"Your Nose Knows"

Have You Tried Tuxedo in the New
"TEA-FOIL" PACKAGE?

It's soft and pliable—decreases in size as the tobacco is used—tobacco does not cake in the package—no digging it out with the finger. Keeps the tobacco in even better condition than tin. Now, don't you owe it to yourself to buy a package and give Tuxedo a trial?—Not quite as much tobacco as in the tin, but—

WILLAMETTE TRUSTEES HOLD ANNUAL SESSION

Raise of Salaries Are Granted To Members of Faculty Generally.

The board of trustees of Willamette University met in annual session yesterday passing upon several important measures.

Increased salaries for the faculty met with approval and each professor instructor was granted a substantial salary rise. The student body also was granted the privilege to increase the student body fee to $5 per semester next year, in order to stimulate athletics and other student body activities.

The plans for a new women's dormitory was left to a committee appointed by the board, who will present complete specifications at the next meeting, and construction will be started as soon as the required sum of $200,000 is secured. P. J. Briz, of Astoria, a member of the board, has contributed $5400 to the building fund. The building committee consists of Mrs. A. N. Bush, Mrs. Bertha Moore, C. P. Bishop and Dr. Carl Gregg Doney. The proposal to admit fraternities and societies to Willamette occasioned some discussion, and was taken under consideration by the executive committee, who are to report in the January meeting of the board. Rev. Wilsie Martin, pastor of the First Methodist church of Boise, Idaho, was granted an honorary degree of doctor of divinity, and the president of the university was authorized to present diplomas to the 25 members of the senior class who graduate today.

Upon the expiration of the term of several members of the board some were re-elected and some new members were admitted. The officers for the year 1919-20 were re-elected as follows:

B. L. Steeves, Salem, president; C. B. Moore, Portland, vice-president; I. H. Van Winkel, Salem, secretary; and A. N. Bush, Salem, treasurer.

The senior gift, by the class of 1919, was presented during class day exercises of Portland, president of the class. It was accepted by Judge Henry L. Benson on behalf of the board of trustees. The gift this year is of a dual nature, one part being a check for $200 to purchase pictures for the living room of the new Lausanne hall and the other a large shield with silver inscription in honor of the Willamette men who fought in the great war.

Endowment Fund $200,000. The endowment fund of the university is $600,000 according to reports submitted and of this amount about half is actually producing.

All members of the faculty were re-elected at advanced salaries but in a few cases there will be changes because of ill health and personal business. Dean Alden was advanced to the position of vice-president of the institution at a substantial increase in salary.

MARINE TRIAL BRINGS OUT TALES OF ABUSE

Mutiny, Desertions And Attacks On Sailors Told Of In Frisco Case.

San Francisco, June 10.—Mutiny, attacks upon men by deck officers and desertions so heavy that Tonga Island police had to be summoned to round up the crew are among the charges and counter charges being made today by the officers and crew of the British four master Okanogan. The vessel lured into port manned by three officers, two seamen and a boy. The other members of the crew refused to work, following several fights with the first mate.

The crew charge First Mate Newman attacked a sailor with a hammer, and then threatened to kill any man testifying against him at Tonga Island trial. One man who testified against Newman, leaped overboard and swam for shore through shark infested waters. It is not known whether he reached the shore.

The majority of the men deserted at Vauvan, and the Tonga police had to round them up with pistols and drive them aboard the ship, say officers and crew. A second crew was taken on at Melbourne, but strife broke out again between the men and the first mate. This time the captain told the men they would be held on the vessel at all points and that they were at their own discretion as to whether they would work to port.

DESCENDANT OF LONGFELLOW COMMITS SUICIDE IN LAKE

Chicago, June 10.—(United Press)—Piling of heavy paperweights and stones in the pockets of clothing worn by Herbert Harris, 72, a direct descendant of Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, whose body was taken from Lake Michigan here, convinced authorities today he committed suicide.

Charged with unprofessional conduct H. N. Martin of Davenport has been debarred from practicing law in the state of Washington.

At a pretty wedding in Portland Sunday, when Miss Florence Fowle, former Oregon Agricultural college student, and Earl Townsend were united in marriage, Frank Saunders of Salem presided at the organ, playing the bridal chords from Lohengrin at the arrival of the party and the Mendelssohn wedding march at the conclusion of the ceremony.

should sanction and aid a consortium of American banks to finance the old world, all except Russia.

Financial Aid Needed. The bankers all emphasized the point that the United States must commit itself financially at least to guaranteeing Europe's welfare for years to come. Both Morgan and Vanderlip denied having seen the treaty but acknowledged the keenest interest in its financial clauses. They repeatedly stated to the committee that it is "vital" for the United States to take an interest in European affairs though Vanderlip emphatically declared he did not believe the United States should guarantee the territory or independence of foreign nations.

Vanderlip caused a sensation when he said there was strong sentiment in English and French circles that the United States ought never to expect repayment from those countries of the billions loaned them. That money, Vanderlip said, is regarded in those countries as part of America's fair share in the war's burden because of this country's late entrance into the war. He did not, however, advocate this view, Vanderlip said.
