THIRTY WILLAMETTE STUDENTS GRADUATE

Commencement Exercises are Held Today, Irvine Ad- dresses Class.

The final scene of their career in Willamette university was made mem- orable for the class of 1919 by the im- pressive exercises in the First Meth- odist church this morning. The front of the building was beautifully decorated with roses, prominent among the fea- tures being the figures "1919" built up of flowers. The program was car- ried out as announced in these columns, the musical numbers being very pleasing.

The address of Editor B. Frank Ir- vine, of the Oregon Journal, was one of the strongest and most effective that has been heard here in recent years, the more so because as a former stu- dent of Willamette he could speak with heartfelt comradeship and sympathy to the graduates. He spoke in the warm- est appreciation of the days he spent in the institution declaring that no single experience in all his life had contrib- uted so much to making him what he is today as the training, the personal touch and influence of his life at old Willamette, and he predicted that the class before him would bear the same testimony in after years. He warmly congratulated them on their youth and their accomplishments, and especially for the fact that they would go out from the institution well armed to meet life. It is a wonderful thing to be young today he declared, and went on to point out the vast program of work that awaited them in the new era of reconstruction. He referred to Europe as not only a vast mad house but a vast slaughter house, out of which comes a menace to all the world—even to the United States. Hence they would have cause to use all their energies and resources in dealing with economic, social and political problems that would arise.

Following the address President Do- ney conferred the degrees upon the graduates, addressing them in a few appropriate words.

Following is the complete list of gra- duates with their respective degrees:

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION HOLDS ELECTION THIS AFTERNOON

A very happy business and social meeting of the Willamette Alumni association was held at Eaton hall this afternoon, when there was the election of officers and committees for the coming year. Among others there was the appointment of a committee on memorials for those who have passed away during the past year. At this meeting arrangements were also made for the awarding of prizes for the coming year.

The roster of the association, so far as information is obtainable contains about 80 names, the larger proportion of them residing in Salem and in Oregon. There have been two deaths during the year, Joseph E. Gearhart, who passed away at Exeter, California, April 21, and Professor A. E. Egge, who held the chair of literature in the university, and who passed away after submit- ting to a critical operation on May 30.

CROWDS SIT THROUGH RAIN TO WITNESS BIG PAGEANT

One of the finest tributes that could be paid to the grand anniversary pageant of Willamette university was the fact that a big audience gathered in the stadium and sat for nearly three hours in a drizzle of rain, without even the protection of an umbrella, in or- der to witness an exhibition such as will probably never be duplicated in Salem. And at the same time it is a high tribute to the players in the drama that they went through their per- formance with even more spirit and precision than ever in spite of the chill- ing depressing conditions. Many were obliged to leave their health, and there were repeated urgent requests from the dis- appointed that the pageant might be repeated at a later date. But this would be impossible on account of the dep- uration of a large portion of the cast.

It is to be hoped that the pageant, insofar as it pertains to the history of Oregon, may be preserved and revised for general use, and become a part of the dramatic treasure of Oregon. Need- less to say, it has added largely to the prestige of Willamette, it will stand as a monument to the genius of its author—Prof. Della Crowder Miller, and it will be a bright spot in the memory of all the students who cooperated in mak- ing possible the realization of a beauti- ful vision.

Published Summary Of Peace Treaty Omitted Little Of Importance.

By J. W. T. Mason (Written for the United Press) New York, June 10.—The full text of the German peace treaty does not show that anything of serious im- portance was suppressed in the official summary issued by the peace confer- ence.

The summary fails to accentuate parts of the treaty, but there has been no effort to withhold information from the world concerning the character of the peace the allies are imposing upon Germany.

In the summary of the much discussed Saar Valley clause of the peace treaty,

FRUIT AND NUT RAISERS ORGANIZE ASSOCIATION

Project Launched in Portland Also Provides for Forma- tion of Co-operative Pack- ing Association.

Portland, Or., June 11.—Seventy five representative fruit and nut growers, from every important producing dis- trict of Oregon met in Portland this week and formed the Oregon Growers' Cooperative association. Robert Pautus, Salem, was chosen chairman and Earl Perry of Roseburg, secretary of the meeting.

Plan of proposed organization ex- plained by Aaron Sapiro, San Fran- cisco attorney for largest cooperative association of California. When pro- posed plan was finally put to vote, was carried unanimously.

