With the coming of summer, there is a feeling that the Canoe club of Salem should be reorganized and that the sport of canoeing should be revived. Former officers of the Canoe association state that a call will soon be made for a meeting. There are 15 canoes in the club house and it is thought that a club of 20 or more can easily be organized.

Here is a man—M. Bier, of Liberty and Chemeketa streets, who would rather be charitable than see perfectly good cabbage plants go to waste. He has been making a business of raising and selling plants, but now finds he is going to have a surplus on hand. If there is some widow or person in straitened circumstances who can make use of a bunch of the plants they can be obtained by calling at the above address.
