"'Com'on you Willard!"
"At 'ta boy, Dempsey!"
These and a few more are only a small part of the strange noises which will emanate from scores of husky throats as the Capital Journal tells the round-by-round story of the big fight battle in Toledo for Salem fight fans on the afternoon of the Fourth.
And over the din of the rooters will go following the red hot news of the scrap, blow by blow and step by step. On a direct wire from the big arena, the Journal's United Press operator will catch the movements of the fighters almost as rapidly as they happen. As fast as he gets them, via the megaphone route.
It's a big, wide street in front of the Journal office, but there won't be any room to play marbles there Friday afternoon.
And it's a big voice that'll be behind that megaphone from I o'clock until the "big thing" is over. But it's "S. R. O." so shake a leg.

MILLION MEN WILL STRIKE FOR MOONEY

First Of Four-Day Demonstrations To Start Friday, Report.
San Francisco, July 2.—(United Press.)—One million men will quit work Friday for four days in the first demonstration in behalf of Thomas Mooney, Selig Schuberg, of the International Workers Defense League, told the United Press today. The number represent all organized trades, and will affect practically every city and town in the United States.
"The approximate union vote cast on the demonstration was 125,000 to 25,000," said Schuberg. "Considering that union meetings usually draw 20 per cent of their attendance, and that this does not include a number of heavy radical labor organizations not affiliated with the A. F. of L. the number of workers affected is at least 1,000,000."
A tally of the vote shows the best response to be likely in Detroit, Minneapolis, Chicago, Butte, Seattle and Tacoma, Great Falls, Mont., and Terre Haute, Ind. The biggest single craft ready to walk out is the United Mine Workers, with a heavy membership in Pennsylvania, West Virginia and middle west and far west.
The cigarmakers' organization of which Samuel Gompers is a member voted to strike in New York, Boston,

Kings Products Company Sues Growers To Enforce Observance of Contracts

Claiming that its market price for loganberries is 5 1/2 cents a pound, and for this reason it should not pay more than this price, the Salem Kings Products company has brought suit against Bruce Cunningham, S. V. Ramp, Britt Aspiwall, C. H. Denner, O. L. Denner, Clyde Harris, August Lantz, J. W. LaFollette, L. S. Mardick, Howard Kamp and A. E. Harris.
The suit is in the form of asking the court to issue an injunction to prevent these growers from disposing of their logans on the market, but to sell them to the Salem Kings Products company at 5 1/2 cents a pound.
The growers, through their attorneys, claim that the Wittenburg-King Products company in July of 1917 agreed with them to pay four cents a pound as the minimum price for logans, with the additional agreement that the open market price should be paid at all times during the life of the ten-year contract.
Growers Say "Trick."
That at the time the contract was signed, the Wittenburg-King Products company agreed to attach a slip to the usual printed form of contract, providing that the growers should at all times be paid the market price. That it was under this agreement that the open market price should be paid, that the growers did sign the contracts.
The growers claim that the Wittenburg-King Products company instead of attaching a slip to the contract agreeing to pay the market price as they had promised the growers, attached a printed slip as follows: "If the Salem Kings Products company raises their buying price to other growers in 1918 or thereafter, this contract automatically calls for the market price."
The Salem Kings Products company, successor to the Wittenburg-King Products company, claims to be paying its other growers 5 1/2 cents while the market price is nine cents. That as their market price is 5 1/2 cents, notwithstanding conditions, the growers said should sell at 5 1/2 cents.
The growers claim the Salem Kings Products company practiced fraud in attaching to the contract the agreement to pay "their" price, instead of the market price.
In asking the injunction from Judge George G. Bingham, the Salem Kings Products company alleges as follows:
That on July 30, 1917, a contract was made with R. F. Ramp of Brooks to sell

TURK TROOPS OPERATE IN DEFIANCE OF TRUCE

Agreements Of America And England To Aid France Against Germany Framed Practically As One.

By Fred S. Ferguson
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)
Paris, July 2.—The big five was scheduled today to appoint the committee which will direct execution of the peace treaty.

This body, which now consists of Secretary Lansing, Foreign Secretary Balfour, Foreign Minister Pichon, Foreign Minister Tittoni and Baron Makino, was also expected to consider the personnel of the permanent reparations committee and the committee on Bulgarian boundaries.

Former Russian Ambassador Malakoff and a Hungarian representative were to be heard on the Roumanian-Balkan boundary.
Reports from Turkey indicate that three separate bodies of troops are operating in Asia Minor in opposition to allied occupation. Their leaders, it was said have refused to recognize the authority of the present government at Constantinople.

Turk Uprising Fended.
A general uprising is feared when the Turkish peace terms are made public and considerable difficulty is anticipated in enforcing them.

The treaties whereby America and Great Britain are pledged to aid France in the event of unprovoked aggression by Germany are so interlocking that failure to ratify one will nullify the other, it was learned today. If the senate does not accept the British pact, it was said, the American document will be valueless. The treaties contain several articles practically identical. One provides that the treaty is effective as regards Germany carrying out the military terms of the treaty of Paris. This means that America and Great Britain will be equally interested with France in the demolition of the Rhine fortifications and accomplishment of all other military requirements. It was suggested

FAKE TICKETS FOR BIG BATTLE AT TOLEDO ARE BEING PEDDLED, REPORT

By H. C. Hamilton
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)
Toledo, Ohio, July 1.—Fake fight tickets have made their appearance in different parts of the country, according to complaint made to Toledo police this morning by Frank Finzer, Tex Kickler's partner in promoting the Willard-Dempsey battle here on July 4. Yesterday a Cincinnati man exhibited to Finzer a ticket which he said he had purchased in Cincinnati for $40. This ticket, which was not a ticket, was used by the promoter, was marked with the seat number and section, and carried the title "Willard-Dempsey" fight printed across it. Stamped in red across the face of the ticket appeared the price for the best seats in the Toledo arena—$60.
The Cincinnati man thought he was buying the ticket at a $20 discount. Below the seat number, in small letters, appeared the advertisement of a cigar known as "El Rio."
Finzer asked the Toledo police chief to notify police all over the country to be on the lookout for confidence men who were peddling the fake tickets.
