

Resinol will help your skin

There's many a girl who goes through the pangs of jealousy and envy when she sees her friend, the girl with the radiant complexion, enjoying things.

If you are a sufferer from skin troubles and know the embarrassment and pain they bring, waste no further time fretting about your ailment but commence immediately the Resinol Ointment treatment. Pimples, blackheads, blotchy patches on the face, rough red skins, speedily respond to the soothing, healing medication this ointment contains.

Even quicker results may be obtained by joint use of Resinol Soap with Resinol Ointment. Apply the ointment at night. Wash the face with the soap by day.

Sold by all druggists.

REEL NEWS OF REEL PEOPLE

There are a number of young actors who are attaining the pinnacles of success at such a dizzy rate of speed that the breath of an ordinary "movie fan" is fairly taken away at their ascendancy. One who has already "arrived" and who, according to all indications has arrived to stay, is that most popular of all Thomas H. Ince stars—Charles Ray. There is perhaps no other actor in filmdom who has met with such universal popularity as he. Ranking among the first of his recent successes is "Grazed Lightning," his new Paramount photoplay that will be shown at the Oregon Theatre for three days, commencing Sunday.

"Grazed Lightning" is the name of the racer which Mr. Ray, as the village inventor, has built and enters in a big race meet. The day was set for "shooting" the big race scene and Mr. Ray appeared at the studio. He refused to go to work until a horseshoe was soldered to the water tank cap of the machine.

He said nothing as just after tea was served at his head. He didn't even take his director into his secret, but when the scene was shot he executed one of the cleverest pieces of business of the horseshoe that he has ever acted. He—but that would be spoiling the surprise. You must see the picture as a whole to appreciate it.

The photoplay is one of the most thrilling in which Mr. Ray ever has been seen. He is excellently supported, his leading woman being Wanda Hawley. Others in the cast include Robert McKim, Willis Marks, Bert Woodruff, John P. Lockney and Otto Hoffman, Joseph Stern directed.

The world, according to Shakespeare, is all a stage and men and women but the actors on it. It was left for a modern novelist to complete the metaphor and prove that when the world-stage has become a fire trap and danger pit, there is always a safety curtain to lower, if the actor will keep his wits about him.

Norma Talmadge, presented by Joseph M. Schenck, will be seen here at the Liberty Theatre starting in her latest Select picture, "The Safety Curtain," adapted by S. A. Franklin and Paul West from the story of the same name by Ethel M. Dell and directed by S. A. Franklin.

Miss Talmadge plays the part of Puck a young dancer of a London music-hall, who, husband, Volens, the strong man, rudely mistreats her for receiving, though against her will, the attentions of Sylvester, a dissipated young Englishman whom she has vainly been trying to avoid.

During her act at the theatre a fire breaks out and the safety curtain, dropping behind her to shut out the fire from the audience, cut off her retreat through the stage, while an explosion under the orchestra prevents her escape through the house.

Captain Morroy, a young officer, on leave from service in India, sees her plight and leaps from his box to the stage. Together they make their way to an unused stairway which leads into a small alley, unseen by any of the cast, who think that Puck has perished in the fire.

Unusual local importance is attached to the engagement of "The Spreading Evil" at the Bligh Theatre next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, because of the interest which has been shown in the photodrama by the Hon. Josephus Daniels, secretary of the navy, and other men prominent in public life.

When the picture had been completed Secretary Daniels saw it and not only gave James Keane, the producer, a strong letter of endorsement, but also permitted himself to be photographed in his office in Washington, in order that the moving picture of his meeting with Mr. Keane might be used in conjunction with the film to emphasize in the strongest possible way, his endorsement of the helpful truths set forth in "The Spreading Evil."

Mary Pickford is to make a photoplay version of "Hop O' My Thumb," a one-act play acted by Maud Adams a dozen years ago.

Picturization rights of the Basil King novel "The City of Comrades," which appeared recently in the Saturday Evening Post, have been purchased by Goldwyn. Tom Moore has been selected to play the leading role.

From New York comes word of the unparalleled success of D. W. Griffith's latest super-production "Broken Blossoms," starring Lillian Gish and Richard Barthelmess. According to critics, it is the most stupendous motion picture ever produced. "The Birth of a Nation" and "Hearts of the World" being hopelessly outclassed by it.

