A service of unusual interest has been arranged at the First Presbyterian church tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. In view of the welcome and patriotic demonstration to come next week, this service will be reminiscent of the world war. Brief addresses will be made by Harold Kalkin, Paul Wallace and Richard Hanson, who will tell not only of experiences and observations of the war but lessons arising out of the war. The service will be made more attractive by special music provided by Miss Ada Miller.

J. A. Siddall leaves today for Astoria to look after the business of Mark Siddall, who is reported as being very ill.

By the carelessness of some passerby with a lighted cigar stub or a match, Bert Sisko, who is employed at the Hansen planing mill at the corner of Church and Mill streets, had a bill of about $100 in damage hung upon his automobile this morning. He left the machine standing in front of the Hansen residence while at work in the mill, and later on discovered that the trimmings on the interior were on fire, supposedly from the cause suggested. The fire was quickly put out but not until the car was considerably damaged.

The weekly report of the Industrial accident commission shows that there were 170 accidents reported for the week throughout the state. Of this number only one proved fatal—that of Ole E. Jensen, a shipbuilder of Portland. It was shown that 442 of these were subject to the provisions of the compensation act. The fact that the record is unusually low for this week may be assigned in some measure to the propaganda of "no accident" week for which appeals were sent out from both official and cooperative headquarters.

Robert G. Paulus, manager of the Salem Fruit show has been "banned" to the Willamette Valley Fruit exchange. On account of the shortage of dried fruits and big crop of this season, the

VICTORY CELEBRATION PLANS ARE COMPLETE

Committee Decides That Parades Will Be Morning Feature.

The hard-working committees in charge of the great Victory program of next week have been making good progress and this morning were able to report all committees practically made up and the program blocked out with sufficient definiteness so that it may be considered official. At a meeting held last night the matter was gone over in detail, considerable time being given to the arrangements for the parade. It was finally decided that both the baby parade and the Victory parade would have to be held in the forenoon in view of the men who take part in the big parade cannot be present in the afternoon. Hence it was decided to have the baby parade and exhibit at Wilson Park at 9:30 to be followed by the Victory parade at 10:30.

Due to ill health, A. J. Ellis of Silverton has sold his furniture stock to Frank Richter of this city. Mr. Richter will place the stock in his store on Court street.

Lieutenant Brown, who is to fly here July 3, 4 and 5, has decided definitely to ship his airplane to Ashland and expects to arrive there tomorrow. He will arrive in Salem next Wednesday. The aviator has been flying in California and in order to fulfill his engagements here and at Silverton, decided not to take the risk of flying over the Siskiyou mountains. The aviator, who flew from Mathers field, Sacramento to Portland for the Rose festival found the air pretty bumpy over the mountains and was obliged to fly at an altitude of from 8000 to 10,000 feet.

The state encampment of Spanish war veterans which will meet in the city next Wednesday and Thursday will be given a pleasant time Wednesday after their organization and permitted to get down to business during the Thursday sessions. After the organization and complimentary addresses from the state and city officials, and some preliminary business Wednesday, the veterans will be taken in hand and given auto rides to the state institution and in the nearby country. Upon their return from auto riding, they will be given a banquet at the army in the camp rooms of the veterans and auxiliary. The speech making will take place at the banquet. Wednesday evening will be taken up with a complimentary dance at the army for the visitors, to which the public will be invited.

was finally decided that both the baby parade and the Victory parade would have to be held in the forenoon in view of the men who take part in the big parade cannot be present in the afternoon. Hence it was decided to have the baby parade and exhibit at Wilson Park at 9:30 to be followed by the Victory parade at 10:30.

The committee of arrangements for the baby parade have been made up with a few exceptions, those named being Mrs. Locke, chairman; Mrs. M. L. Moyes, Mrs. W. H. Davey, Mrs. G. G. Braun, Mrs. H. H. Olinger, Mrs. E. L. Baker, Mrs. Wm. S. Walton. There will be a series of nine prizes offered on the baby parade, the decorations of the eggs and go-carts counting as well as the appearance of the babies. A big turnout of little ones is anticipated. A meeting will be held this afternoon by this committee for final arrangements. Following is the completed program as it stands at the present hour, though there may be minor changes next week. Final announcement and instructions as to the formation and the various features will be made Monday.

Winconsin Association Holds Annual Picnic And Reunion At Fair Grounds

The Wisconsin Association held its tenth annual reunion and picnic at the State Fair Grounds yesterday. About 200 enjoyed one of the most successful gatherings of this association. A feature of the hour meal was an old fashioned barbecue and a big tub of lemonade made in the style Judge Bingham, Judge Webster and W. L. Cummings and the picnic on the last day of school when they were country boys back in Wisconsin. These treats were the gift of Judge Bingham and were greatly enjoyed by all.

Features of the afternoon program was an address by Hon. Conrad P. Olson of Portland and violin solos, bone solos and songs by Mr. Hill and Flint, assisted by Mrs. Rose Hagedorn. Even Methodists and those of a deep veneration, had a hard time holding their feet as tunes reminding them of Wisconsin born dances of long ago came to them. Other numbers were vocal solos by Mrs. Hendry of Salem and Miss Grace Treastrial of Portland and a recitation by little Miss Maxine Clark, which was especially enjoyed. It was voted to hold the next picnic at Silverton. The newly elected officers are: Judge C. L. Blumhain, president; A. C. Bohmstedt, vice president and Judge Daniel Webster, secretary-treasurer.

SALEM KINGS PRODUCTS COMPANY WINS IN SUIT TO ENFORCE CONTRACTS

A final decree in the case of the Salem Kings Products company vs. A. Rupert & Company and the Valley Canning Company, of Newberg, in which the Salem company sought to restrain the defendants from receiving berries under contract to it, has been handed down in the circuit court of Multnomah county, according to word received here today.

RECITAL PLEASING TO LARGE AUDIENCE

Pupils Of Miss Magers In Concert Appearance Win High Praise.

Whatever may have been the prime object of the recital in the opera house last evening, three things were certainly accomplished: a great audience was thoroughly charmed with a varied musical program of the highest quality—there was a fresh demonstration of the talent to be found in Salem—and Miss Minetta Magers secured an added evidence of her genius as an instructor.
