IT'S EASY SAILING A home garden makes life a happy yoyage, bringing health, wealth and happiness, cays the National War Garden Commission of Washington.

it's easy sailin' o'er life's sca, I think you with me will agree, if we but pin our faith and hope to cata-logues o' garden dope. Th' picture o' th' tom-a-toe, directions say that I can grow, is painted up in brilliant red, that gives me visions in th' head. On onion packages I find, a gem o' art that shows th' hind, o' onions that I sure will grow, if I th' little seedlets sow. Another package trim and neat depicts a leading lookin' beet, th' artist shows th' root and tops, and hints o' tendernoss be drops. Th' radishes are red and white, and make a feller want to bits, or peel 'em with his pocket kulfe, because they are so true to life. On because they are so true to life. On lettuce packages I see a work of art that pleases me, th' findly, tender, juicy leaf, that turns my thoughts from pork and beef. String beam are shown in golden bue, in form and color they are true, th' pedshang heavy on th' viac, as seen in good old summer time. And here's a gom my heart to please, it shows a ped o' early peak th' artist sarely tens has seen, for pods are colored pens has seen, for pode are colored nice and green. And other packages of eneds, supposed to satisfy our needs show gome o' art so rich and sure, I hanger for th' garden fare.
