DONALD NEWS NOTES.

(Capital Journal Special Service)

The good roads meeting held in DeSart hall Friday evening was very well attended. James Stewart was the speaker of the evening and his audience seemed in hearty accord with his views on the good road question.

A light vote was polled at the Tuesday election in Donald; fifty votes cast for the road bonds, a large majority of those voting.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Sexsmith took their little girl, June, to Portland Tuesday evening to put her under the care of their doctor, as she had developed a severe case of tonsilitis.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Allen of Vancouver arrived in Donald Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Allen will spend the remainder of the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Johnson. Mr. Allen left for Eugene and other points on business, Thursday p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Feller were Salem visitors W. dnesday.

L. P. Swan was in Donald from Champoeg Thursday a. m.

C. J. Espey and J. P. Feller took the early morning train for Salem Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Graham and son Dale of Butteville, Miss Ellen Graham of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Sax of Portland were Donald visitors Friday.

Bernis Hartness of Portland spent the week end as guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Smith.

Harry Boggs of Lebanon spent part of last week visiting his sister, Mrs. Geo. Lamb.

James Ryan and daughter Nina were Salem visitors Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Walker returned from Salem Sunday, having spent several days in the city and attended Memorial services while there.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Yergen were early morning visitors to Donald Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hoskins came out from Portland Friday.

Mr. West, our "Tru Blu" man, was calling at the Johnson store Wednesday, having his dinner at the Bungalow hotel. The traveling men like to arrange their schedule so as to hit the Bungalow hotel about meal time because of the good home cooked meals served there.

Mrs. Seeley of St. Johns visited in the home of her son, J. C. Moore, Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. Geo. Lamb and son Tim were Portland visitors Friday.

Harry Elmore arrived home from France Monday after spending six months in the service.

The Children's day service is to be held in the Donald Sunday school Sunday morning, after which the school and friends will take full baskets of provisions and go to Geisey Springs for a basket dinner.

There is to be a community club meeting held in DeSart hall Saturday evening. A short program, spelling contest, etc., will be given after which refreshments will be served and a social time held for an hour or two. All are expected to be present from the community.

Mrs. Turner of Wisecres left on the 12:55 train Thursday to spend a few days with her daughter in Portland.

Mrs. Chamberlain, deputy commander of the Maccabees, attended the Donald lodge Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Feller spent Sunday in Woodburn, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frances Feller.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Feller and Mrs. Jack Bartman were in Woodburn Thursday.

Geo. Lamb came in from Silver Falls company Sunday. He is now in Salem on the jury.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark and Mr. and Mrs. Turner of Wisecres attended church at the Donald church last Sunday.

Opportunity Knocks

but it likes to find young people at home ready to undertake a difficult task that will lead to advancement and success. Any young person who will stop to think seriously for a moment, must realize that his chance of doing better than the average person, depends wholly upon the preparation which he makes to do some particular thing in a superior way.

The Capital Business College

helps young people to do a few things in a superior way. It's training, if followed up with initiative and energy will lead to success in business. Let us know your plans. Give us an opportunity to tell you more about our work and what it may do for you.

STATE HOUSE NEWS

A few figures from the monthly reports of the state institutions will give an idea of how many people are being cared for by the public fun and what it costs to maintain them.

The state hospital is the most expensive institution, with a payroll of $12,238 and a monthly supply bill of $20,356. On the first of May there were 1714 inmates, 61 new cases were received, 8 paroled cases were returned, 14 were discharged, 24 were placed under parole, and 22 have died during the month. The average number of officers and employes for the month was 203.

The state penitentiary showed 284 inmates, 11 received during the month, 14 paroled and pardoned. Officers and employes 42. The supply cost was $3265 and the payroll $3540.

The eastern Oregon state hospital shows 513 inmates, 10 new cases received, 3 discharged, 3 paroled, 3 deaths. The supply cost was $6228 and the payroll $3451.

The Oregon state training school shows a roster of 170 boys, 12 new cases received during the month, 4 discharged and 9 paroled. The girls industrial school shows 49 inmates, 3 discharged during the month. The supply bill was $1548.

The state tuberculosis hospital showed 79 inmates, 8 new cases received, 5 discharged, 4 deaths. Officers and employes number 26 and the supply bill for the month is $1856.

The school for the blind has 44 pupils and the supply bill was $645. The school for the deaf showed 91 pupils, 30 officers and employes and a supply bill of $1051.

The home for the feeble minded showed 402 inmates, 5 received during the month. Officers and employes 36 and the payroll was $3265.

The soldiers' home showed 161 inmates, 3 admitted during the month, 3 discharged, 2 died. The officers and employes number 22 and the supply bill was $2773.

The Portland Labor Council has recently forwarded to Governor Olcott a copy of a resolution, requesting that that body be allowed the privilege of appointing the three labor members of the committee of nine who are to investigate the affairs of the industrial accident commission. In replying Governor Olcott refers the council to his stand in providing for the committee—that the labor delegates should logically be appointed by the State Federation of Labor in order that the entire laboring class of the state might feel that it was being represented in the matter.