The story has a great deal to do with London Chinatown. Richard Barthelmess taking the part of a Chinese boy and Miss Gish acting in the role of a white girl.

The Mission of Swift & Company

Swift & Company has become one of the large businesses of the world through continuing to meet the growing needs of a nation and a world.

Society has a right to ask how the increasing responsibilities and opportunities for usefulness which go with such growth are being used by the men who direct its affairs—and the men have the right to answer:

- To promote the production of live stock and perishables and increase the food supply;
- To reach more people with more and better meat;
- To make a fair competitive profit, in order to reimburse the 25,000 shareholders for the use of their capital, and to provide for the future development of the business;
- To reduce to a minimum the costs of preparing and distributing meat and to divide the benefits of efficiency with producer and consumer;
- To live and let live, winning greater business only through greater usefulness, with injury to nothing but incompetency, inefficiency, and waste; to deal justly, fairly, and frankly with all mankind.

These are the purposes and motives of the men who direct the policies and practices of Swift & Company.

Swift & Company, U. S. A.

POLES WANT TO BUY GUNS FROM AMERICA

Negotiations Started With United States for Purchase of Arms.

By Don E. Chamberlain
London—(By Mail)—American shells and bullets, fired by American guns and "American stomachs" may be used to fight bolsheviks menacing Poland, according to General Chevalier John De Romer, who is in London to buy munitions and food for the Polish army. The possessors of the "American stomach" will be Polish soldiers, fed with food purchased from America.

De Romer is in London as an authorized agent for the Polish government to appeal between thirty and forty million dollars for guns, shells and bullets and to buy all the food in sight.

De Romer told the United Press he has already started negotiation with the American government with a view to buying American light artillery and rifles. He expects to make huge food purchases of Americans.

Poland is a great admirer of America. It will never forget its generosity in helping to feed the Polish population. The work done by the Americans was wonderful. Just now what Poland wants is food and guns for its army to fight the bolsheviks. It also wants to build up the nucleus of a Polish artillery force.

"It is for this reason we wish to buy American light guns if possible. I understand America is agreeable to selling some of them to us rather than to going back to America. We may also buy many of their rifles."

"We are not interested in buying heavy guns owing to the fact that roads in Poland are very bad."

"But the purchase of guns, for which I am prepared to spend between thirty and forty million dollars, is not the only thing we want. Poland needs food, machinery and many other things. Much of this we expect to buy in America."

Mexico May Get Makers of Wine From U. S. When Prohibition Stops Jobs

Mexico City—(By Mail)—As a result of the prohibition amendment to the national constitution of the United States, there promises to be some thing in the nature of a wholesale emigration of wine growers and wine makers from California to Mexico.

Information has been received from that state that there are in the neighborhood of one hundred thousand persons, engaged in that industry who are looking toward Mexico as affording the only possible relief from the ruin with which they are threatened by the prohibition laws. They are the owners of hundreds of thousands of acres of vine grapes, which will become of little value with the enforcement of the amendment, since the varieties of fruit adapted to wine making are not suitable for other purposes, except in a limited extent.

There are extensive areas, especially in the northern portion of Mexico which possess all the requisites of soil and climatic conditions for the growth of grapes and the making of wine to fully as great an extent and of fully as high a character as California. This has been demonstrated notably in Coahuila, as well as in some of the other states, and the national government has for some time been encouraging the cultivation of the grape and importing millions of cuttings of vines adapted to this country.

The Mexican consul general in San Francisco, Ramon P. De Negri, is taking an active interest in the proposed emigration of California wine growers to Mexico and has notified his government that at least eighty thousand persons, largely of foreign ancestry, are now preparing to leave their adopted state and intend coming to Mexico. President Carranza has signified his lively interest in the movement and plans are now being prepared by the department of agriculture for welcoming these immigrants and aiding them in re-establishing their industry. All of the northern states—Sonora, Sinaloa, Chihuahua, Coahuila, Nuevo Leon, Tamaulipas, etc.—possess extensive areas that are adapted to the cultivation of wine grapes.

A corporation known as Eminent Authors Pictures, Inc. has been formed by Rex Beach and Samuel Goldwyn. Such noted writers as Mary Roberts Rhinehart, Basil King, Gouverneur Morris, Rupert Hughes, Gertrude Atherton and LeRoy Scott will be featured. The name of the author will be stamped on each individual film.