Membership for Each Grower $10 Membership for each grower will be $10. The project also provides for the formation of Oregon Growers' Cooper- ative Packing association, which will be incorporated and growers will share it by subscriptions, $10 per share per acre being fixed as price. There will be issue of $500,000 common stock and $500,000 preferred, later these will be sold on open market and redeemed in five years. This will provide funds for purchase of physical properties of canneries, packing estab- lishments and fruit associations that become a part of the cooperative or- ganization.

Institutions to be absorbed are Sa- lem Fruit Union, Umpqua Valley Fruit Union, Roseburg cannery, Douglas County Fruit Growers' association, Scotts Mills Prune Growers' asso- ciation, Dundee Prune Growers' asso- ciation, Eugene Fruit Growers' asso- ciation and Willamette valley fruit ex- change of Corvallis.

Paulus on Committee Organization committee consists of Robert Paulus, Salem; W. W. Silver, Dundee; George J. Zimmerman, North Yamhill; E. W. Matthews, Amity; K. W. Johnson, Corvallis; E. L. Klemm, Alvadore; J. O. Holt, Eugene; A. N. Elliott, Dallas; Earl Perry, Roseburg.

A board of directors will be appoint- ed from each district and several dis- tricts will also have advisory com- mittees to look after home interests. Organization committee will work out de- tails of association from local view- point.

Articles of incorporation will be filed at once, but not with intention to take control of crops this year, as many growers and associations have made their selling contracts. The summer will be spent in organization work in buy- ing out and dissolving local institutions.

It is the largest organization of the kind ever attempted in the northwest, and closely follows the California plan of cooperation, but steps taken will prevent determination of California in- terests in marketing northwestern pro- ducts.

Portland was chosen for the 1920 meeting of the Oregon, Washington and British Columbia council of the United Commercial Travelers' asso- ciation, which completed its 1919 session at Victoria Saturday.

Doctor Tells How to Detect Harmful Effects of Tobacco

Try These SIMPLE TESTS

New York: Doctor Conner, formerly of Johns Hopkins hospital, says: Many men who smoke, chew or snuff incessantly and who are seemingly healthy are suffering from progressive organic ailments. Thousands of them would never have been afflicted had it not been for the use of tobacco, and thousands would soon get well if they would only stop the use of tobacco.

The chief habit forming principle of tobacco is nicotine, a deadly poison which, when absorbed by the system slowly affects the nerves, membranes, tissues and vital organs of the body. The harmful effect of tobacco varies and depends on circumstances. One will be afflicted with general debility, others with catarrh of the throat, indige- stion, constipation, extreme nervousness, sleeplessness, loss of memory, lack of will power, mental confusion, etc. Others may suffer from heart disease, bronchial trouble, hardening of the ar- teries, tuberculosis, blindness or even cancer or the common affliction known as tobacco heart. If you use tobacco in any form you can easily detect the harmful effects by making the follow- ing simple tests. Read aloud one full page from a book. If, in the course of reading your voice becomes muffled, hoarse and indistinct, and you must frequently clear your throat, the chances are that your throat is affected by catarrh and it may be the beginning of more serious trouble. Next, in the morning before taking your usual smoke, walk up three flights of stair as a regular pace, then stop. If you find that you are out of breath, your heart beat is forced, trembling or ir- regular, you may be a victim of func- tional or organic heart trouble. If you feel that you must smoke, chew or snuff to quiet your nerves, you are a slave to the tobacco habit, and are positively poisoning yourself with the deadly drug, nicotine. In either case you have just two alternatives—keep on with the self poisoning process ir- respective of the dangers and suffer the consequences, or give up the habit and escape the dangers. You can overcome the craving and stop the habit in a very short time by using the following inexpensive formula. Go to any drug store and ask for Nicotol tablets, take one tablet after each meal, and in a comparatively short time you will have no desire for tobacco, the craving will have left you. With the nicotine poison out of your system your general health will quickly improve.

Note.—When asked about Nicotol tab- lets, one of our leading druggists said: "It is truly a wonderful remedy for the tobacco habit; ever ahead of any- thing we have ever sold before. We are authorized by the manufacturers to refund the money to every dissatis- fied customer, and we would not per- mit the use of our name unless the remedy possessed unusual merit." Nicotol tablets are sold in this city under an iron clad money back guarantee by all up to date druggists, including D. J. Fry.

BOARD RAISES PAY OF JANITORS 10 PER CENT

Application Of Eight New Teachers Accepted At Meeting.

