The rooms were beautifully decorated with basked of red roses and delicious refreshments were served. Music and dancing formed the evening's diversions The guest list included a number of members of the club.

A popular young visitor in the capital city is Miss Marie Campbell of Portland, who is here for a few days was formerly well known in musical circles here, being a violinist of rare ability and the possessor of a beautiful damatic soprano voice. She is the daughter of T. K. Campbell, for many years connected with the public service commission.

Next Wednesday and Taursday Mrs. Oscar Gingrich will appear at the Ore-gon theater in a presentation of the Indian pantomime for which she has become noted. Mrs. Gingrich has made an enviable record for herself in dra-matic circles because of her original and artistic interpretations of Indian songs and legends. She has scored a tremendous auccess at club meetings and social gatherings and it is at the special request of these friends who have not had the opportunity of witnessing her portrayals that she has consented to appear at the theater. She will be accompanied by Miss Ruth Bed-ford, one of Salem's most taleated musicinus, and an accompanist of re-markable ability.

gave sidelights on the great convention recently held in Washington, the domi recently held in Washington, the domi-nating feature of which was the re-ports from the scores of chapters on the magnificent war work which the Daughters have done. That they have been leaders in the many patriotic ac-tivities was evidenced by these re-ports. Several important changes in the national constitution were also made, Much interest already centers in next Much interest already centers in next year's convention.

The chapter also had as its guest Lady Manners, although she now insists that titles no longer count in England and that she wishes to be known as Grace Manners Brogham. ady Manners is a sister of Sir Guy Mauners the celebrated English writ-or. Lady Manners is the wife of an English army officer now with Gener-al Allenby in Egypt. She was a recruit-ing officer for Lord Kitchener and has ing officer for Lorg Kitchener and has devoted the past several years to public speaking on behalf of the most worthy war drives both in England and in this country She spoke informally at the reception on the great necessity for the women of America to stand firm for the big and serious problems of reconstruction many which they know not of as yet, rather than to return to the frivolities of pre war days.

At the business session which preceded that of the reception it was reported that all persons interested in the weifare Multnomah chapter members disposed of returning soldiers, scallers and major $40,000 worth of victory bands. Durines are working for the proposed bill ing the past six weeks 172 garments appropriating money for the returned have been turned in to the Red Cross, service men with which to complete The chapter is in charge of supplying speakers for the Memorial day exercless at the public schools and in each instance a returned soldier has been secured.
