

PERSONNEL OF NEW CABINET IN DOUBT

Paris, June 21.—(United Press.)—The American peace commission stated that at 2 o'clock this afternoon Hermann Bauer was asked by President Ebert to form a new German cabinet. It was further stated that 273 of the 481 members of the national assembly have signified their intention of voting for acceptance of the peace treaty. The democrats warned members of their party in the assembly that if they voted for acceptance they would be expelled from the party.

Paris, June 21.—(United Press.)—A news agency dispatch from Weimar today said the new German cabinet had been semi-officially announced as follows:

- Dr. Eduard David, chancellor.
- Dr. Bernhard Dernburg, minister of finances.
- Herr Sischelmer, minister of justice.
- Hugo Preuss, minister of the interior.
- Herr Schmitt, food controller.
- Herr Wisdel, minister of economics.
- Herr Haier, minister of public works.
- Count Von Bernstorff, minister of foreign affairs.
- Gustav Noske, minister of defense.
- Dr. Bell, minister of colonies.
- Herr Giesbert, minister of posts.
- Mathias Erzberger, minister without portfolio.

The dispatch added that Erzberger's appointment was uncertain.

'ROUND COAST LEAGUE BASES

(By United Press.)
 Yesterday's winners: Portland, Salt Lake, Vernon, San Francisco.
 Home runs: Pourtier, Angeli; Bigber, Rainiers.
 Even the combined pitching strength of the Arlett family failed to aid the Oaks, and the Beavers walked away with the second game, 9 to 1.
 The usual batfest was held in Salt Lake City with the Bees coming out on top, 10 to 9. The Angels scored one run in the 9th, which, according to statistics was not enough.
 The Tigers bit a large hunk out of the pitching record of Bigbee, when they stopped him 5 to 4. The Rainier hurler has won six straight.
 Thirteen innings proved lucky for the Beas who came from behind and nosed out the Solons, 5 to 4.

5-PASSENGER PLANE TO BE HERE THE 4TH

Big Machine To Carry Sight-Seeers Into Clouds At $10 Per Trip.

Five passenger airplane, one used by the government at the aviation fields in southern California, will be the big attraction of the three-day celebration in Salem beginning July 3. Lieutenant Floyd D. Brown who has been in the flying service in southern California will fly directly from Long Beach, California, to Salem and arrive at the Salem aviation field Sunday afternoon, June 29.

This information is vouched for by T. E. McCroskey, manager of the Salem Commercial club, who closed final arrangements for the big plane this morning.
 Not only will Lieut. Brown do fancy flying each day of the three day celebration, but he will also do commercial flying. This means that for $10 one may take a flight in the airplane as far as Silverton and back.
 As there has been a number who were keen to take Governor Olcott's place on the recent flight to Portland it is desired that those who wish to take a trip to the skies via the airplane route, make early application to T. E. McCroskey, manager of the Commercial club.

It is probable that one of the first who will take a flight will be John H. Albert, president of the Capital National bank. It is known that Mr. Albert offered himself as a substitute for Governor Olcott and was keenly disappointed when the governor announced that no substitute was wanted for the Portland trip with Colonel Watson.

The following have already made application at the Commercial club to make an air flight with Lieut. Brown: John W. Albert, F. G. Myers, Walter A. Denton, Theodore Roth, J. B. Read, Earl McDonough, Dr. R. E. Lee Steiner, R. B. Goodin, David W. Eyre, Will F. Walton, Gordon Wallace, E. F. Smith, H. W. Hartman and O. A. Hartman. Dr. Epley is holding off to first take a look at the airplane.

 plus his reasonable charges for keeping and 10 per cent on the money he had paid for the stock.
 In the Gervais section, considerable property has been taken up as strays but in each case has been reclaimed. The turning into the county clerk of money by Mr. Dreher was the first instance since the law passed in which the owners of the stock were not found and where the sale was actually made.