KOVERALLS
Keep Kids Kleen
$1.50
the Suit
A New Suit FREE if they rip
Beware of Imitations
Look for this Red Woven Label
Made by Levi Strauss & Co., San Francisco
Award GRAND PRIZE at P.A.L.E.

STATE OF OREGON
Proposals for Supplies
The Oregon State Board of Control will receive sealed bids on June 12, 1917, at 2 p. m., for furnishing supplies in the various state institutions, consisting of dry goods, clothing, furniture, groceries, shoes, hardware, brooms, drugs, stationery, crockery, plumbing, etc., for the semi-annual period ending December 31, 1919. Specifications and schedules will be furnished upon application to the secretary, at Salem, Oregon, also from the Industries and Manufacturers Bureau, Chamber of Commerce, Portland, Oregon. Each bid to be accompanied by a certified check representing 10 per cent of the whole amount of bid, payable to the Oregon State Board of Control, which shall be held as a guaranty of the faithful performance of the contract. The board reserves the right to reject any or all bids or to accept any part of a bid.
R. B. GOODEN, Secretary,
67 Oregon State Board of Control.

SUMMONS NO. 14404
IN THE CIRCUIT COURT of the State of Oregon for Marion County, Department No. 1

John H. Holman, plaintiff, vs. Corvina H. Myer, defendant. Summons.
To Corvina H. Myer, defendant.
In the name of the state of Oregon you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled action, within six weeks from the date of the first publication thereof, to-wit: within six weeks from the 10th day of May, 1917, and if you fail so to answer or to answer the plaintiff will take judgment against you for the sum of $100, together with interest thereon at the rate of 7 per cent per annum from the 21 day of April, 1916, less the sum of $100, together with the costs and disbursements of this action, and for an order of sale of the property attached in said action, to-wit:

All your right, title and interest in and to the south one half of lot six (6) in block three (3) in the city of Salem, Oregon, and for a further order directing Theodore Roth, garnishee, to pay over to the sheriff of Marion county, State of Oregon, the sum of $44.59 held by said Theodore Roth in trust for you.

You are further notified that this summons is served upon you by publication thereof by virtue of an order duly made and entered by Hon. W. M. Bushley, county judge for Marion county, state of Oregon, on the 15th day of May, 1917, which said order requires the summons in this case to be published once each week for six consecutive weeks in the Daily Capital Journal, a newspaper of general circulation published at Salem, Marion county, state of Oregon, and you are further notified that the date of the first publication thereof is the 10th day of May, 1917, and that the date of the last publication thereof will be the 17th day of June, 1917.

GRANT COBBY,
Attorney at Salem, Oregon, attorney for plaintiff.

PIEDMONT

Piedmont Peanut Oil
—possesses food values of much benefit to children and convalescents.
It is so nutritious, palatable and easily digested that it can be freely taken without the slightest danger of upsetting the most delicate stomach.

Ask for PIEDMONT—
The food oil with the nut flavor
PEANUT OIL

Monmouth Schools Bustle With Closing Activities

(Capital Journal Special Service.)
Monmouth, Or., June 6.—The baccalaureate service for the graduating class of the high school was held Sunday evening in the Evangelical church. The sermon was delivered by the Rev. Peter Conklin, local pastor, the invocation by Rev. E. B. Pace of the Baptist church. A quartet of high school students, consisting of Hugh Bell, Hope McDonald, Beth Ostrom and Paul Sayre rendered the beautiful song "Secure Best "An Evening Prayer" was sung by a quartet of male voices and the benediction pronounced by Rev. Pace.

Final examinations are being held this week at both the high and training schools as this is the last week of school for both. The high school young folk held their annual picnic last Saturday on the banks of the Luckinote about four miles south of town along the west side highway. This is certainly a beautiful and restful place and a favorite one with picnickers and Sunday auto parties. The grade youngsters will be given a picnic Friday, the closing day of school.

Watch Your Child's Tongue!

Constipated Children Gladly Take "California Syrup of Figs"

For the Liver and Bowels
Tell your druggist you want genuine "California Syrup of Figs." Full directions and dose for babies and children of all ages who are constipated, bilious, feverish, tongue-coated, or full of cold, are plainly printed on the bottle. Look for the name "California" and accept no other "Fig Syrup."—Beware!

JOURNAL WANT ADS PAY