

Famous In A Day For Her Beautiful Complexion, Oatmeal Combination Does It

A Free Prescription Does Its Work Overnight. You Can Prepare It At Your Home

New York: It is my own discovery and it takes just one night to get such marvelous results, says Mae Edna Wilder, whose friends ask her about her wonderful complexion and the improved appearance of her hands and arms. You can do the same thing if you follow my advice she says: I feel it my duty to tell every girl and woman what this wonderful prescription did for me. Just think of it. I never tire of telling others just what brought about such remarkable results. Here is the identical prescription that removed every defect from my face, neck, hands and arms. Until you try it you can form no idea of the marvelous change it will make in just one application. The prescription which you can prepare at your own home is as follows: Go to any grocery and get ten cents worth of ordinary oatmeal, and from any drug store a bottle of derwillo. Prepare the oatmeal as directed in every package of derwillo, and apply night and morning. The first application will astonish you. It makes the skin appear transparent smooth and velvety. I especially recommend it for freckles, tan, sun spots, coarse pores, rough skin, ruddiness, wrinkles, and, in fact every blemish the face, hands and arms are heir to. If your neck or chest is discolored from exposure, apply this combination there and the objectionable defect will disappear. It is absolutely harmless and will not produce or stimulate a growth of hair. No matter how rough and ungainly the hands and arms, or what abuse they have had through hard work and exposure to sun and wind, this oatmeal derwillo combination will work a wonderful transformation in 12 hours at the most. Thousands who have used it have had the same results I have had.

Note: To get the best effect be sure to follow the complete directions contained in every package of derwillo. You have only to get derwillo and oatmeal. You need nothing else and it is so simple that anyone can use it; and is so inexpensive that any girl or woman can afford it. The manufacturers and druggists guarantee that there will be a noticeable improvement after the first application or they will refund the money. It is sold in this city under a money refund guarantee by department stores, and all up to date druggists including the Fry and Perry stores.

ROLE IN "THE HELL CAT" IS GERALDINE FARRAR'S BEST

Geraldine Farrar comes to the Ye Liberty theatre beginning Thursday the 26th, in "The Hell Cat," second in her series of Goldwyn Pictures. The international celebrity promises to acquit herself magnificently in this production, every scene of which was made in the heart of the Wyoming Rockies. In "The Hell Cat" she is Pancha O'Brien, the daughter of a sheep raiser, and is half Spanish and half Irish. She loves and hates with equal abandon. Jim Dike, a cattlemen, covets Pancha. She will have none of him, however, because she loves Sheriff Jack Webb. Dike determines that this shall not stand in the way of his desire. Again and again Pancha rebuffs him.

After he has shot O'Brien during a raid on his ranch, Dike approaches Pancha. The girl offers furious resistance, fighting Dike off until she is finally exhausted and blood streams from her mouth. Then Dike binds her to his horse and takes her to his lonely ranch. His squaw dashes off to tell the sheriff of Pancha's plight and when Jim Dike and Pancha later leave the ranch ostensibly to go East, a posse surrounds the buggy. Dike lurches forward from his seat, a dagger in his hand. Pancha proclaims herself his slayer and unworthy of the man she loves.

That the campaign was a great success in every way and that Marion county will easily raise her quota is certain, say the committee.

The deal that wags and wags at night When live folk are a-bed; And all the world is still from fright And all the stars are fled— Trouble me not, the long hours through I sleep all night and dream of you.

The moon that walks across the sky And trails her hair behind And tangles it among the stars Is good to me, and kind; For she brings dreams as white as she And dumps them on my bed for me!
