Associated Bible Students I. B. S. A.

Associated Bible Students meet every Sunday morning in Moore hall, Court and High streets, for Bible study. News from 10 to 12. Sunday afternoon at 2:30 p. m., E. D. Sexton of Los Angeles will deliver an address on "The Kingdom of Heaven is at Hand." It is a self-evident fact that the whole creation is groaning and traveling in vain now under the great load they are carrying and hoping for some deliver-

150 PERSONS ATTEND BIG VICTORY DINNER

This week and next mark the season of great activities for high school students and especially for the seniors. The class play is in the last stage of rehearsal and will be presented next Tuesday evening. With examinations at the right and at the left of them, with class play rehearsals, attending banquets and preparation for graduation the members of the senior class are learning the meaning of the word busy.

Leslie Church Members Celebrate Progress Of Centenary Campaign.

An important feature of the Centenary campaign in the Methodist Episcopal churches of Salem and vicinity was the "Victory Dinner" which was held in the parlors of Leslie church last evening. More than 175 persons were seated at the tables. The Glee club of Willamette University was present, and contributed greatly to the enjoyment of the evening by a number of well rendered selections. Another pleasing feature which delighted all present was a whistling solo by C. C. Clark, who responded graciously to a general request made by those who had had the pleasure of hearing her before.

State Institutions.

Services at the state institutions Sunday will be held as follows: 9:00 a. m., state hospital by A. Wells. 3:00 p. m., girls' training school by Charles H. Powell. 3:15 p. m., tuberculosis hospital by H. N. Aldrich.

Jason Lee Memorial M. E. Church.

Corner of Winter and Jefferson streets, Thomas Acheson, pastor. Sunday school, 9:45 a. m., Charles Hageman, superintendent. Classes for all ages under the care of efficient teachers. Public worship, 11 a. m., subject, "The Challenge of Victory." Class meeting, 12:15, leader, J. M. Clark. Epworth League devotional meeting, 7 p. m., Grace Tyler, president. A cordial invitation is extended to young people. Evening worship, 8 o'clock, subject, "The Doubters' Pathway to God." A twenty minute song service will precede the evening message. Special music by the choir, led by Prof. Clark at all of the services. We extend a cordial invitation to the public to command worship with us.

Pythian Sisters High Jinks Second Annual Success

The City hall was crowded Wednesday night to see the second annual production of High Jinks given by the Pythian Sisters. Fun began with the program at 8:20. The seating capacity of the hall had long since been taken and standing room also. At the conclusion of the program of music and readings, every number being a specialty, the Jazz band an extra, the floor was cleared of the chairs to enable the crowd to enjoy the side shows and give the cops a chance to pull anybody on a disorderly charge, take them before a solemn judge and be fined the sum of an ice cream cone. The side shows had Barnum shadeds, the poultry show, art studio, curiosity shop and all the rest of it was a sure cure for the blues. The exhibit closed with a grand march; dancing followed. A large crowd were present from Barlow, Canby, Aurora, Needy and a number from Silverton and Woodburn. Receipts $172.10.—Hubbard Enterprise.

E. D. SEXTON, A NOTED LECTURER HERE SUNDAY

"The Kingdom of Heaven is at Hand." In order that the people of this city may have an opportunity to consider this convincing and heart cheering message, the International Bible Students association has arranged for this great lecture to be delivered free to the public at the Moose hall at 2:30 p. m. next Sunday. The Kingdom of God will be shown to be the "Desire of all nations"—living and dead. It will be the complete and lasting liberation of the people from every form of bondage with the fullest liberty along the lines of justice, righteousness. No power can retard its inauguration. Its reign is inevitable. E. D. Sexton of Los Angeles, a lecturer of national as well as international reputation having lectured in many of the foreign cities, will deliver the address. Mr. Sexton has just completed a tour of the eastern states. He never fails to interest his hearers.

Pythian Sisters High Jinks Second Annual Success

The City hall was crowded Wednesday night to see the second annual production of High Jinks given by the Pythian Sisters. Fun began with the program at 8:20. The seating capacity of the hall had long since been taken and standing room also. At the conclusion of the program of music and readings, every number being a specialty, the Jazz band an extra, the floor was cleared of the chairs to enable the crowd to enjoy the side shows and give the cops a chance to pull anybody on a disorderly charge, take them before a solemn judge and be fined the sum of an ice cream cone. The side shows had Barnum shadeds, the poultry show, art studio, curiosity shop and all the rest of it was a sure cure for the blues. The exhibit closed with a grand march; dancing followed. A large crowd were present from Barlow, Canby, Aurora, Needy and a number from Silverton and Woodburn. Receipts $172.10.—Hubbard Enterprise.
