HELENSTON—To Mr. and Mrs. Delbert E. Blinn of Rosedale, May 16, 1919, a daughter.
—She has been named Ilene.

At the meeting of the city council Monday evening an ordinance will be introduced whereby the city vacates to the new $500,000 paper mill company certain streets, all of which have been occupied by the Spaulding Logging company for years past excepting the foot of Trade street which has been so practical use since Front street was raised to the grade of Commercial street. The petition of the Spaulding Logging company asking for this vacation has been posted for 30 days and the next procedure is the introduction of the ordinance. It is probable that this ordinance will come up for a first and second reading Monday evening but cannot be brought up for final passage, as this cannot be done on the evening an ordinance is introduced unless there is a unanimous consent of the council. It is well known that Fred J. Smith of the first ward, M. H. Vandervort of the second ward and Ralph Thompson of the seventh ward are opposed to the vacation of streets asked for by the paper mill. With any one of the three objecting to the third reading and passage of the ordinance Monday evening, no action can be taken until a following regular meeting or until the mayor calls a special session.

Company M intends to organize a baseball club and all members of the company who are interested are requested to meet at 1 o'clock Sunday at the armory.

Three marriages are scheduled for today. Licenses have been issued as follows: Ralph Dexter Blyden of Astoria, 21, a lumberman and Verne Elizabeth Brown of Woodburn, 18, a student.

Supply blanks have been received by internal revenue collector of Portland for distribution to partnerships and personal service corporations in Oregon. Every partnership and personal service corporation in business in 1918 must make a report before June 15, 1919, regardless of amount of gross or net income.

School district No. 58, known as the Pleasant View school between Marlow and Turner, is one of the districts that will not be obliged to make a material increase in the salary of its teacher. The district paid $45 a month about two years ago but in order to secure the services of Mrs. Anna F. Garretson for the present school year, it has been paying $70 a month. While the salaries of teachers have been advanced in Salem, many rural districts will find it necessary to increase their budget as $75 a month is the least that may lawfully be paid to a country teacher, even if there is only half a dozen pupils or more.

At a meeting held today noon at the Marion hotel in the interest of the war camp community service, John W. Tould was elected to represent locally the work with the title of executive secretary. Among those at the meeting were Rev. R. N. Avison, Mrs. John Carson, Mrs. R. J. Hendricks, John W. Tould, T. E. McCroskey, Mayor C. E. Albin, R. O. Snelling and H. W. Meyers. Thomas Elliott, national representative explained the work to be done by the war camp community service.

Among recent social events at Willamette university was the entertainment of the high school senior girls by the Philodorian society. The program included a short talk by Fay Feringer on the subject of "College requirements" and the one act play "Silvia's Aunt." This was followed by dainty refreshments and a round of college songs.

Base ball enthusiasts have their choice between two lively games this afternoon—one between the Salem high school and the Albany high school, which is played on the Willamette grounds, and the other between the Chemawa team and the penitentiary team on the prison grounds.

Cancer Of Breast Cured
This is to certify that I was afflicted with cancer of the nipple for two years, which worried me greatly. I applied to Dr. S. C. Stone for treatment and in a short time the cancer came out to my great relief. The place soon healed up perfectly. I write this recommendation at my own suggestion for I feel it my duty to let those similarly afflicted know that a cure is available by simply applying to Dr. Stone.

Mr. and Mrs. N. O. Bales received a telegram yesterday that their son Paul Bales, had landed in New York. He enlisted in the aviation squadron May 7, 1917, at the age of 18 years. At the time of his enlistment he was a junior in the Salem high school.

There will be no Riverside Dip for those who love the water. An effort was made by the Commercial club to secure the Dip for city purposes this summer but the owners of the property had lapsed it about eight months ago. Now that the Dip cannot be considered, an effort will be made to find some suitable place where the youngsters may indulge in river bathing or something of the kind. At the meeting held last evening, members of the city park board and of the Civic department of the Commercial club decided to further investigate and a committee was appointed consisting of R. O. Snelling, director of the civic department of the Commercial club, J. J. Roberts and J. S. Austin, Mr. Austin is alderman from the third ward.

