

When My Baby Came

WHEN they put that warm, fragrant little bundle into my arms and told me he was perfect, I cried. I was so happy.

Of course, I was going to nurse him. And so I did, for two months. But he didn't gain weight as fast as he should.

Then the doctor told me not to worry, and that often mothers couldn't nurse their babies.

"The nearest thing to mother's milk I know of," he said, "is Nestlé's Milk Food."

"Of course, he has to have milk in some form—and Nestlé's is pure milk only made easier to digest because the tough curds are broken up. To that they add just the right amount of sugar and cereal, so you only add water to Nestlé's, boil it, and your baby has all the nourishment he needs in the best form."

Nestlé's is pure milk in powder form that is already modified, and does not require the further addition of milk. Always pure and safe, always uniform, and free from the danger of home-milkification, Nestlé's has stood the test of three generations and has today the largest sale of any baby food in the world.

SOCIETY.

By Gertrude Robinson

MISS MARGARET WHITE will reign as Goddess of Liberty during the three days homecoming celebration this week. Last night when the polls closed at eleven o'clock, Miss White was in the lead with Miss Leona Dunham and Miss Alta Johnson next in line. As a consequence, the honors go to Miss White and Miss Dunham and Miss Johnson will act as maids of honor. The contest was as close and spirited as any in its line and the friendly rivalry between the supporters of the contestants served to make it as spicy as could be desired.

The victor is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph White and one of the most extremely popular young ladies in the city. Congratulations and good wishes have been pouring into the White apartments since news of the results were first made public this morning.

A beautiful wedding was solemnized at the Highland Friends church yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock when Miss Hazel Tucker became the bride of Perry E. Wells of Independence. Artistic baskets of pink roses and fern and graceful bouquets of lilies were used in decorating the zig ceremony was read by Reverend Mrs. I. G. Lee. The bride was beautiful in a gown of white silk net banded with satin and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. Miss Lucille Tucker, who attended her wore a dainty frock of sheer pink and her bouquet was of Cecil Brunner roses. Marvin A. Wells, brother of the groom, acted as best man. Miss Gladys Scott presided at the organ, playing Mendelssohn's Wedding march and Mrs. Henry sang "O Promise Me."

Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the home of the bride's mother where the delicious wedding cake was cut and refreshments served. The house was beautifully decorated with sweet peas, mock orange blossoms and lilies and Mrs. Henry again rendered a beautiful solo "I Love You Truly."

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. S. E. Tucker and a graduate of the Salem high school with the class of '15. She was one of the most popular girls of the school, serving as secretary of the associated student body, and is a great favorite in the younger social set. After a honeymoon during which they will make a motor tour of Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Wells will be at home to their friends at their country home a few miles east of Independence.

The ladies of the South Circle of the First Christian church were entertained by Miss A. Aline, 1535 South Commercial street yesterday. After an interesting business meeting the afternoon was spent in sewing and the ladies were entertained with music by Miss Roberta Martin, pianist, and Mrs. Ruth Tate, soloist. Those present were Mrs. W. A. Penny, Mrs. Harvey Stanton, Mrs. Clifford Elgin, Miss A. Aline, Mrs. Otto Hendrick, Mrs. Barbour, Mrs. B. F. Walcher, Mrs. G. T. Robinson, Mrs. Wilma Pratt, Mrs. Ruth Hatch, Mrs. Charles Davis, Mrs. S. E. Wolf, Mrs. Clarence Townsend, Mrs. E. T. Smith, Mrs. W. S. Birdwell, Mrs. Mary Baker, Mrs. John Humphreys. Additional guests were Miss Roberta Martin and Mrs. Francis Aline of Chaplin, Nebraska, and Mrs. D. Aline of Woodburn. Reverend and Mrs. Leland W. Porter were also present. The next meeting will be held on July 9th at the home of Mrs. Otto Hendrick, 1705 South Commercial.

Mrs. J. E. Dorn, who has been the guest of Miss Anna Mallen, at the residence of Mrs. P. E. Taklington the past ten days, returned to her home in Portland today. Mr. Dorn, having gone to Portland the first of the month to take a position as sales manager for the Oregon Box and Manufacturing company.

