MRS. BEN W. GILCOTT and her twin sons, Richard and Gordon, left today for Cannon Beach where they will pass the summer. Mrs. Gilcott's mother, Mrs. O. D. Hutton and little Chester Gilcott are already there. Mr. and Mrs. Oswald West have also opened their cottage at Cannon Beach for the summer.

From Woonsocket, Rhode Island, Reverend Father De Rouen, assistant pastor of St. Joseph's church, received word yesterday of the arrival of his brother from France. In the letter was enclosed an interesting clipping telling of a number of things of which Private De Rouen, with the characteristic reserve of the American doughboy had left his brother in ignorance. For instance, when Romeo Duke De Rouen came home with his honorable discharge from the United States army he brought with him, besides the "veteran's" knowledge of nature and an enormous appreciation of home which every returned soldier possesses, two wound stripes, three gold service stripes, a French service decoration (he was for a while attached to the 3rd French infantry) a Croix de Guerre, and two gold stars indicating French citations for bravery. He brought with him also, the promise of a great career.

Before sailing for France nearly two years ago, Private De Rouen, while singing at a concert at Camp Greene, attracted the attention of Madame Schuman-Heink, and was urged by the great prima donna to have his voice trained. Previous to his departure he was Madame's guest at her New York apartments and arrangements were made whereby he was to take up the study of music in New York or Milan, Italy, at the close of the war. At present Private De Rouen is taking a well deserved rest while recovering fully from the effects of a gas attack during the last stages of the recent struggle.

his loganberry crop on 24 acres from 1918 to 1927 at $40 a ton f. o. b. Brooks. That B. F. Ramp sold the property covered by contract to S. V. Ramp and he accepted the obligation of the contract. That contracts were made with the other defendants aggregating 155 acres with an estimated yield annually of 632 tons of berries. That each contract contained a provision that if the plaintiff at any time paid a higher price than called for in the contracts, that this would automatically raise the price. That during the present season and up to date, the Salem Kings Products company is paying 5 1/2 cents for loganberries delivered in Salem. That the Salem Kings Products company is tendering 5 1/2 cents to the growers. That all the defendants delivered their berries to the Salem Kings Products company in 1918, but are now delivering to other parties and threaten to deliver to other parties and have refused to deliver to the Kings Products company. It is further alleged that the defendant growers take the position that no deliveries will be made unless the Kings Products company pays the market price. That as the result of its not receiving these berries, the plaintiff will be damaged and the loganberry industry suffer in general reputation. The Kings Products company asks of the court that each grower be enjoined and prohibited from persuading others not to make deliveries or from interfering with its contracts. That all the growers be enjoined from selling or giving away their logans, except to the plaintiff. That if the growers have already sold to other parties, they shall be required to make good the amount so delivered by purchase on the open market. And that if they cannot purchase on the open market, they be required to pay damages which will compensate the Kings Products company. The court is also asked to grant a preliminary injunction compelling the growers to deliver all their logans to the plaintiff until such a time as the cause may be heard on its merits and proper disposition made. Senator Thompson of Portland, representing several of the growers, claimed that the Kings Product company is not purchasing on the open market. That the growers had notified the company they would not deliver the berries unless it did pay the open market and that the company could not be damaged as it had ample notice. It is claimed for the growers that the Salem Kings Products company in its pretended contract, did not attach the clause to pay the highest market price as agreed, but did attach a clause to pay "their" highest price, and that the company practiced fraud on the growers.

MILLION MEN

Florida, Chicago and other places, according to Schulberg, who says Gompers' own head, in New York will go out. Carpenters in cities and towns all over the country, electricians, bricklayers, hodeuriers, iron workers, iron moulbers, a few railway shopmen's organizations, electrical workers, painters, garment makers, packing house employes, bakers and confectioners and longshoremen are all on record for strikes in various sections, Schulberg said. "In San Francisco, plumbers, three carpenters' unions, painters, two iron workers' unions, the needlecraft trades with the exception of the garment work ers, and the longshoremen will strike. In Los Angeles, Oakland, Portland, Seattle and Tacoma the demonstration will also be felt," said Schulberg. The strikers will remain out four days as a protest against Mooney's conviction. They will then return to work, and if the new trial is not granted, will walk out again Labor Day for four days. There is no general leader for the strike, Schulberg said, each union handling its own walkout. "If only 1000 men went out four days for justice to an individual, I say a great moral victory would be attained," concluded Schulberg. "If there will be a million, representing every state in the union."

Rev. and Mrs. Leland W. Porter and Mrs. Guy Wilcox motored to Eugene Tuesday, where Mr. Porter was called to confer with the faculty of Eugene Bible university. Mrs. Porter visited Prof. Archibald Reddie of the University of Oregon, who was a classmate at Emerson college of oratory, Boston.

In honor of the fifteenth birthday anniversary of her daughter, Mary, and commemorating the young lady's cousins, Mable and Helen Pinkerton of Los Angeles, who are her guests, Mrs. L. M. Gilbert entertained a group of the very young set with a merry picnic supper in the woods Monday evening. Besides Miss Mary and the guests of honor the list of those present included Mary and Wilbur Elliott of Newberg, Helen and Mabel Marcus, Elizabeth and James Fairchilds and Darwin George.

Salem folk, particularly those who have signed up for files in the airplane during the celebration, will be interested in learning that Lieutenant Beowen arrived in the city early this morning and during the day has been assembling his machine at the fair grounds.

Perhaps the most pleasant advantage of the summer months over those of the other seasons, is the fact that it inspires so many enjoyable outings, and camping trips. A party of Salem folk, hearing the call of the out of doors, motored to Spess's Landing Sunday and enjoyed a most pleasurable day. The party consisted of Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Page, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Quinn, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ellis and daughter Katherine, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Davidson and Mr. and Mrs. C. Vibert.

Mrs. Walter Spaulding has as her guests for two or three weeks, her mother, Mrs. Nora Gard Miller and brother Milton M. Miller of Canby. The latter has just returned from two years foreign service and wears five bronze stars indicating that he took part in as many large battles. He left with Company K of Corvallis but was transferred to a machine gun outfit and later to the signal corps of the famous 3rd division. Since the signing of the armistice Mr. Miller has been with the army of occupation.

Miss Winnifred Week of The Dalles hospital is home on a vacation of about ten days. She brought with her as her house guest, Miss Shouts, a graduate nurse of the same institution.

The Spanish War veterans and their auxiliary will sponsor a dance at the armory this evening to which the public is cordially invited. The affair is in honor of the visiting veterans.

blame." The strike, which also was declared against the American Telegraph & Telephone company, was called June 11. With Burlington siding the companies in the strike, violation of the law against sending telegrams from city to city by train and through the mails was permitted, the statement read. "We have been doubly unfortunate in having to deal with Burlington as a government representative," said the statement. "The combated forces are too strong for us. But this fight will continue along legitimate union lines. We are not beaten and we will carry on until our rights are established."

began yesterday. The money bills passed bring the total appropriated during the present session and the closing session of the 65th congress to more than $5,000,000,000. Just before adjournment House republican Leader Mondell inserted in the record a statement that the six great supply bills passed by the 56th congress were nearly $500,000,000 less than the same bills as they passed the last house. In addition, he said, the request of the railroad administration had cost out $150,000,000.
