Breathes there a man with soul so dead,
Who never to himself hath said
This is my own, my native land;
Whose heart has never within him burned
As home his footsteps he hath turned
From wandering on a foreign strand.

If such there breathe, go mark him well;
For him no minstrel raptures swell;
High though his titles, proud his name,
Boundless his wealth as wish can claim;
Despite those titles, power and pelf,
The wretch, concentrated all in self,
Living shall forfeit fair renown,
And doubly dying shall go down
To the vile dust from whence he sprung,
Unwept, unhonored and unsung.

WARDEN STEVENS AND PAROLE OFFICER ASK

entire time to them. Parole Officer Keller for a number of weeks has been arranging the new record system at the prison which will replace the old one now in vogue. The record system has received the approval of officials who have looked it over and contains a number of innovations on the old one which was established when the operation of the parole in 1 were in a purely experimental stage. To complete this the parole officer has been asked to remain until July 1.

Warden Stevens assumed the warden-ship of the penitentiary December 1 of last year, coming to Oregon from New York to take the position. He was formerly sheriff of Multnomah county for three terms and for many years connected with Portland banks.

Keller Named in 1915.

Parole Officer Keller was appointed parole officer by Governor Withycombe March 8, 1915, and has served continuously since that time. Mr. Keller is contemplating entering other lines of business which will take up his entire time.

Superintendent Steiner is a native of Bluffton, Ohio, born September 26, 1870. He came to Salem in 1906 where he engaged in the drug business. He secured his medical degree at Willamette University in 1907 and took a post graduate course in the New York Medical school. He practiced his profession in Dallas, Lakeview and Klamath Falls and represented Wasco, Klamath, Lake and Grant counties in the 1905 legislature. He

Donald School Closes Successful Year Of Work

(Capital Journal Special Service.)
Donald, Or., May 29.—Wednesday, May 29, closed the school year in the Donald school. As a closing scene the rooming club gave a demonstration on Wednesday afternoon. A demonstration team composed of Wilda Dawes, Vera Dawes and Mary Sibley demonstrated white snow. The team as a whole and individually were very efficient. Everything done by them seemed just right to the judges, Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Fulkerson of Salem.

Each girl of the class, thirteen in number, had a cake on exhibit, which was judged by Mrs. Jones, while all were creditable but the first prize was awarded Miss Alice Pendleton; second, Echo DeSart; third, Zoe Goude.

In the sewing contest Alice Pendleton again carried off the blue ribbon; Edith Evans the red and Vera Dawes and Mary Sibley tied on third. The following comprise the class: Misses Alice Pendleton, Edith Elmore, Alice Bieh, Dorothy Ryan, Zoe Goude, Ruth Yorgen, Edith Evans, Esther Lasse, Mary Sibley, Wilda and Vera Dawes, Echo DeSart and Ethel Bixel.

The following pupils took the eighth grade examination and passed very creditably: Hal DeSart, Norman Yorgen, Melvin Evans, Harry Cone, Esther Lasse, Wilda and Vera Dawes.
