

They Help Feed 1,720 Men Every Day, And, As Side Line, Mend Clothes of Sixty

Miss Genevieve Clendenin and Miss Marion Tiffany Show How New York's Girls Are Working to Provide Comfort For Soldier and Sailor Visitors.

They are waitresses in the big Y. M. C. A.'s big Eagle Hut in New York City. They can make beds like professional housemaids, and if a staff, Miss Genevieve Clendenin and Miss Marion Tiffany are doing their part taking care of the 165,000 boys and of them. All of which is a rather good record for two New York girls who never were waiting on a bed and whose sewing was done for them.

The "Y" take care of 4,500 men a month, another 1,000 see New York from "Y" buses, and a similar number in automobiles lent by owners. Twenty-five thousand letters and cards are written in Eagle Hut every week, and a thousand stamps are sold every half-minute. In one month the "Y" cashed checks and exchanged American money for foreign to a total of $5,740, of which $10,417 was turned back at the counter where post office money orders are sold. Seven thousand extra theatre tickets were purchased, and 2,705 boys got free tickets which had been contributed through the "Y" by their friends.

"Oasis" New Name For Cooling Drink Parlors

Columbus, Ohio, July 5.—If you want to be up to bit on everything don't say: "Let's step into this joint and shoot a beer." Put it this way: "Let us have a seat in the 'Oasis' for a cooling beverage." That's the new name for saloons adopted by Methodists attending their centenary exposition here.

Court House Notes

In the divorce suit of Nellie Taralige against Henry Turnidge, the court has appointed John Turnidge his father, as guardian for the defendant as he is only 20 years old. Answering the complaint the defendant acknowledges the marriage March 16, 1918, and that she lived with him only until April 20, 1918. He alleges she left him without his consent and against his will. He accuses her of associating with other men and asks the court that he be given the divorce against her instead of the other way.
