

Camel Cigarettes

CAMELS are as delightful to your taste as they are new. And, so satisfying that they meet every cigarette desire you ever have had.

Camels are sold everywhere in scientifically sealed packages of 20 cigarettes, or ten packages of 100 cigarettes in a glass-paper-covered carton. We strongly recommend this carton for the home or office supply or when you travel.

18 cents a package

Camels are unusual; in fact they're unlike any cigarette you ever smoked. That's because they're an expert blend of choice Turkish and choice Domestic tobacco, producing a quality that meets your taste as no other cigarette ever did.

Camels' expert blend gives that mellow-mild-body and frees the cigarettes from any unpleasant cigarette aftertaste or any unpleasant cigarette odor. You can smoke Camels as liberally as you like without tiring your taste.

You have only to get personally acquainted with the expert Camel blend to know that you prefer it to either kind of tobacco smoked straight!

For your own satisfaction compare Camels with any cigarette in the world at any price!

OLCOTT NAMES CHILD WELFARE COMMISSION

Two Women And Man Appointed To Personnel Of Newly Created Board.

The new child welfare commission provided for in an act of the recent legislature has been selected and the personnel of the new commission was announced by Governor Olcott today as follows:

Dr. Robert G. Hall of Portland, physician, selected by the president of the state medical association, as provided for in the act. Dr. Hall is a specialist in the matter of children's cases and takes a deep interest in their handling. The following three are appointed by the governor himself: Mrs. Millie R. Trumbull, Portland; Fred Lockley, Portland; Mrs. Fred G. Schilke, La Grande. Mrs. Trumbull is widely known for her interest in matters pertaining to child welfare. Fred Lockley also has a deep interest in matters of this kind. Mrs. Schilke is president of the Oregon Congress of Mothers and as such is also head of the Parent-Teachers association of the state. She is deeply devoted to child welfare work. The act allows the commission a trained social worker as secretary at a salary of $2000 a year. The commission is to be provided suitable rooms in one of the state buildings and an appropriation of $6000 is provided for to carry out the provisions of the act. The commission is to inspect and supervise all of the child caring agencies, societies or institutions of the state and to have general control over them. Many other important provisions giving the commission wide latitude in its supervision of delinquent, dependent or deficient children are incorporated in the new law.

Catarrh for Twenty Years

Mrs. M. S. Davis, 1607 10th Ave., N. Nashville, Tenn., writes:

"After having been a constant sufferer from catarrh for more than twenty years and after trying almost every remedy advertised, and having lost all hope, I very reluctantly began the use of Peruna about two years ago. Everybody says I look younger now than I did twenty years ago, and I actually feel younger and better, and weigh more. I am recommending it to my neighbors and all with whom I come in contact."

STATE GRANGE WILL MEET

The 46th annual session of the Oregon state grange will open in Hillsboro at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning and continue for four days. Two hundred delegates are expected and others who will swell the total number of visitors to 6500.

As officers were elected at the As-toria session last year, selection of officers will not form a part of the business of the coming meeting, which will be devoted strictly to business. Sessions of the grange are private, but outsiders will be admitted during the lecture hours.

Despite the fact that junketing has been frowned down, relaxation will be furnished by a motor trip to the Groner walnut orchards at Scholls Wednesday afternoon, with a return trip following a route which will show the famous agricultural district. In the evening the delegates will be tendered a banquet by Hillsboro business men.

tie score of 11 to 11 after two events, as decided last night. Miss Evelyn DeLong, sophomore, won the discus throw with a record of 42 feet. E. Rush, freshman, was second, E. Martain, freshman, third, and Ino Moore, sophomore, fourth. In the high jump, Ino Moore and Ethel Moorcroft led with leaps of 4 feet 2 inches. Miss L. Ruby was second while M. Notson and E. Leopold tied for fourth place.

Preliminaries for the hundred and fifty-yard dashes were run last night. The finals will be decided next Monday evening. In the hundred-yard dash the contestants will be Misses Mearns, Doughton, Ruby, DeLong, Peringer and Goodwin. Those who will enter the 50-yard finals are Misses Moorcroft, Austin, Isham, DeLong, Goodwin and Peringer.
