BOLSHEVIK ONLY HELP RIOT ALONG

Soviet Rule Only Completing Job Of Tearing-Down Superficial Structure Of Russian Government.

BREAK NATURAL RESULT OF OLD REGIME ABUSES

Communists Set Up Political Dictatorship Which Abolishes Liberty And Even Regulates Thought.

By Frank J. Taylor.
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)
Paris, June 7.—The chaos in Russia cannot be charged entirely to the bolsheviks, who have merely completed the job of tearing down the superficial social, economic and political structure which the old regime fostered.
The breakdown is the natural result of the abuses practiced by the former privileged classes of Russia. The revolution furnished the opportunity for the bolshevik agitators to seize control of the country through violence, though they unfortunately drove out the intellectuals and trained professionals needed for rebuilding the country.
People Easily Led.
There is probably no other great people who would embrace bolshevism and suddenly reverse their ideals and customs as did the Russians, who naturally run to extremes. It is the extremes which make discussion regarding Russia difficult. The bolsheviks claim they are defending the revolution, which is supposed to give the Russians liberty and opportunity yet they forcibly apply communism, wiping out both liberty and opportunity for the individual. It is impossible in Russia to disagree, verbally or in their interest, with bolshevism, as its leaders figure they have a copyright on all good ideas and hence are destined to reform Russia whether she likes it or not.
Lenine "Second Christ."
Some bolsheviks unwisely speak of Lenine as a "second Christ." Without doubt, Lenine is bolshevism's strong man, but Russia thus far has shown no

Nationwide Walk-Out Set For Same Day Is Word Received At San Francisco Headquarters.—Konenkamp Rushes To Chicago For Conference With Union Heads.—Situation In Southeast Still Uncertain With Both Sides Claiming Advantage.—Carlton Challenges Strikers.

Portland, Ore., June 7.—Local officials of the Commercial Telegraphers Union state that 95 per cent of the commercial key men on the Pacific coast will strike June 11.
Union leaders here were advised late last night by a message from L. I. Marshall at Los Angeles that June 11 has been set as the date for the strike on the Pacific coast. Marshall is a vice-president of the Commercial Telegraphers Union of America.
"We have only just 258 men in the southeast as a result of the strike," General Manager H. C. Worthen of the Western Union declared.
Claims that practically every small city, town and village in the southeast was cut off from Western Union wire communication were made by union leaders.

SALEM STRONG BEHIND GOOD ROADS ELECTION

Canvass Of City Vote Shows 1,349 Affirmative And 462 Negative Votes.

Salem voted stronger for the $850,000 Marion county bonds for good roads than did the rural districts, according to the official figures of the election returns.
For while the county voted close to two to one in favor of the bonds, the city of Salem lined up three to one for good roads in Marion county. All of which induced an old time politician to say that no more can the man from the rural districts point to Salem and say the city is holding back on good roads.
In the city of Salem, there was registered 4995. But when election day came around, there was cast but 1349 votes in favor of good roads and 462 against. But there was a total of 1996 votes cast in the city showing that 175 voters cast in the city refused to express an opinion as Marion county good roads.
In the entire county there was a registration of 14,555 but of this number only 6951 votes were cast, or 47 per cent of the registration.
The vote in the county in favor of the Marion county $850,000 bonds was 4424 in favor of with 2004 against, showing that of the total vote cast, 70 per cent was in favor of the bonds. But of the total registration, only 30 per cent was cast for the bonds in other words, 30 per cent of the voters in the county who were entitled to vote, decided that the county should have good roads within the next five years.
In the trouble to go to the polls, refused to express an opinion of the $850,000 bonding proposition. Of the total number entitled to vote in the county only 13 per cent expressed disapproval of the bonds.

Government Takes Steps To Block "Red" Rioting

Washington, June 7.—(United Press.)—Parades and similar demonstrations designed to precipitate riots appear to constitute the program of "reds" in their plans for a July 4th outbreak, according to propaganda literature and other information in the hands of government departments here.
As a result, organized labor officials, as well as government authorities are expected to take steps to discourage participation of labor men, soldiers and sailors in parades which the "reds" attempt to start.