A ten per cent increase in the salaries of the janitors of all of the city schools was voted by the school board at their regular meeting last evening, and a new janitor, C. W. Stewart, was appointed for the Grant school building.

The board also ratified the applica- tion of Lieutenant L. J. Murdoch for a captaincy in the B. O. T. C. Lieu- tenant Murdoch is the officer in charge of the military training work in the high school.

In the selection of new teachers Miss Lena Heist, of this city, and Miss Irene D. Fox, of Monroe, Iowa, were employed for the senior High school; Lillian and Charlotte Tier- hauer, of Grand Forks, N. D., for the junior high schools, and Myrtle Al- brecht, of Marquam, Esther Nelson, of Portland and Della M. Deane, of Eugene, for the elementary grades. Harry Savage, a graduate of the Willamette University law department, was elected to the history department of the High school.

He had been offered a position as superintendent of the schools of Tillamook, but preferred to remain in this city.

Superintendent Todd called the at- tention of the board to the recent visit to the schools of Frank Shepard and Ben Johnson, inspectors of vo- cational work under the Smith-Hughes act. These gentlemen expressed their gratification with the results of work in the manual training, mechanical and domestic science departments, and recom- mended that the commercial de- partment be brought up to the required standard by bringing it within the provisions of the Smith-Hughes act. The board discussed the advisability of the change and finally authorized Super- Todd to investigate and report. Mr. Todd himself is in favor of the change as it would add greatly to the scope and efficiency of the department, and the additional expense would be largely taken care of by the appropriations from the federal and state funds. Un- der this plan, if adopted, an oppor- tunity will be given to young men and women who are employed in the city to devote a portion of their time to the noncommercial course and still retain their positions.

COURT HOUSE

In the recent suit of the Hammond Lumber company against the Public Service Commission of Oregon, in which the lumber company was denied lower rates, the company files a petition asking the court to vacate its former con- clusions of law and to place thereof the following: "That the defendant, did not make a valuation of property of the Columbia & Nehalem River Railway Co., as a basis for determining the reasonableness of the rate. That the defendant did not base its order prescribing rates upon transportation con- siderations, but upon the large profits which the lumber company was sup- posed to be making, and that it was public policy during the war to give the railroad company extra large profits." The Hammond people ask for a decree along these lines in order to secure lower rates.

W. C. Winslow has filed suit against N. Biggers. In a sale by foreclosure of certain lumber involved in the case of Ray Nightingale against W. A. Taylor, T. P. Richardson and F. S. Hunter, it developed that Mr. Biggers held a chattel lien against the lumber for $500. There was no record of the lien or it was overlooked. When the lumber was sold through court proceedings, Mr. Winslow bought it. Later the $500 lien was disclosed. Mr. Winslow sues to clear his title.

The appraisers have submitted their valuation of the estate of W. L. Simer- al. The 265 acre farm in the Waido hills was appraised at $8900. Besides the farm there was the stock on the farm and the farming implements. The appraisers were Joseph Ranney, W. A. Jones and J. C. Jones.

Band Concerts in Marion Square Requested by Board

The city park board, consisting of J. W. Maroney, J. J. Roberts and Mrs. A. N. Bush, will present a petition to the council at the meeting next Mon- day evening, asking that the band con- certs for the summer be held occa- sionally in Marion square. The board has been making a special effort to place Marion square in presentable condition and it is understood that the people in that part of the city feel that they should be recognized.

Last summer an effort was made to divide the band concerts between Willson park and Marion square, as the public concerts of the band are part of the city activities. It will re-

QUIRE ACTION OF THE COUNCIL TO CHANGE THE PRESENT PLAN OF GIVING ALL CONCERTS IN WILLSON PARK. ONE OF THE ARGUMENTS TO BE MADE IN FAVOR OF MARION SQUARE IS THAT OF EXPENSE. THE CITY HAS BEEN IN THE HABIT OF PAYING A SPECIAL EMPLOYEE $5 EVERY EVENING THE BAND PLAYS IN WILLSON PARK TO SHOW THE FOUNTAIN IN COLORS, AND THIS IS FOR HALF AN HOUR'S WORK. IT IS ARGUED THAT WITH FOUR OF THE MONTHLY CONCERTS HELD IN MARION SQUARE THE CITY WOULD BE SAVED AT LEAST THE $20 A MONTH PAID FOR OPERATING THE FOUNTAIN IN COLORS.
