THE CHURCH SHOULD PURGE HERSELF OF LICENSE VOTERS.

To the Editor: A little leaven leaventh the whole lump.---I Cor. 5-6.

Purge out the old leaven.—I Cor. 5:7.

Do not ye judge them that are within?---I Cor.5: 12.

Put away the wicked man from among yourselves.---I Cor. 5:13.

Guilty Partnership

With a national government in partnership with the liquor traffic, or any other iniquity, all its money is necessarily tainted money. In such a case, the most important step for the church in the matter is to expel all her members who persist in voting with a license party that "by standing committed to the license policy, or by refusing to put itself on record in an attitude of open hostility to the saloon," favors the continuance of the tainted money and all the other horrors of the whole wicked license system.

John Wesley called the slave trade "the sum of all villainies" Said Henry Ward Beecher: "He consents to slavery who does not exhaust his energies in his endeavors to prevent it." And said the great abolitionist, William Lloyd Garrison: "I protest before God that great as is my detestation of slavery, I would rather be a slave seller, yea, a kidnapper on the African coast, than sell this poison (alcohol) to my fellow creature for consumption."

Surely "this covenant with death should be disannulled and this league with hell should not stand." "Let judgment begin at the house of God."

The Real Culprit

"It is a worse offense to vote to license a saloon than it is to keep a saloon after it has been authorized by the people. The voter is the creator of the saloon and the creator is more responsible than his creature. * * * We curse the saloon keeper for the evils that come from the saloon. The real culprit is the voter, who gave him a license to run a saloon, and the government which shares the loot and divides the blood money with the maker and vender of the liquor."---Rev. A. C. Bane.

Summons to Action

"What does the devil care for resolutions?" --- Bishop Joseph F. Berry.

'Nothing morally wrong can ever be politically right or expedient." "Temporizing will not do longer; now is the time for decision, for firm, persistent, resolute action."---Abraham Lincoln.

"For one, I regret the spirit of conservation which dominates our church and stands in the way of all radical and progressive measures. Old fashioned, heroic treatment is sometimes a good thing, and it is what is needed here and now."---Rev. William F. Anderson, now Bishop Anderson.

"Protest against all wrong! Acquiesce is no villainy." "The church of God must lead or the church of God must die!"---Bishop Daniel A. Goodsell.

Purge out the old leaven--old party voters, all license voters---from the church of the Living God!

Unescapable Duty

For what have I to do with judging them that are without. Do not ye judge them that are within. But them that are without God judgeth. Put away the wicked man from among yourselves.---I Cor. 5:12-13.

"UNPARDONABLE SIN" RECORD SCREEN EFFORT

Surpassing in importance any precious moving picture event in the history of Salem will be the engagement of "The Unpardonable Sin," Harry Garson's extraordinary epic photoplay, starring Blanche Sweet, under the personal direction of Marshall Neilan, at the Liberty theatre, beginning tomorrow; there will be three presentations daily of the picture for a period beginning Thursday and ending Saturday night, the matinees at 2 p. m. o'clock, and the night presentations at 7 p. m.

"The Unpardonable Sin" is one of the most pretentious screen plays that has ever been attempted, and has been completed after months of painstaking effort and with the expenditure of more real money than has been enlisted in the aid of any photoplay produced within the past five years. It is a brand-new production, and just now having its initial runs in the important theatres in the East.

Those who are familiar with the important books which have been published during the past couple of years will identify the big Garson picture as an adaptation from the powerful story by the same name, written by Major Rupert Hughes, which first appeared in serial form in the Red Book and was later published in book form to achieve a reputation as a "best seller" which has been surpassed by few novels offered the reading public. The story has been spoken of as one of the most powerful tales of love and adventure which has ever been written and reviews of the picture made by important critics throughout the country pay high tribute to Director Marshall Neilan when they say that here is one of the rare instances when the photoplay version is even more powerful and gripping than the original narrative.

When they see "The Unpardonable Sin" moving picture devotees will be particularly interested in the work of the star, for the reason that in Miss Blanche Sweet it brings back to the screen a favorite who had thoroughly established herself before retiring for a long and much-needed rest. Miss Sweet won her spurs in some of the biggest and best pictures ever produced by David Wark Griffith, who has since given to the public such big things as "The Birth of a Nation," "Intolerance" and "Hearts of the World." Marshall Neilan, who directed her in the new picture, is conceded to rank equally high with Mr. Griffith, and it is not strange then that Miss Sweet's performance in "The Unpardonable Sin" seems to indicate that her absence from the screen for some time has improved rather than impaired her powers as a dramatic actress.

In support of Miss Sweet, Mr. Garson has assembled a cast of unusual strength, prominent among whom are Matt Moore and Wallace Beery.

STAYTON NEWS NOTES

(Capital Journal Special Service.)

Stayton, Ore., June 11.—A meeting was held Friday evening in the hall for the purpose of reorganizing or rather rejuvenating the Commercial Club. While the club has retained its organization for the past several months, no meetings have been held and all business has been transacted by the board of directors. It was decided at Friday's meeting to hold an election of officers soon and resume the payment of dues, which was dropped some time ago. It is desired to have some funds in the treasury.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Ringo are receiving the congratulations of their friends over the adoption of a baby girl. The little one was only four days old when it arrived here with its nurse. Having no children of their own they have room in their hearts and home for a child and this one will find good care and a good home.

