In the suit of Dora Whitman, who is suing the state industrial accident commission to increase the allowance of her four children from $6 a month to $15 a month, the commission has demurred to the complaint, alleging that the writ does not state fact sufficient to constitute a cause for action. Should the suit come to trial, it is understood that the legal question will come up as to whether, where the father and mother are divorced, the children are orphans of whether they are not. If the four children are orphans, they are entitled to $15 a month. If not, $6 a month is the legal amount. The commission is already allowing $6 a month on the supposition they are not orphans, although the father and mother were divorced at the time the father was accidentally killed.

In the case of C. E. McIlwaine and wife against the estate of N. C. Liston for $3000 for care given Mr. Liston during his illness, was recently brought to trial in the circuit court. The conclusion of the law was and a decree entered that Mr. McIlwaine and wife had performed services to the value of $186.50 prior to October 18, 1918, and that from October 17, 1918, to November 1, 1918, the services rendered Mr. Liston had a value of $100. Instead of the $3000 as claimed against the estate, the court allowed the plaintiffs $286.50 and that each party in the suit should pay their own costs.

I. F. Burt died at his home six miles east of the city Wednesday afternoon. Yesterday his niece, Mrs. Jennie Hicks, of Fruitland petitioned the court for a letter of administration for her appointment as administratrix, which was granted. In her petition Mrs. Hicks stated that the only heirs known were a brother, Dr. Z. F. Burt, 85 years of age, living at Phillipsburg, Pa., a nephew Luther Burt whose residence is unknown, and herself, Jennie Hicks, a niece; that so far as known, the niece and nephew, children of a brother, W. O. Burt, and the brother, Dr. Z. F. Burt, were the only living heirs. The estate is valued at $1000 in real estate and $250 in personal property. A. J. Marthia, Chris Stenback and Paul Silke were appointed appraisers. The funeral services of Mr. Burt will be held Saturday.

Home runs: Kenworthy, Angela; Miller, Oaks; Krug, Borton.
It looked like a rose festival when Portland put two greens in the first inning, forcing Crespi from the lot, but Kautleher took the Seal mound and the Grahamites won, 4 to 2.
By scattering their hits the Rainiers lost to the Angels, 9 to 1. The Seattleites hit Curly Brown for 11 bingles but could only cross the plate once.
It took ten innings for the Onks to down the Bees. The final score 5 to 4.
Six tallies by the Tigers in the first stanza drove Vance to the showers and aided the disciples of Roseco to defeat the Solons, 8 to 6.

Roosevelt. Too bad he was not sent to Russia, instead of Mr. Root. He could have performed wonders of reorganization. They would have rallied around him, millions of them.
"The revolutionary spirit, resulting from oppression and increasing knowledge of American freedom and higher standard of living, is rampant in Japan. Autocracy there will soon be succeeded, in my opinion, by a democratic system more suited to their needs. The need of the Japanese is the same as that of Russia and of all the world, to wit: scientific education, our free school institutions and a duplication of our entire governmental system. Imperfect men may not be expected to make our almost perfect system work to perfection, and with all the faults of inefficient men, popularly elected, and with all the horrors of mal-administration, the American government is the best in the world."

Brother Killed in France.
Dever is a brother of Captain Tracy Collier Dever, of the Fifth field artillery, an officer well known in western military circles, who was wounded while commanding a battery in the last fighting in France and died in a Paris hospital on January 19. Captain Dever was promoted to the rank of colonel during the war period. He had served with Feeding in the Philippines and Mexico. "Another brother and my son, Jack, 24, privates in the army of occupation on the Rhine, went through a long period of active service without a wound," said the Seattle man. "My boy writes he wouldn't take a million dollars for his experience of the war and civilization gained in Europe."

various sizes, and of a total value of $220,000. These trucks form a part of the surplus and now useless war equipment and on the close of hostilities they were turned over to the department of agriculture to be placed where they would do the most good. These machines are distributed to the states that have forest and post roads under construction, and entail no cost to the state, the only stipulation being that they are to be used on roads that have federal aid.
The weekly report of the industrial accident commission shows that there were 588 accidents reported throughout the state, three of them resulting fatally. These were Martin Paul, Bell-Lambert, Joseph Swartz, Knappa; Louis Lambert, Noverill, all of them being engaged in logging operations. Out of the total number, 364 were subject to the provisions of the compensation act.
The Oregon state textbook commission will meet in Salem on June 2 for the adoption of textbooks for use in the public schools of Oregon for a period of six years. Superintendent J. A. Churchill was notified today by the commission that it is their request that no representatives appear before the commission during the session. All of the large publishing companies have representatives in Portland. Members of the commission believe that the work of selecting textbooks can be carried on more expeditiously if the entire time can be given to the selection of textbooks. They are, therefore, making the request that none of the representatives come to Salem during the session of the commission, but that they be at their usual places of business in order that they may be consulted by telephone, if necessary.
George T. Gerlinger, of the Willamette Valley Lumber company of Dallas, was today appointed by Governor Olsen as a member of the state board of forestry to succeed L. S. Hill of Cottage Grove, who has resigned. In submitting his resignation Mr. Hill stated that his business would take him away from the state a greater part of the summer and he would be unable to give attention to his duties as a member of that board. Mr. Gerlinger has been actively engaged in the lumber industry of the northwest for many years and is fully familiar with the problems of the industry as affecting the northwestern states.
As part of the campaign to continue the fine work along the lines of social hygiene during the war Governor Olsen has sent letter to members of the com-
