Naval Balloon, Ready For Trans-Ocean Trip Breaks Moring And Drifts Away

St. John, N. F., May 15.—The navy dirigible C-3 broke loose from its moorings this afternoon and was blown seaward. There was nobody aboard, according to word from Pleasanton field. Two men who were on the dirigible when it broke loose jumped to the ground as it was rising. Washington, May 15.—The navy department has ordered the destroyer Edwards, equipped with anti-aircraft guns, to run down the C-3 and bring her down by puncturing her bag. The message to the navy department read: "Dirigible C-3 broke adrift from mooring Pleasanton, Rip cord broke. No one on board. No casualties. Edwards proceeding in a northeasterly direction ten persons with instructions to assist bringing down with anti-aircraft fire." Pleasanton is the point at St. John where the C-3 was anchored.

Do You Enjoy Life. A man in good physical condition is almost certain to enjoy life, while the bilious and dyspeptic are dependent, do not enjoy their meals and feel miserable a good share of the time. This ill feeling is nearly always unnecessary. A few doses of Chamberlain's Tablets to tune up the stomach, improve the digestion and regulate the bowels is all that is needed. Try it.

Mrs. Addie Daue Files Suit For $5,720 Damages Against Owner Of Auto

Mrs. Addie B. Daue has brought suit for $5,720 against B. J. Miles and Donald W. Miles. In her complaint she alleges that on evening of Dec. 14, 1918, at 8 o'clock, she was standing on the east side of South Commercial street at Bush street, for the purpose of boarding a north bound street car then approaching. She further alleges that Donald J. Miles was operating an automobile and that he was following the street car. That he was operating the automobile carelessly, negligently and at an unlawful rate of speed without due regard for the rights of others, and that he did not have the automobile under control. It is further alleged that he changed his course without warning and that the plaintiff was struck by the auto he was driving and that she was carried 60 feet, almost killing her and rendering her unconscious. Mrs. Daue alleges that she was severely lacerated and bruised, necessitating medical treatment, and that her neck and spine and back were bruised, jarred and injured so much so that she is now nervous and suffers intensely. It is also alleged that several ribs were broken and that she received internal injuries, causing her pain and suffering. Mrs. Daue states in the complaint that her hospital expenses as the result of being run down, were $8,500, and that her wearing apparel was damaged in the sum of $122. That since Dec. 14, 1918, she has not been able to assist her husband, Elmer A. Daue in the store where she had been helping him and that this loss amount to $100. Also that as a result of being struck by the automobile she has not been able to work and has suffered thereby a loss of $500. In addition to these losses and expense, Mrs. Daue asks for $5000 permanent damages.

About Rheumatism Rheumatism causes more pain and suffering than any other disease, for the reason that it is the most common of all ills, and it is certainly gratifying to sufferers to know that there is a remedy that will afford relief, and make rest and sleep possible. It is called Chamberlain's Liniment.

Bandits Get Big Haul In Robbery Of Illinois Bank

Chicago, May 14.—Five masked automobile bandits today escaped with $30,000 in liberty bonds, $29,000 in certificates of indebtedness, and $10,000 in cash from the First National bank of Dalton, Ill., 16 miles from here. The men forced Assistant Cashier Baker to open the vault containing the money and securities. They took the loot and a girl employee in the far rear room. A customer walked in before the bandits left and they locked him in with the employees. Police believe the bandits timed their robbery with the expected arrival of $10,000 for a payroll. The president of the bank was at the railroad station receiving the money while the robbery was going on.

SHIRINERS GET RATE

Portland, May 15.—Senator McNary at Washington, D. C., advised Portland shiners today that the railroad administration, after having previously refused twice, had granted one and a one-third fare from all Pacific coast cities to Indianapolis, where the shiners will hold their annual convention in June.

A building permit has been taken out by Ben Pade for a frame dwelling to be erected at 720 North 15th street. The cost is estimated at $650 and the work will be done by day labor.

Another indication of the building season about to begin in Salem is the taking out this morning of a building permit for $8000 by F. A. Kutz for the erection of the first unit of an evaporating plant to be located on the south side of South street, between Norway and South streets, at a point where the street car track runs across North Commercial along South street. It is understood that the evaporator, to be built especially for the evaporating of prunes will include everything that is modern and up to date in a plant of the kind. The building is to be constructed in units and will be built by day labor.

It seems that the hobo who entered the home of C. G. Robertson on rural route 5, had things all his own way. The family happened to be away and as he then had full run of the house, he helped himself to the following: 2 rings, 1 brooch, 1 neck chain and pendant, 1 watch chain, 1 pair of glasses, 1 razor, 1 coin purse with some small change, a $50 liberty bond, 1 suit of men's clothes, 1 hat, 1 suit of underwear, 3 pairs half hose and 1 pair kid gloves. By some oversight he failed to carry off a gold watch and a large gold cross link family heir looms. The hobo traveled north as far as Astoria and then managed to get into an untraveled country as he has not been heard of nor reported.