Citizens responded so cheerfully to the clean up movement, that the city carts were not able to handle the trash yesterday. Hence it was decided to extend clean up day over Monday when the carts will manage to haul away all that is offered. In the mean time 65 boy scouts have been enlisted in the good work and will devote next Tuesday to a general inspection of the town and to removing where there has been no cleaning up. The city has been subdivided and each boy given about six blocks to inspect. Hence when any one happens to see a boy scout in the correct uniform sizing up back alleys and back yards, it may be known that he is out inspecting for the health department and Commercial club.

Tomorrow at noon begins the final intensive campaign for funds in the great centenary drive of the Methodist church. For weeks past canvassers have been at work throughout the Salem district and with most gratifying results. Not less than twelve $1000 subscriptions have been recorded, together with a large number of contributions well up in the hundreds. Thus far fourteen churches in the valley have either reached or exceeded their quotas as follows: First church, Salem; Sheridan, McMinnville, Dallas, Brooks, Ballston, Fargo, Yamhill, Oak Grove, Lafayette, Unity, Falls City, Perrydale and Carlton. Out of the total number of Methodist churches in the northwest, 56 have already reached their quotas.

Monday evening, May 19th, the young peoples' societies and church people generally will have the rare privilege of hearing one of the world's most noted Christian Endeavor workers—Rev. D. A. Poling, D. D., L. L. D.—of Boston, who will speak in the First Christian church on the subject of international Christian Endeavor work. He is associate president of the United Society and known throughout the nation as one of its liveliest and most influential workers. He is a speaker of exceptional ability and also the author of several books. His addresses are enriched by extensive travel and observation, as he has made two trips to Europe and spent several months with the soldiers at the front. A cordial invitation is extended to the Salem public to attend this meeting.

The man who was disappointed in not getting to France is now offered a fine chance by the war department. The offer is for enlistment and reads as follows: "A discharged soldier or marine may reenlist at this time for special limited service in France and be transferred here immediately for duty until next fall, at which time he will be returned to the United States and discharged." The ages of enlistment are between 17 and 40 years and the pay is $20 a month with clothes furnished and free medical attention. Any postmaster or recruiting officer is authorized to take enlistments under this special offer.

During the first half of this month seven permits have been issued for building amounting to $18,850. The two largest permits are for the pump dryer of P. A. Curtz issued yesterday for $8000, and the residence of Dr. F. B. Thompson for $9000.

In the minds of Salem theater goers the name of Griffith is inevitably up with the word "great." Griffith himself is fond of the word, and undertakes to live up to it in every new production. In the latest are film—"The Girl who stayed at Home"—which comes to the Oregon Sunday for a three day run, he has again exemplified his genius for putting more into a play than the characters and situations seem to indicate. This film, while not exactly a war picture, is staged in France during the war period and includes some of the most stirring battle scenes that even Griffith has portrayed. The central figure is a little modern Magdalene—a petite cabaret singer who really wanted to be good but didn't just know how, and who was finally enabled by her love for a Yankee soldier boy, Charles Seymour is the girl, and the soldier boy is Robert Harrow, who enters the story as a virtual stranger and comes out a thorough hero. "The Girl who stayed at Home" will be found one of the most dramatic stories ever shown in Salem, and like all of Griffith's productions, carries its thread of comedy and of romance.

Better than Pills

YOU WILL NEVER wish to take another dose of pills after having once used Chamberlain's Tablets. They are easier and more pleasant to take, more gentle and mild in their action and more reliable. They leave the bowels in a natural condition, while the use of pills is often followed by severe constipation, requiring a constant increase in the dose. Every bottle guaranteed by your druggist.
