At the next session of the city council, there will come up for consideration the election of two aldermen. A successor is to be elected to succeed C.
M. Roberts of the fifth ward, who handed in his resignation at the last meeting and also a successor to Otto J.
Wilson from the third ward, as Mr.
Wilson, alderman from the first ward, will return from his honeymoon next week but does not expect to move from his ward, notwithstanding reports that he had rented the Senator McNary house on Court street.

The average county teacher prefers to teach in the two room schools and for this reason almost all of these schools have contracted for teachers for the coming school year. It seems that teachers in the rural districts prefer grade work to teaching where all grades are to be handled.

The U. S. employment labor bureau reports finding work for 10 men last Saturday and 10 last Monday. Laborers who were found work yesterday were assorted as follows: 3 farm hands, 3 workers in saw mills, 1 carpenter, 3 ditch workers, 1 teamster and 3 handy men. Nothing special is happening in the loganberry picking line. There is a big demand for pickers and the pickers seem to be in no hurry to decide where they will work. The two cent price is holding good.

Why suffer when Bishop's have the Palm Beach suits. They're so comfortable.

The highest price ever paid for a cow west of the Rocky mountains at either an auction or private sale was paid when P. A. Doerfler bought St.

Mawes-Boise-Rosarie at the El Carey auction last week. The price for the cow was $3100. She is a four year old and promises this year to break the four year old record. "Vive La France," the cow that broke so many four year old records will be regarded as in the five year class by next spring. St. Mawes-Boise-Rosarie may be found at the Doerfler farm 12 miles directly east of Salem. Or going from Silverton, on the road to Sublimity, seven miles from Silverton. The price paid for Jersey cattle at the recent auction broke the world's average price for Jersey, where the herd was bred by the owner. On the Doerfler farm are 50 head of cows, in charge of Karl Hansenman.
