Two Planes Lart For New Foundland Today -- NC-3 Is Forced To Return.

Trepassey Bay, N. F., May 10 .-- The NC-1, American naval trans-Atlantic seaplane arrived here this afternoon.

The giant plane settled on the water amid cheers of persons on shore and a welcoming whistle from the destroyer at the base. She arrived at 2:41 p. m. (Washington time) having covered the leg of 475 miles from Halifax in six hours and fifty four minutes.

Halifax, N. S., May 10---The American trans-Atlantic fliers started for Trepassy Bay, New Foundland, early this morning.

At 8:47 a. m. (7:47 Washington time), the NC-1 arose from the surface of the bay. About a quarter of an hour later the NC-3, Commander Towers, swept into the
