Since it has been decided that the federal employment office in this city will have to be discontinued, attention is called to ordinance No. 1530, which has to do with idle men, less pleasantly designated as vagrants. By this ordinance the city recorder's office virtually becomes an employment bureau for it provides that the police officers shall warn all idlers about pool rooms or other loafing rendezvous that they are liable to be classified as vagrants and dealt with accordingly unless they show that they are entitled to be in a state of inactivity. Along with this morning, the officers are to inform them that a list of available positions of employment are on file at the office of the recorder, whose duty it shall be to keep in touch with all employees of labor so that information can be given.

MRS. GILBERT MASONER DIES

After an illness of six weeks from tuberculosis of the brain, Mrs. Gilbert Masoner died at the Good Samaritan hospital, Portland, Friday, June 26, and was buried in Rock Creek cemetery Sunday afternoon, June 22, following services at Rock Creek church, Rev. S. E. Long conducting the service.

Aida May Long was born and grew to young womanhood in the Elliott farm country, moving to Portland several years ago. February 6th of this year she was united in marriage to Gilbert Masoner and the new home was established in Portland. Mrs. Masoner was visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Clyde Ainsworth, a few days prior to her death.—Hubbard Enterprise.

W. T. COLEMAN DIES

W. T. Coleman, a son of a pioneer family who came to Oregon in 1847, died at his home in St. Paul, Sunday, June 22, at the age of sixty-seven, the funeral being held the following Tuesday.

Mr. Coleman was the son of the late Frank N. Coleman. He leaves to mourn his loss, one son and two granddaughters, three brothers, four sisters and 73 nephews and nieces. Mr. Coleman's place of birth was McMinnville.—Hubbard Enterprise.

PROMINENT FRUIT MEN VISIT

In company with Roy Graves of Sheridan, H. D. Seavey of the fruit brokerage firm of Seavey & Flaheim, Kansas City, Chicago, St. Louis, Des Moines, St. Joseph, Omaha, St. Paul, Minneapolis and Wichita, and B. H. Fleckenstein of U. V. Slater & Co., Portland, were in the city last Thursday and were dining by Mr. Graves with some of our prominent citizens. These prominent fruit brokerage men had been through the valley with Mr. Graves to investigate the fruit prospect and were much pleased with the future outlook. Mr. Seavey stated that there would be a splendid market for the valley's canned fruit for years to come and this means that there will be a good market for all fruit turned out at this cannery and all fruit furnished the cannery at this point by growers of this section.—Woodburn Independent.
