NEW LAWS COVER WIDE VARIETY OF QUESTIONS

Everything From Regulation Of Red Flag To Fishing Included In Bills.

All laws passed by the last legislature, with the exception of those to which the emergency clause was attached, became effective Thursday. Among those of interest to the average citizen are the following:

Carrying a red flag in a procession or displaying one to express disapproval of existing conditions or disloyalty to the government is forbidden. Teachers who speak the German language only cannot be employed in the state. One of the bills passed provides that all teaching in any school or institution in the state must be in the English language. Exception is made where a foreign language is taught.

Where a child is to be adopted, the consent of the mother only is necessary in certain cases. It sometimes happens that the father is not known and to prevent any possibility of the father later making legal claims to an adopted child, the bill was introduced and passed.

No school district in the state of Oregon may pay less than $75 a month to its school teacher. Marion county and Polk county were paying the lowest salaries in the state, many teachers receiving only $45 a month. At the time the bill was introduced in the legislature, Mrs. Alexander Thompson of The Dalles produced official records to prove that Marion county was about at the bottom of the list in paying teachers.

Retail stores are not permitted to return old bread to the bakeries. When the bill came up for discussion in the legislature, it was stated that the Portland bakeries first sold bread to the high brow hotels and what they had left was returned and then sold to the second class hotels. What these could not use was again returned and the process kept up or rather down to the Chinese joints. The official loaf must be one pound, 1 1/2 pounds, 2 pounds, 3 pounds or other weights in even pounds.

If any county wants to pay a bounty on jack rabbits, it may be submitted to the voters at a general or special election when 10 per cent of the legal voters present a petition to the county court.

Here is one of special interest to fishermen: "It shall be unlawful within the state of Oregon in the Willamette river or any of its tributaries which flow into the Willamette river south of East Independence station, Marion county, to use any salmon or trout or spawn as bait or lure while angling." Unless the school directors so specify all teachers in the schools of the county must call the school in session at 9 o'clock in the morning, give one hour for non and not dismiss school until 4 o'clock. The directors may change these school hours. There must be plenty of fresh air in the school room. Pupils under the age of eight years must not be confined in the school house more than 2 1/2 hours a day. Each day there must be two exercises in fro gymnastics and voice and special breathing exercises given daily.

One Auto Every Minute On Pacific Highway

To reduce the automobile traffic over the Salem-Auro part of the Pacific highway while paving is in progress, the county court has posted signs here directing drivers to turn west to the river road. Along the way to the river road are red posters pointing the way. "Follow the red signs" is the order of the county court. The red signs have been posted at all cross roads making it almost impossible even for strangers to lose the way.

Actual count of autos passing along the highway shows that automobiles pass at the rate of one a minute, which interferes with the work of paving. This is the reason the court is trying to divert the through traffic to the river road.—Aurora Observer.

Beginning next January 1, the automobile tax will be in the form of an automobile license and no auto owner can beat the assessor, as has been done, according to reports from the court house. The auto owner will pay his or her auto tax for 1920 when securing a license and then by April 1 of next year pay the amount of the 1919 assessment.

Silverton may now have its army. A special bill was passed providing for the payment of $10,000 of state money and $10,000 of county money for the Silverton army. But in order to get this money, the city must donate a suitable site and then raise $10,000. The site selected must be approved by the general staff of the National Guard of Oregon.

COUNTRY HOME BURNED TO THE GROUND SATURDAY

The country home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Kaiser burned to the ground last Saturday, the fire having caught from a defective flue. The family were at home when the fire started but it had gotten under such headway before being discovered that the house could not be saved. Most of the household effects were saved with the exception of the range. Saturday was warm and dry and the house burned rapidly.—Silverton Appeal.

EXPERIENCED SHOWER OF MUD FROM EXPLODING SHELLS

DONALD NEWS NOTES.

(Capital Journal Special Service.)

Donald, Or., May 30.—The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Miller regret to learn of the death of their niece, Miss Edna Miller, who died in Woodburn Tuesday afternoon after a lingering illness of several months. Her funeral was held from the Catholic church in Woodburn Thursday.

P. P. Hall visited his sister, Mrs. Roy Garritt on Wednesday.

Mrs. J. L. Hellen of Woodburn spent Wednesday with her cousin, Roy Garritt.

Mrs. Parquette was a Salem visitor on Thursday.

Earl Scott of Donald community left for Seattle and other Sound points Monday to spend the summer.

William Connett of Oregon City was called home on Monday because of the illness of one of his children, but returned on Wednesday reporting the child better.

E. Carver and Leon Bice motored to Portland Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Carrie Fry Mahon and daughters, Virginia and Martha of Portland and W. F. Fry of St. Louis, Missouri, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Johnson on Sunday. Mrs. Johnson and Mr. Fry are cousins and were raised together near Louisiana, Missouri, but had not seen each other for thirty years. Mr. Fry is touring the west as far north as Vancouver, B. C.

Mrs. Lena Thompson of Portland has bought some acreage near Wisecross and is preparing to build upon same. Until their lumber arrives they have been guests at the Bungalow hotel.

Thursday a picnic was to be held by the school in Cone's grove, but the rain prevented so a fine picnic dinner was served in the school building, where parents, teachers and pupils had a fine social time, closing a successful school term, notwithstanding they were handicapped by three changes of teachers and two or three intermissions because of scarletina, and flu scare, but Mrs. E. Conc and Miss Seollard have been untiring in their efforts to bring pupils up to the standard and deserve the thanks of the entire community.

Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Elmore of Donald received late word that their son, who has been in service in France for the past seven months, was on his way home and expected at any time much to the joy of the family.

Mrs. M. V. Johnson of Pasco, Wash., was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Johnson over Wednesday night, going to Woodburn on Thursday's noon train, where she will visit friends for a short time.

again taken up his old work on the medical staff of the state hospital. Dr. Ross was in the Argonne battle and while he escaped without a wound he had the experience of being deluged with mud on different occasions from exploding shells.—Silverton Appeal.

RIPPLING RHYMES By Walt Mason

MOTORING.

I leave the city's nose behind, its stone and brick built sectors, forsake a while the beastly grind, and all the bill collectors. I climb on high the verdant hills, the azure heavens o'er me, forgetting bailiffs and their bills and all the things that bore me. It is a pleasant thing to go away from toil and knitting; my car is working like a jo, its cylinders all hitting. Oh, Scott may sing of Loch-invar, whose charger was a hummer; but give to me the modern car, and long, long days of summer. I chug along by wood and glade and by the babbling waters, salute the farmer with his spade, and gossip with his daughters. At intervals my car I stop, some quaint old signboard reading; and now and then a rural cop would run me in for speeding. I loaf along, eight miles an hour, the motor working nifty, and then, to show I have the power, I shove her up to fifty. Through dale and dell, on dune and down, I throw the dust behind me; and tired collectors scour the town with bills, and cannot find me. I look around in silent glee upon the landscape's splendor, until I run against a tree and bust a wheel and fender. Then I go limping back to town, my kind of luck berating; and find the bailiffs all camped down in stern and watchful waiting.