Wallace Smith while in Manilla enroute home from Siberia purchased a piece of Japanese embroidery that has been attracting considerable attention in the window of the Lilly Hardware Co., where it was taken to be placed in a frame. Wallace has numerous curios picked up on his trip.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Luthy will attend the Rose Festival in Portland. Mrs. M. J. Crabtree will have charge of the store during their absence.

Sunday afternoon and evening Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Neibert were at home to a number of friends at their pleasant farm home west of town. It was in the nature of a house warming, as they have recently taken up their abode there. Before his marriage Mr. Neibert had given the house a thorough going over, painting, papering, and installing new furniture, and a water system and it is now equipped with all modern conveniences. Mr. Neibert recently planted nearly 200 English walnut trees, all of which are growing nicely, and besides other stock, keeps about 200 chickens. The guests were splendidly entertained, everything possible being done to add to their enjoyment of the visit. A delicious lunch was served also punch. Those present were W. W. Elder and wife, J. R. Gardner and wife, Alva Smith and family, E. D. Alexander and wife, J. H. Missler and wife, M. J. Crabtree and family, E. D. Crabtree and wife, O. E. Gardner and family, C. A. Luthy and family, Mrs Frank Parry and son, Miss Maryan Alexander and Wallace Smith It was an occasion very much enjoyed by all.

Ernest Denny, who secured right-of-way for the contemplated railroad from Mt. Angel through this place, was the first of the week called to Portland by the managers of the road, and it is expected that the project will again be taken up. The company asked for permission to extend the road two years ago, but the government would not allow it.

Leo Klecker was in town Tuesday, coming home for a 4-day while the battleship he is with was in Portland.

Word has been received from Guy Sloper that he has received his discharge and expects to be home soon.

A child of Martin Zuber, near Sublimity, died Monday night from diphtheria. There are several cases of the disease reported in the country adjacent to this place.

J. P. Wilbur left Saturday for Portland for a stay of several days.

MARION NEWS.

(Capital Journal Special Service.)

There will be no services at the Friends Church next Sunday as many of the members will be at Newburg attending the Yearly Meeting at that place.

Walter George has a new side-car for his motorcycle.

Several from here spent Saturday in Lebanon at the Strawberry Festival and report a good time.

John Palmer and wife returned home from California last Wednesday.

MEHAMA NEWS NOTES

(Capital Journal Special Service.)

A large audience greeted Prof. Ford, of Stayton, last Thursday evening when he spoke in the church on the great war. Prof. Ford went to France as a Y. M. C. A. worker and carried supplies to the boys during the big battles.

After the lecture the ladies served ice cream and cake and the net proceeds was over $11.00, which will be used to remodel the church.

Lawrence Mulkey has gone to Eastern Oregon to work during the summer. He and his sister, Miss Meral, will attend O. A. C. this fall. They were among the number that received their diplomas from the Stayton High School recently.

Next Sunday, June 14th, our Union Sunday school will hold their Children's Day exercises and a basket dinner will be held at noon followed by preaching.

A number of Mehama and Fern Ridge taxpayers have handed together and will fix the road leading from Champ and Son's store to the bridge across Stout Creek north. This is one of the worst, or the worst strip of road anywhere around and these men are to be congratulated for their willingness to make our roads fit for travel. Our precinct voted strongly for the bonding and were hoping to town in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. John Zimmerman and daughter were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Parsons.

Mr. and Mrs. August Zoellner and family are enjoying a visit with their daughter and new son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edd Steine of Wardner, Idaho.

They were married June 1st at Wardner. Mrs. Steine, formerly Miss Valerine Zoellner, nursed in the Wardner hospital before her marriage.

State House Notes

The Public Service Commission is holding a hearing today at Cornelius with regard to a railroad crossing. Tomorrow they have a hearing in Portland with regard to the matter of fees for grain inspection.

The Standard Oil Company has recently filed with the secretary of state their report for the month of May, showing that during the month they sold 1,976,434 gallons of gasoline, and 334,559 gallons of distillate. The total tax on both products amounted to $21,437.64.

The State Highway Commission has recently received a communication from R. W. Pickard, Assistant General Freight Agent for the Spokane, Portland & Seattle Railroad, stating that the Railroad Administration had authorized a very satisfactory rate on shipments of sand and gravel, being about the same as the current rate on swings. This will probably effect a saving of at least $100,000 to the Highway Commission in carrying out its program of road construction.

The monthly report of the Industrial Accident Commission shows that a total of $16,384 has been paid out to beneficiaries under the compensation act, and that the running expenses of the department for the month amounted to $10,644. Final settlements were made in 890 accident cases, and there are still 731 cases before the Commission for adjustment. The total number of fatal accidents during the month was 18.

In response to a communication from the national association of Woman Suffrage, requesting the calling of a special session of the legislature for the purpose of ratifying of the national suffrage amendment, Governor Olcott has respectfully sent a negative reply, stating as his reason that the Oregon legislature had but recently adjourned and that it would not be advisable to call them together at this date for special session.
