SOCIETY.

By Gertrude Robinson

HAVING postponed the affair for the past few weeks because of the Willamette festivities, "La dies Day" will be resumed tomorrow at the Hillside Country club with a royal flourish. It will be "guest day" and every member is expected to bring a guest with her. A group of prominent women will act as hostesses for the occasion, and the enjoyable times that always mark these days will be, if anything, surpassed.

Commercial club members are disappointed for a disappointment at their meeting Tuesday evening. Miss Ruth Johns, who had been scheduled to appear as one of the soloists has gone to California on a motor trip and will be absent from the city for about a month. Miss Joanna James however, will appear as announced, and that in itself is encouragement enough for the most tired of business men to attend the meeting. Mrs. Stoolhammer, the ten year old pianist of Silverton, will also appear on the program.

Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Fullerton and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Canfield left Sunday morning for a trip to southern Oregon. They will return during the latter part of the week, the trip being made in Mr. Canfield's new Mitchell.

On Tuesday evening a very pleasant affair was enjoyed at the home of Paul Silke. About fifty guests were present. Many excellent musical numbers were rendered. After which a pleasant game of "trivia" was participated in by all present. Miss Jessie Glanzer receiving first prize, Miss Marguerite Biehuff next prize. Last but not least was the delicious refreshments served by the hostess, Mrs. Paul Silke. The last summers for the evening were played by the Fruitland orchestra. All present voted the evening a great success.

Graduation exercises of Sacred Heart academy will take place this evening at the high school auditorium. The young ladies who will receive their diplomas and teachers certificates are Miss Clare Winkler, Miss Marie Russell, Miss Blanche Gissen and Miss Catherine Durandess.

Mrs. Helen Ekin Starrett, author and prominent club woman of Portland, was a Salem visitor during the latter part of the week, on her way to attend the commencement exercises of the University of Oregon. While in Eugene she is the guest of Dean Louise Ehrman, is being extensively entertained. Two of Mrs. Starrett's best known works are "The Charm of Fine Manners" and "Reverence and Consolation."

Zanna Van Doren became the bride of Millard Worthington at a beautiful and simple wedding yesterday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Williamson, on Court street. The ceremony took place at high noon. Reverend Mrs. Ella McElroy reading the impressive ring ceremony. The house was magnificently decorated with pink roses and carnations. The bride was beautiful in a white gown of net combined with satin, she wore a veil and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. Her sister, Mrs. T. L. Pratt, acted as matron of honor. She wore a dainty dust colored dress and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Ernest Worthington, a brother of the groom, and later returned from overseas, acted as best man.

Following the ceremony an elaborate wedding breakfast was served. The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Williamson, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Kay, Mr. and Mrs. T. I. Pratt, Ernest Worthington, Mrs. R. E. Pomeroy, Miss Angie Kay, Mrs. Lena Medley, Mrs. L. Roach, Miss Dorothy Pratt, Miss Leona Pratt, Emerson Van Doren and G. McElroy.

A delightful party was given Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Kreutz on North 18th street. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Delann, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Misher, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Schauf, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Galloway, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bowen, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. McElvain, Mr. and Mrs. Burtos A. Myra, Mrs. Cecil Fox.

Mrs. E. Mae Brott and attractive daughter, Miss Opal Brott, arrived in Salem Friday morning from Los Angeles, California, to visit her mother, Mrs. J. L. Adams of 351 North 21st street, and her sister, Mrs. Damon Finney of North 22nd street.

Salem was formerly Mrs. Brott's home but she has resided in Los Angeles for the past six years. She visited in San Francisco on her way to Salem and attended the final festivities of the Victory Rose Festival in Portland.

Mrs. T. W. Davies and daughter, Esther, left this morning for a week's visit in Portland and Oregon City.

Thursday evening, June 12th, the joint celebration of the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hicks and the birthday anniversary of Mrs. M. J. Cerulik was held, when Mrs. Hicks and Mrs. Cerulik entertained the members of "The Helping Hand" and their husbands. The Cerulik residence was beautifully decorated with roses and ferns. After a short business session a delightful program was rendered in which the Fruitland orchestra assisted and Mr. and Mrs. Silke, Mr. and Mrs. Klein, Mrs. William De Vries and Mrs. Hicks took part. The grand march and serving of the wedding and birthday cakes followed, after which the president of the Helping Hand presented each of the hostesses with a beautiful silver piece as a token of appreciation from the society. The refreshments were then served. Mrs. Bausmyer cutting the birthday cake and Mrs. A. J. Mathis the wedding cake. After refreshments the guests passed to the dining room where punch was being served. Mr. Cerulik proposed a toast to Mrs. Hicks and Mr. Hicks a toast to Mrs. Cerulik to which all heartily responded. Fifty guests were present.

Friends of Captain W. De Clark will be pleased to learn that he left Camp Devens yesterday en route to Salem. Captain Clark has been overseas on active duty with the 23d highway engineers.

The junior piano pupils of Mrs. Julia M. Weigel enjoyed a recital at her home on South Church street Thursday afternoon. Ferns and pink carnations were used in decorating the living rooms and refreshments were served after the program, which was as follows:

- Allee Bosck
- Duet, Approach of Spring — Alpha Holcomb, Deloise Hlee

A most interesting recital was given Wednesday evening, June 11th at the Y. W. C. A. rooms by the pupils of Miss Lena Dotson. The artistic arrangement of the decorations was an attractive feature of the recital. The opening number was a duet by Louise and Paul Allen which was thoroughly enjoyed and revealed the musical talent which these children possess.

The very youngest performers were Ruth Kays, Evelyn Cummings, Eloise White and Janice McKinnon and each rendered her selection exceptionally well.

The numbers of Frances Harlan, Ellaabeth Bennett and Louise Allen showed splendid advancement for the past year while the playing of Evelyn Poulsen, who has had but eight lessons showed remarkable progress.

Alice Claxton and Eloise Wright pleasantly surprised the guests with the skillful rendition of their numbers. Howard Roberts and Paul Allen with their creditable playing displayed the interest which these small boys have taken in their music.

Little Miss Eleanor Wright and Eugene Harlan captivated the audience with their special numbers.

Among the older pupils who appeared on the latter part of the program were Marian Rowley, Ruth Nelson, Emma Kreft, Allee McKinnon and Gladys Hilderbrand who presented their numbers in a most pleasing manner.

The double number by Blanche Rowley, Mary McKinnon, Luella Anderson and Loyal Gray were given in a manner which showed careful training and indicated the possession of a high degree of musical ability by these young pianists. Miss Flora Newmans rendered two numbers very acceptably.

Another special feature of the program was the singing of Miss Viola Finney. She delighted the audience with her vocal solos.

You can't cover blackheads, pimples, red spots on the face with powder; they're bound to be seen—don't worry or spoil your temper, take Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea each week—it will banish them thru the blood, the only sure way. Dr. D. J. Fry.

LA VICTOIRE CORSETS

"The Corset De Luxe"

For Women would knowingly give up the graceful lines of youth, yet how many unknowingly give them up by too conspicuous corseting.

LA VICTOIRE CORSETS have this wonderful advantage—they adjust so easily and perfectly as never to contradict the youthful lines with which they endow the figure. Their splendid effect is never destroyed by breaks in the bust line and creases at the sides or back. Their graceful contours are those of true youth that courts inspection.
