F. B. Stark, a farmer living about four miles south of the city, was fined $10 for disorderly conduct Saturday. He had previously paid a $10 fine for speeding on South Commercial street. He claimed that his Ford would make only 15 miles an hour but the police tried it out and found it could travel 32 miles an hour without half trying. Then Mr. Stark got cantankerous when brought to the police station on the speeding charge and the disorderly conduct was booked against him. The jury let him off easy with the $10 fine. Mr. Stark conducted his case eloquently, but the jury brought in the verdict of guilty.

The University of Oregon concert, billed so extensively for tomorrow evening at the opera house, has been cancelled. It is understood the cancellation was due to the illness of several of the singers.

Phillip Jaskowski will soon arrive in Salem, according to a telegram received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jaskowski. He has been with the quartermaster's corps stationed at Camp Lee, Va.

Corporal Clyde Cory of the 63d machine gun company is in the city on a month's furlough from Camp Mead. He will visit friends and relatives.

Evans O. Willard is visiting in the city on a month's furlough. Since his return from France, he has been stationed at Fort Stevens, in the coast artillery. Immediately upon receiving his discharge, he re-enlisted. He will be stationed at the Hawaiian Islands beginning June 1.

Officer Walter Thompson was shanked Saturday evening about 8 o'clock. He was attending to the duties of his regular beat when the special Oregon Electric train of Elks passed through on its way to a celebration at Albany. About half a dozen of the huskiest Elks picked Mr. Thompson up just as the train was starting, put him on the board and kept him there until the train arrived at Albany. However, a little later in the event Mr. Thompson got away and returned to Salem via the automobile route.

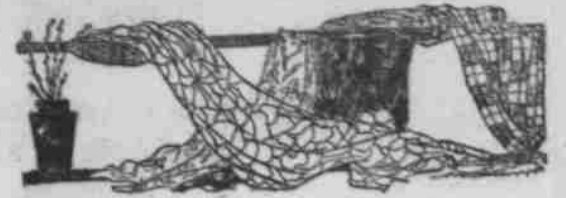

Emmett & White will ship hogs and cattle this week Saturday, May 17. Phone 1425M.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Barnes and daughter Miss Ruth were in St. Louis Sunday on their way east. Today they are taking in the wonders of Mammoth Cave, in Kentucky.

A meeting of the Business Men's league of the Commercial club will be held Tuesday evening of this week. There are several matters coming up now that require some definite action of the business men. In order that the action taken may represent the business ideas of the city, efforts are being made to secure a large attendance.

A. L. Lindbeck, who represented the Portland Journal as special correspondent during the sessions of the last legislature, has been appointed as resident correspondent of the Journal, succeeding Will P. Kirk who accepted a position in the claim department of the industrial accident commission. Mr. Lindbeck has been holding a position of the copy desk of the Journal.

The private funeral services for Mrs. Frank Custator will be held Wednesday morning at the chapel of Webb & Clough. She was coming to spend the summer with her mother, Mrs. J. P. McDonald and died suddenly at Los Angeles. Her brother, Sergeant Alva McDonald, who is stationed at Camp Kearney was with her at the time of her death. Also her small daughter Nelda. She was a sister of Mrs. W. J. Busick, Mrs. C. S. Baker and Miss Grace McDonald, all of Salem and Mrs. J. L. Howe of Portland.

The insurance proposition, always a matter of interest to merchants, will be discussed at the monthly meeting of the Business Men's League to be held at the Commercial club Tuesday evening. Addresses will be delivered by Harvey Wells, state insurance commissioner and by the manager of the Oregon rating bureau.

Speaking of fishing Joe Adolph, Bill Stutsman, Jess Rupert and Reis Anderson have taken a little time off to go on a two day trip up Thomas creek. Of course they won't catch any fish but it is hoped they have a good time any way.

Etha Luper of the state engineer's office, returned last night from a trip into eastern Oregon, going as far as Baker City, and stopping off at La Grande and Vale.

Hedson council No. 1, of the B. & S. M., making up a party of about 20 members, drove over to McMinnville Saturday evening to hold a joint meeting with the lodge at that place. The principal object was the conferring of degrees upon a class of 16 members, and in connection with this there was a banquet and an hour or two of sociability.

H. W. Meyers is now driving a new Cole Aero-Eight car, purchased through the Salem Velie company.

Tuesday noon at the Marion hotel, delegates from all parts of the county representing all commercial or business organizations in the county will meet to form an organization into a community county club. Through the efforts of T. E. McCroskey, who has visited all the towns in the county, delegates have been appointed to attend this meeting. Officers will be elected and a constitution and by-laws adopted. The object is to amalgamate the business interests of the county into one central organization all for community betterment and that the county as a whole, through the amalgamation of all its commercial bodies, may act as a unit in matters coming up pertaining to the entire county. The organization is to be permanent, with representatives from each district and town in the county to meet when county matters are to be discussed.

A meeting of the directors of the Civic department of the Commercial club and representatives of the city council will be held Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Commercial club to arrange for a "Clean up" week in Salem. It is understood that the by-laws will be asked to cooperate with the Commercial club and city council in putting the city in a more presentable condition for the state convention of Odd Fellows to meet in Salem next week beginning Monday, May 19.
