BIDS ASKED ON ROAD GRADING AND BRIDGES

Highway Commission Will Launch Projects At Coming Meeting.

There will be a meeting of the state highway commission at the court house in Portland, on May 27, at which time bids will be received for seven reinforced concrete bridges on the Columbia River highway; one fifty-foot steel beam and concrete bridge on the Pacific highway between Albany and Jefferson; and 850 linear feet of trestle on the Pacific highway between Albany and Jefferson.

At another meeting to be held in Portland, June 10, bids will be received for the grading of four projects on the John Day highway, between Fossil and Dayville. One unit has 13 miles of road with an estimated excavation of 91,000 cubic yards; another, of 12.4 miles with 74,800 cubic yards; another of 12 miles with 91,000 cubic yards, another with 11.5 miles and 103,000 cubic yards of excavation.

Bids on all the foregoing must be accompanied by certified check for 3 per cent of the total amount bid. All blanks and full information may be obtained from the office of the highway commission, Salem. The right is reserved to reject any or all bids.

At the same meeting on June 10 bids will be received for $100,000 worth of four per cent state highway bonds, which will be issued in denominations of $1000, and will mature serially beginning with October 1, 1923.

The legality of the issue has been attested by several of the most prominent legal firms of Boston.

All bids must be accompanied by certified check for the amount of five per cent of total amount of bid, said check to be forfeited in the state of Oregon in case the successful bidder fails to complete his purchase.

You Can't Cure Rheumatism With Liniments and Lotions

Torturing Pains Promptly Return in All Their Intensity

You may as well throw your liniments to the winds, if you expect them to rid you of the pangs of rheumatism. In fact, the sooner you discard forever the use of all forms of local treatment, the sooner you will get on the right track which leads to rational means of relief.

Remember from the outset that the pangs of rheumatism come from a deep-seated cause, and that simply rubbing the painful parts of the body has no effect on the disease itself. But when you locate the cause of the disease, the real source of all these intense pains, you can then treat the disease intelligently.

And until you do treat your rheumatism intelligently, you will never be free from its disabling pangs.

Negro's Plea For Help Ends In Arrest For Having Booze

"Boss, can't you help a poor low down nigger-out of the mud?" was the inquiry put to Chief Varney about 7:30 this morning when driving on a cross road near the Oregon State Training school. It just happened that the authorities at the school had become suspicious of a negro and a big touring car that had blazed into the mud on a cross road, and had telephoned police headquarters. Acting on the suggestion Mr. Varney drove down to investigate.

The negro in charge of the car appealed for help and was pulled out of the mud hole. A little investigation showed a suit case of whiskey in front bottles, numbering an even dozen. As it happens to be against the law to carry that kind of baggage even in suit cases, the negro was brought to town and deposited in $50 federal reserve suite for his appearance before the city recorder this morning at 10 o'clock. About that time in the morning he was seen hitting it up for Portland. The city has the federal reserve currency to the extent of $50.

The war department stated Saturday that demobilization of the army has passed the 2,000,000 mark.
