MAYOR HANSON HALTS SALE OF MOONEY TAGS

Executive Says Movement Sponsored By "Reds" And Bolshevists.

Seattle, Wash., June 5.—No "Tom" Mooney tags can be sold on the streets of Seattle. This was the verdict announced yesterday by Mayor Ole Hanson, in answering a petition of the Mooney defense committee of the Central Labor Council for permission to sell tags June 7 to raise funds for their defense work.

In writing his refusal to Secretary James A. Duncan of the council, the mayor said:

"I refuse to grant this permission for the following reasons: First, because the affair is to be handled by the Central Labor Council, which body, in my judgment, is absolutely under the control of the 'reds,' the I. W. W. and the bolshevists controlling its deliberations and its affairs.

"Second, because it is neither for a charitable nor patriotic purpose, but is, I am credibly informed, for the purpose of paying I. W. W. organizers to go throughout the land and foment disorder and strife, with the object in view of overthrowing the government of the United States."

Miss Grace Presby of 1141 Chemeketa street, notwithstanding the fact that she is a Willamette university student, was found traveling a little too fast in her automobile yesterday afternoon on State street. She was extended an invitation by the speed cap to attend a reception to be given at 10 o'clock in the city hall this morning by Recorder Earl Race. After the preliminary social conversation and passing the time of day, it was decided that to adjust matters, Miss Presby should contribute $5 to the city treasury. She did. She said her speedometer was showing only 24 miles an hour.

Three marriage licenses were issued yesterday. Last Saturday the number was five and since June the month of weddings, as announced by the calendar, business at the license bureau in the county clerk's office has been good. The three yesterday were Jesse C. Emmert, 22, of Hubbard, a laborer to Laura Ethel Miller, also of Hubbard. John Antonio Gilles, 23, of Mt. Angel, a farmer, and Helen Bielenmeyer, also of Mt. Angel. Earl Johnson Adams, 23, of Silverton, a grocerman, and Letta Violet Jane, a teacher of Silverton.

In the $5000 damage suit of James Syhus against Bert Macy, Elmer Mangia and Morris W. Welch, the plaintiff demurs to the answer of the defendants Macy and Welch, on the grounds that the answer does not state facts sufficient to constitute a defense. Also that the facts stated in the answer do not constitute a mitigation of the damages and for the further reason that the pretended facts as alleged do not constitute a defense. No date has as yet been set for the trial.

Dr. E. E. Schmitt, pastor of the First Methodist church of Tacoma will deliver an address Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the assembly hall of Kimball college on "The military for our times." Dr. Schmitt is regarded by educators as one of the scholarly men of the northwest. He received his several degrees in the east, coming from Champaign, Ill. to Tacoma. He was also pastor of a church at Portland, Maine.

There is a big "grease spot" on the pavement at the intersection of State and Commercial streets. It doesn't represent a tragedy. A big 50 gallon barrel of motor oil, on its way to the Valley Motor company, tumbled off from a truck at that corner, cracking the barrel staves so that a large part of the contents escaped into the gutter before "first aid" arrived. As motor oil is now about the same price as Bourbon whiskey it was an expensive drop.

At the meeting of the high school student body this morning there was the formal presentation to battle marred base ball veterans of the letter of honor, showing that they had played up to a certain standard during the season. Those receiving the letters were Captain Glenn Gregg, Ammon Orice, Bernard Nutting, Eugene Gill, Amory Gill, Hugh Latham, Carl Fisher, Wm. Ashby, Theo. Purvine, Fenimore Baggett and Frank Lynch. Of this group, Gregg and the two Gills have taken the letter for three seasons, Orice and Nutting for two seasons. Gregg has served during the past season as both captain and manager and also played with the team; consequently has been going some. At the next meeting of the team a new captain will be elected, as Gregg, together with Latham, Nutting and Lynch will not be with the team next season. The team has one or two more games to play in order to complete the season's work, one of them to be with the Corvallis team next Saturday afternoon. Later they expect to play one of the Portland teams for the high school championship.

The police are warning dentists in the city to keep their spare gold securely locked up. Yesterday there was a stranger in town going from office to office offering to buy scrap gold. It was about one year ago that an expert in the dental line appeared and not so long afterwards someone broke into several dental offices and stole gold as well as gold filings.

J. William Chambers, senior member of the furniture firm of Chambers and Chambers on Court street, has taken out a building permit for the erection of a house on 1265 Court street to cost $2000. The work will be done by day labor.

Iantha school near Detroit has just closed for the school year. As the law requires, there was eight months of school, even if there was but seven months. And to care for these seven months the teacher was paid $75 a month. When the second grade was called to recite, one boy responded. The third grade recited when another small boy said his lessons. Then the fourth grade was called, there appeared one boy and one girl. In the fifth grade was one boy and in the sixth grade, two girls. The teacher was Mrs. Laurena T. Andrews.

L. J. Chapin went to Falls City this morning in the interests of the Salem Kings Product Co. He says that the plant is now busy with spinach and that from the Lake Umbagog country, farmers are bringing in from five to six tons from the acre. The price is $20 a ton. In regard to the strawberry

A representative of the Victory Rose Festival was in the city yesterday for a conference with the Cherrians, with regard to their participation in the big parade of June 11. As a result of this it is decided that the Cherrians will take part and will have a portion near the head of the procession. P. E. Palleton has gone to Portland today to make final arrangements. In anticipation of this the Cherrians will hold open air drills on Friday evening of this week, and on Monday and Tuesday evenings of next week. It is hoped that every member will turn out for these drills, which will be in charge of Joe McAllister.