During the short residence of Mr. and Mrs. Dorn in Salem, they have made many staunch friends who are reluctant to see them leave. All join in wishing them happiness in their new home and assuring them of a cordial welcome in Salem at any time.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Schuneman left today on an extended motor tour of the southern and middle western states. The first stop of importance will be at Yellowstone park, after which they will go to Council Bluffs, Iowa, to visit Mrs. Schuneman's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth McArthur. Coming home by way of the southern states they will stop at Columbia, Tennessee, where they will be the guests of Mr. Schuneman's brother. They plan to return to Salem around the first of October.

BACK LIKE A BOARD? IT'S YOUR KIDNEYS

There's no use suffering from the awful agony of lame back. Don't wait till it "grows old." It only comes back. Find the cause and stop it. Discarded conditions of kidneys are usually indicated by stiff lame backs and other wrenching pains, which are nature's signals for help!

Here's the remedy. When you feel the best twinges of pain or experience any of these symptoms, get busy at once. Go to your druggist and get a box of the pure original GOLD MEDAL Backing Oil Capsules, imported fresh every month from the laboratories in Haarlem, Holland. Pleasant and easy to take, they instantly attack the poisonous germs clogging your system and bring quick relief.

For over two hundred years they have been helping the sick. Why not try them? Sold everywhere by reliable druggists in sealed packages. Three sizes. Money back if they do not help you. Ask for "GOLD MEDAL" and be sure the name "GOLD MEDAL" is on the box.

Mrs. Ed Gannett, Lewis, Arthur and Grace Gannett of Arizona, Mrs. A. J. Beatty, Verda, Lester and Anna Beatty of Seattle, Roy Ritzenthaler of Hoquiam and Mrs. Charles Hulet of Seattle were the out of town guests.

The couple are now on their way to Alaska on their wedding trip. After their return they will be at home in Portland to their many friends.

Only the members of the immediate families were present at the wedding of Miss Jennie Pearce and W. A. Erwin which took place Sunday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Pearce, 904 North Church street. Sprays, ocean spray and pink canterbury bells formed artistic decorations for the quiet affair, and Reverend W. C. Kautner read the impressive ring ceremony. The bride is a well known Salem girl and has a host of friends among the younger set. Mr. Erwin is a assistant manager of the Big Creek logging company near Astoria. The young couple left immediately on a short wedding trip after which they will make their home in Knappa.

Miss Lucille Jaskoiki, who has been the house guest of Miss Gertrude Campbell in Portland, has returned to Salem and resumed her duties with the Ladd and Bush bank.

St. Paul's Guild will meet with Miss Clark on 14th and Chemeketa Wednesday afternoon at 2:30.

A group of young folk motored to Silver Creek Sunday, where they enjoyed dinner and a trip to the falls. The return trip was made through Silverton where they ate lunch that evening. Those who enjoyed the outing were Miss Lucy Nichols, Louise Timm, Ruth Tucker, Ida Schunk, Alice Schunk, Bessie Schunk, and John Hain, Alex Dumas, Madison Nichols, Arthur Johnson, Roy Hawthorne and Archie Dumas.

Mrs. E. E. Waters has returned to Salem after a two weeks visit in Portland with relatives and friends.

There will be a meeting of the chairman of all the committees connected with the banquet and lot for the homecoming celebration, at the Commercial club auditorium this evening at eight o'clock.

SALE OF BEER

association voted to keep bars open here and continue sale of 2.75 beer and "non-intoxicating" wines. The New York Hotel Men's association decided to obey the law, "in act and spirit," but left this to individual interpretation.

Last Night Big One. New York, in common with most of the big "wet" spots in the country, celebrated the partial demise of John Barleycorn last night with a drinking bout that rivaled any similar effort in its history. Sale of "hard" drinks ceased exactly at midnight but the celebrators were so well inoculated by that time that they did not mind, for the time being, after midnight the bars, cafes and hotels here continued to purvey light wines and beer until 1:30.

