision Fugitive (Massenet); The Birthday (Cowen); I Saw a Ship a Sailing (Tom Dobson); The Smuggler's Song (Edwards); Monday, Tuesday (Irish folk song); Eyes That Used to Gaze in Mine (Lohr); A Little Winding Road (Ronald); I know Where I'm Goin' (Old song); On the Road to Mandalay (Kipling-Speaks).

Miss Wilhelmina Doerfler, who is an instructor at Sacred Heart academy, spent the week end with her parents at Victor Point.

The Federation of Business and Professional Women, an organization which is now being formulated in this country and which will meet in its first national convention at St. Louis July 14, is seeking to gather together all waste women power—this tide of intelligence which may be easily diverted to other purposes—and transform it into a powerful factor for business integrity in the commercial world.

Mrs. Florence Spencer Duryan arrived in Portland last week and has been meeting business women of the city to present to them the plan which a committee of professional women, representing the best interests of business industry, have been working upon for months. This committee has found that radical propaganda is rife everywhere. More especially is it to be found among the younger business women, many of them college women, who have become infected with ultraradical ideas, under the mistaken idea that they are thereby expressing their individuality.

"The time is ripe for the federation," says Mrs. Duryan. "We believe in the value of properly directed energy. The business woman of today must continue to preserve her sanity and balance, and to use the responsibilities the exigencies of the war has put upon her shoulders, as wisely and as impartially as she did during the war.

"Our platform will not only protect the younger woman just coming into business and help them to make their own personal adjustments toward their work and to see in it something more than a temporary tiding over position that means bread and butter, but it will enable the older ones, as well, to

MRS. LARSEN HAS GAINED 14 POUNDS

Says The Way Tanlac Helped Her Is Nothing Short Of Wonderful.

According to the testimony of multiplied thousands who have tried it there is nothing so well adapted to the needs of a run-down system as Tanlac, and in every case where a fair test of its powers is made another enthusiastic witness is the inevitable result. Recently in telling of the remarkable benefits she has derived from the medicine Mrs. Agnes Larsen, residing at 1948 South G street, Tacoma, Washington, said:

"The way Tanlac has relieved me of my suffering and built me up is nothing short of wonderful. Why, I don't only feel like a new woman, but I have actually gained fourteen pounds in weight besides. I was in an awful weak, run-down condition for two years and so nervous that the least little thing out of the ordinary would upset me. I suffered all the time with a pain across my kidneys, which was so bad at times, my back felt like it would break. I was very restless at night, up and down at all hours, unable to sleep. I also suffered a great deal with dizziness and faint feelings, and was so weak that I could not get through with my housework without stopping several times to rest.

"One day I was telling a friend of mine how I felt, and she advised me to try Tanlac. So I got a bottle, and that was one of the best things I ever did. My husband, who was suffering a great deal with indigestion and gas on his stomach, commenced taking it the same time I did, and between us we took eight bottles, and are in splendid condition. His stomach is in such a good condition that he eats just anything and it all agrees with him fine. And as for me, it has built me up until I feel altogether different. My nerves are so much stronger and better that I can sleep all night long, and my appetite is just fine. I no longer have those weak, dizzy spells and the pain has left my back entirely. Both myself and husband think Tanlac is great, and if I ever feel my system getting run-down again I shall take more Tanlac because I know so well what it will do."

Tanlac is sold in Salem by Dr. S. C. Stone, in Hubbard by Hubbard Drug Co., in Mt. Angel by Ben Goeck, in Gervais by John Kelly, in Turner by H. P. Cornelius, in Woodburn by Lyman H. Shorey, in Silverton by Geo. A. Steelhammer, in Gates by Mrs. J. P. McCurdy, in Stayton by U. A. Bonchamp, in Aurora by Aurora Drug Store, in St. Paul by Groeteria Stores Co., in Donald by M. W. adopt and utilize their business ability to the best advantage and will draw them into a closer and more intelligent relationship with the essential principles of business interests.

"The federation of Business and Professional women will better all conditions both for the employer and the employee. Business women have for too long worked in a desultory fashion. It is time we learned that the only possible degradation in honest work is the degradation resulting from having it half done; or poorly done and attacked with a half hearted attitude. If we could elier away a degree of the hallucinations of business and arm every business woman, young and old, with the power to personally adjust her own difficulties, we would have done a great work.

"This federation has been in progress for some time. We have trained organizers working in every state and we have been greatly gratified at the interest that is being taken in it. Business women in every state have been writing this office for help and directions for forming a state federation. The initial step, after organizing the business clubs in each town, is to form a state federation, which in turn, will send delegates to the national convention at St. Louis July 14.

At this convention will be formulated a platform that will be of the greatest possible help to all members of the federations and will have an important bearing on business economics. We have already met and overcome the two greatest dangers to a federation—first, the danger of mental apathy that leads the business woman to be vague by satisfied with her own job and to care not at all for the conditions that may surround other business women, and second, the opposite danger of the radicalism that tends to defy both government and business rules and that leads invariably to a resultant chaos, both of character and of business interests."

The Floral society will hold a meeting in the Commercial club rooms this evening at eight o'clock. Professor Weed of Portland will give an illustrated lecture. Mrs. Frank Fricker will be the soloist of the evening and Miss Helen Sims will render some instrumental selections. The public is cordially invited.

You feel different the minute you take it—a gentle soothing wash into the system. It's a pleasure to take Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. Helps purify the blood, drives out the germs of winter, gets you bustling, full of life and energy. 35c. Tea or Tablets. D. J. Fry.

Squeaking brakes may be cured by washing the lining with kerosene applied with an oil gun. A drop or so of oil on the drums is also sufficient in some cases, and scapstone is recommended. None of these remedies will help much, however, if the squeaking is due to brake lining rivets scraping on the drums.