Slander Case Involving Woodburn Men Dismissed

The rather interesting slander case from Woodburn, entitled A. M. Hockett versus J. C. Wageman, which was called for trial this morning before Judge Kelly, came to a sudden close when the attorneys for the plaintiff took a nonsuit, practically dismissing the case. The suit has attracted much attention in Woodburn and about two dozen witnesses had been subpoenaed to appear for the trial today. The case involved charges that were made concerning the running of a disorderly house.

- 000 for indemnities.
 - 2—Withdrawal of the allied demand for surrender of the former kaiser.
 - 3—Immediate admission of Germany to the league of nations.
- The note will be delivered to the allies in Versailles by Secretary Von Haniel of the German peace delegation. If the allies' reply to the note is favorable, it is regarded as likely the democrats will join in forming a new cabinet favorable to acceptance of the terms. Support of the democrats apparently would make this easily accomplished.
- In the event of an unfavorable reply, it was thought Ebert would make another effort to form a cabinet without the democrats.

 Weimar, June 20.—The new German cabinet, now in process of formation, will sign the peace treaty, according to the plans of political leaders today. Afterward the people will be asked to ratify this action in a nation-wide referendum.
 The national assembly, scheduled to meet tomorrow (Saturday) for final action on the terms, already has indicated through party caucuses a strong sentiment in favor of signing. While the nationalist party members voted unanimously against acceptance, the dominant coalition of majority socialists, centrists and democrats registered its approval of signing.

Ebert Retains Office.

President Ebert, who was said to have decided to stand or fall with the Scheidemann cabinet, apparently had changed his attitude today. He called the party chiefs together for a secret conference, obviously for the purpose of selecting the personnel of the new ministry, which was expected to be announced tonight.

When Thomas Edison Says a Thing Is Good That Ends All Argument

After he spent years in research work and applied himself in every manner, he at last perfected the wonderful Diamond Disc phonograph. He said it is good and he knows.

To prove this there will be a tone test given at the Opera House in October by Ida Gardner, Contralto and Harold Lyman, Flutist.

nounced tonight. The belief prevailed that Ebert would be able to hold out, and probably would dominate the new government.

Dr. Edward David, president of the national assembly appeared to be the most likely candidate for chancellor. Opposition to Gustav Noske, president military governor was growing and Hermann Mueller was reported to have stated he would refuse to head the government if asked. Chancellor Scheidemann was continuing to conduct governmental affairs until the new cabinet was ready to assume office.

May Sign "Under Protest."
 Reports were circulated today that a plan was on foot to have the treaty signed "under protest."

It was said that at least three reservations would be made—confined opposition to turning the former kaiser over to trial by an allied tribunal, demanded for fixation of a lump sum for indemnities, and plea for immediate admission of Germany to the league of nations.

General Beulow and General Gruner arrived today to discuss the situation in the east, in the light of the latest developments.

 await my guest.
 As I dressed I couldn't help but wonder if Mr. Frederick still cared for me a little, then smiled to myself to think how like I was to every other woman. I did not love him, did not want to, yet I was pleased that he had cared, and I'll confess it, I rather hoped he still did—a little.

 When I went down to meet him I knew that his feeling for me had not changed. I knew it from the light in his eyes, the way he held my hand, and I flushed a little under his gaze as I recalled my thoughts while dressing.
 "You have a nice little nest here," he said looking around.
 "Indeed we have! Neil must show you around after dinner," I replied, then hurried to the kitchen. And it was not all the heat from the stove that colored my cheeks as I called tacem to the table. It was the innocent pleasure I felt in knowing I was still admired.
 We had a long happy afternoon. He took us for a drive about three o'clock, and we motored over Oyster Bay way, and showed him where Colonel Roosevelt had lived, then where he was buried. As Neil had thought he had brought Robert a tennis racket and balls and the boy insisted upon being included in the conversation.

 "Another member of the family has surrendered," Neil said laughing, when I chided Robert for being too familiar.
 "We understand, don't we Robert?" Frederick said. "You see we had a long talk before dinner, and Robert has decided to let me be sort of a third in his affections, because I haven't any little boy."
 What that "third" was going to mean we had no slightest suspicion. (Monday—Neil Has the Offer of Two Positions.)