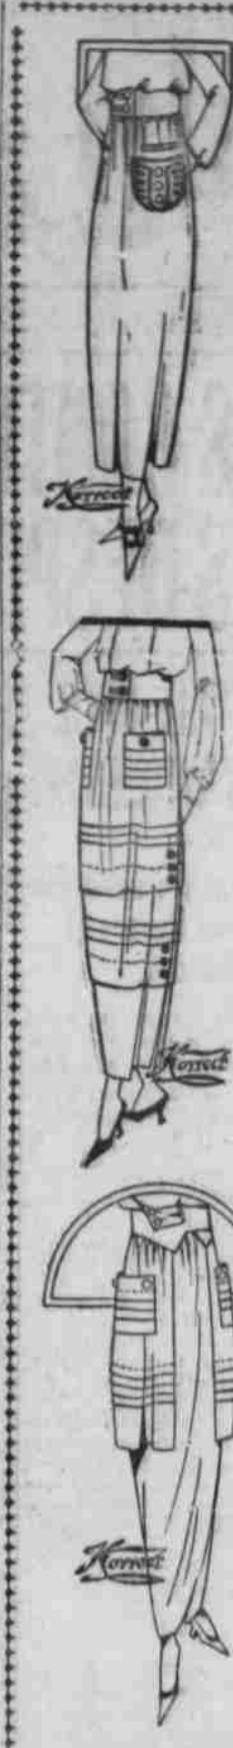

There was a last hour rush to increase stock for home consumption, but nothing like what had been anticipated. The public, apparently, counted on being able to continue purchase of the lighter drinks as a result of the ruling from Washington late yesterday.

Palmer Reiterates Warning. Washington, July 1.—(United Press.)—Dealers who continue to sell beer are in danger of arrest and prosecution, Attorney General Palmer declared today. as to whether dealers in 2.75 per cent beer would be prosecuted Palmer said: "I have not granted amnesty or authorized the sale of this beer. My contention is that beer containing more than one-half of one per cent of alcohol is intoxicating," the attorney general declared. "This has been the ruling of the internal revenue bureau for years and we are presuming that is what is meant in the war time prohibition act as passed by congress."

Palmer said, however, that it is not his intention to order wholesale arrests at present.

Court Decision Sought. "We are endeavoring to get an immediate authoritative court decision as to what constitutes intoxicating beer in a case being tried today in Baltimore," he said.

"In the meantime district attorneys have not been authorized to ignore the sale of beer, nor have they been instructed to make arrests. My statements of last night is the only instructions that have gone out. When congress defines what constitutes intoxicating beer our course will be clear. The first test case the department had in New York was lost. It was held by the court that the question of what constitutes an intoxicant was a question of fact in each instance. It would mean that if we arrest thousands over the country, that we would have to make a jury case of each arrest. In the meantime we contend that the sale of beer is in violation of the law. If a court decision is delayed or congress is slow in passing enforcement laws, we may find it necessary to make wholesale arrests throughout the country."

Chicago Saloons Open. Chicago, July 1.—(United Press.)—Saloons were open and doing business nearly "as usual" here today. Beer and light wines were on tap. In some places stronger drinks were available for double yesterday's prices.

The last minute action of the city council last night in issuing sixty-day licenses permitting the sale of beer and light wines, caused several hundred saloonkeepers to change their plans about closing up.

The observatory and San Lorenzo church were damaged in Florence. Shocks widespread. Seismographs registered shocks in the seventh degree on the Mercalli scale in the Florence neighborhood and in the third degree as far as Venice. The mayor of Rome placed a company of firemen at the disposal of the Florence authorities. The military was also engaged in rendering aid. Wounded continued to arrive in the hospitals at Santa Maria and Novella. King Victor Emmanuel was expected to reach Florence shortly.

All the instruments in the observatory at Florence were rendered useless by the earthquake. The Duchess D'Aosta has assumed charge of relief work and established her headquarters in the Novella hospital at Santa Maria.

Mrs. Marion Cochran, aged 81, who crossed the plains to Oregon with her parents in 1852, died at Albany last Saturday.
