Miss Lessor's mother, several other relatives and numerous friends, refuse to believe New's story as to the girl's condition, some saying they have positive knowledge that she was in normal health two weeks ago.

The following account of the recital given by Miss Minnetta Magers in the Opera house recently, appeared in the Sunday issue of the Portland Oregonian and will be of interest to Salem musicians:

Miss Minnetta Magers of this city and Salem presented advanced vocal students in concert recital at the Grand theater, Salem, June 27. People came to attend this concert from Albany, Independence and other cities and so large was the crowd that it is estimated that more than 200 people were turned away for lack of seating accommodation. The event was an invitational one, and one of the most notable held in Salem for a long time.

Students presented by Miss Magers included Marguerite Flower Olinger, Hilda Anstler, Minnie Schaller, Florence H. Harin and Joanna James, soprano, and William Harris baritone. They all sang well and won much credit to themselves and their instructor.

Assisting soloists were Rene Louis Becker, pianist, and Miss Lucie Marie Becker violinist of this city, whose brilliant musicianship won many warm, sincere compliments. Miss Becker played "Ballade and Polonaise" (Vieuxtemps) and "Variations" (Tartini-Kreutzer), and Mr. Becker played these piano gems from Chopin: "Two Preludes," "Nocturne, F sharp," "Impromptu A flat" and "Posthumous waltz."

Miss Margaret Langton, flute soloist played one charming flute obligato. Miss Ruth Bedford, piano accompanist, a recent graduate of the Salem high school, is an excellent pianist, and contributed much to the success of the concert.

SOCIETY.

By Gertrude Robison

WITH the passing of the Fourth of July holidays the city has lost its gala appearance and has settled down to the regular routine of summer work and play. Club work has ceased altogether and social meetings of nearly every description have been postponed until the early fall. Families are leaving, singly or in groups, for the beach and mountain resorts and almost the only kind of social pastimes indulged in are motor trips and picnic outings.

Country club activities are perhaps the most popular at present, the drive being ideal and the cool libree club house an inviting spot as can be found.

Although a few dances are still being sponsored by the younger sets the trend of the social world is, as a rule, turned to out door sports and enjoyments, and with ensuing and picnic-ing in the fine light, the dancing and party season is practically closed for the summer.

Mrs. C. P. Bishop has as her guests Mrs. C. P. Roberts and son and daughter, Carlisle and Imogene, of Hood River, who are here for a week's visit.

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Ruscorn of Independence are being showered with messages of felicitations, upon the birth of a son, Sunday, June 6th. The little new arrival has been named Robert Henry. Mrs. Ruscorn was before her marriage Miss Lucille McPeak, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McPeak of Eugene. Mr. Ruscorn, who is assistant agent for the Southern Pacific company at Independence, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Ruscorn of Salem.

Mack Hofer and family motored to Newport last week and will spend the summer vacation at their Agate beach cottage.

Some of the prettiest numbers on the program of the recent commencement exercises of the Albany college were those given by the faculty of the conservatory of music. Among them were the beautiful violin selections of Miss Elizabeth Levy and the vocal solos by Miss Mamie Lenhart.

In the Centenary Methodist Episcopal church in Portland last Sunday night the special sacred music recital was attended by a large congregation and the music rendered was satisfactory in every particular. Two out of town soloists who assisted were Miss Joanna James and J. W. Todd of Salem. Mr. Todd, conductor of the local Apollo club, was heard to advantage in the solo "My Task" (Ashford). Miss James, one of the most popular young soloists in the city sang "The Lord is My Shepherd" (Liddle).

Miss Teresa Deveraux of Parkersburg, who is attending the summer course at Monmouth, was a Salem visitor over the week end.

The Y. W. C. A. board will hold their regular meeting at ten thirty tomorrow morning. All members are requested to be present.

Silver Creek Falls was the scene of a merry picnic yesterday when a group of the younger set of St. Joseph's parish motored to the falls to spend the day. Dinner and luncheon were served at the grounds of the South Falls and in the afternoon the north and upper falls were visited. Various out door games filled the evening hours until time for departure. About thirty young persons composed the party.

Mrs. Samuel Rooney is spending a two weeks outing at the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Rooney of Portland at their Sea Crest cottage at Newport.