BERLIN UNEASY WHILE AWAITING FINAL PACT

Pessimism Regarding Terms Reflected In Position Of Newspapers.

Berlin, June 6.—The air of uneasiness resulting from both the peace situation and internal developments continues to grow in Berlin. The government is understood to be preparing for all eventualities.
Count Brockdorff-Rantau has advised the government that he expects to receive the allies' answer to the counter proposals Sunday or Monday. The attitude of pessimism pervading official circles was reflected in the newspapers today, none of which held out any hope of real modification of the peace terms.
Meanwhile the Rhineland delegates are conferring with both the national and Prussian assemblies regarding means of halting the separatist movement. The German armistice commission has sent the allies a note protesting against General Mangin's alleged co-operation with the heads of the new Rhineland republic.
A new transportation strike was on in Berlin today in protest against the execution of Levine, convicted of being one of the chief instigators of the recent Spartacist revolt in Munich.
It is estimated more than 150,000 tramway employees and other workers quit in advance of the hour appointed for the general strike.

"PROBE FOR LEAK" IS FIZZLING

Difficulty In Securing Witnesses Already Hinders Investigation; Borah And Lodge Have Names.

SENATORS KEEP THEIR "SOURCES" DARK SECRET

Document Reported Seen In New York Not Copy Of Ham Treaty As Officially Designed, Is Claim.

Washington, June 7.—Difficulty in getting witnesses may interfere with the "leak" investigation ordered by the senate.
Unless Senators Borah and Lodge, upon whose statements the inquiry is based, will tell the investigating committee, the names of New York men who ran substantive charges, the probe will have to turn to the American peace delegation in Paris for a clue, it was hinted today.
Lodge already has announced he will not tell who showed him copies of the treaty text in New York. Borah has not told what financial interests he meant when he said he had been informed over the long distance telephone that certain New York interests had the treaty and had considered it at a directors meeting.
By Lowell Mellett
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)
Paris, June 7.—The document which Senator Lodge reports having seen in New York is not the one that will go down in history as the treaty of Paris, is the reply of those close to President Wilson to the senator's charges that the full text of the German treaty is in the hands of certain American private interests.
In other words, the treaty in its present form will not be presented to the Germans for signature. It is bound to undergo considerable revision.

Fruit and Berry Growers of Northwest to Organize Into Association for Protection

After having had the finest of Oregon fruits and berries labeled and shipped east for years and years under California labels, and after having had the profits of the packing and canning of the finest of Oregon products go into California pockets, conditions are about to change, according to Robert C. Paulus, manager of the Salem Fruit Union and president of the Salem Commercial club.
For the past three or four weeks, Mr. Paulus has been traveling throughout the northwest fruit sections holding conferences with fruit and berry men in regard to general selling and buying conditions, and comes home firmly convinced that the growers everywhere are convinced of the necessity of co-operation along the lines of California, the most highly organized state in the United States.
Organization Demanded.
Mr. Paulus said: "Owing to the enormous differences in prices received by growers outside of associations, and also due to the fact that the associations received from $5.00 to $10.00 a ton more this last season than the unorganized growers, there has been an insistent demand from the growers that a northwest state association be formed."
"With this condition facing the growers, I have had numerous requests to make an attempt to form such an organization, as all have realized that the uncontrolled tonnage outside of the associations is a menace to organized growers. To establish market prices consistent with supply and demand, and in conformity with the desire of the growers as a whole, meetings have been held in unorganized districts, to determine the sentiment as to forming associations."
To Meet In Portland.
"So strongly are the growers in favor of this move," said Mr. Paulus, "that it was determined to call a meeting of all growers in the northwest, which will include Clarke county, Washington, to meet at the Portland Hotel in Portland Monday, June 9, when an organization committee will be appointed and articles of incorporation, by-laws and contract forms for the association discussed."
Mr. Paulus said that it is expected that from 65 to 70 per cent of the growers, or even more, will be actively interested in the organization of a central northwestern association.
It is estimated that within the next three or four years, packing facilities more than double what is available at present will be necessary to handle the northwestern fruit and berry crops and growers have about decided that it would be better that such packing facilities would be owned by the growers.
