The housewife is up against it when it comes to buying groceries. The six pound size tin of Crisco that sold for about $2 just a short time ago is soon to be quoted in the neighborhood of $2.50. Keeping clean and washing is also becoming more expensive as all soaps have advanced from 50 cents to $1.50 a case. In Portland it is worse. Even our home grown cherries that the canneries are paying 10 cents a pound for, are retailing in Portland at 30 cents a pound on the fruit stands.

Dr. L. R. Springer, dentist, Moore bldg., corner Court and Liberty, Phone 114.

Salem cigar factory is now making "La Corona" and "Little Salem" cigars exactly as they were made before the war. Smoking them reminds you of old times.

No marriage licenses were issued yesterday. July is falling down compared with the month of June as with seven days passed, only four licenses have been issued during the month.

Private Archie K. Lee arrived in Salem Sunday evening. He saw more than a year's service in France, taking part in several of the famous battles, including the Argonne and the Meuse. He expects to make his home in the city with his mother at 430 South 22d street.

The annual picnic of the Women's Relief Corps will be held in Marion square Thursday p. m. July 10th. All comrades of the Grand Army and their families are cordially invited. The ladies of the G. A. R. are asked to join with us. Please bring well filled baskets.

so. They report some pretty hot weather down south. Are you reading Bishops' ads? Why not? Bargain prices on hand baggage. Buren's, Com'l St.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Elliott are in receipt of a wire with the news that their son, Capt. F. J. Elliott, has arrived in New York, coming from France. He has been serving as air pilot in the aviation service.

Why does Bishop always have such good merchandise? He made a life study of merchandise—he knows quality.

Russell Brooks, who recently returned from France where he was in the intelligence service, has received official confirmation of his appointment as vice consul at Rotterdam, Holland. He is now awaiting his passport and as soon as this is received, will leave for his new duties overseas.

Knights of Pythias, installation tonight. Everybody come.

Although the new paving on the Liberty road just south of the city is open for traffic for a short distance, Roadmaster Culver advises all travelers to keep off the road, as there is extensive road work going on a few miles from the city. Through traffic is requested to travel otherwise. People living along the road will find it pretty rough sledding while the work is in progress.

It is the quiet season for transfers of real estate, but D. D. Scofield reports a number of recent sales. Z. M. Chase has purchased the S. R. Ramsey residence on Waller street. Paul Richter has acquired the Hug ranch south of the city. J. C. Durr has purchased a tract of berry land on the Turner road. The Thomas Jones residence on South Commercial street has been taken by N. A. Paris. A. Luegar has purchased the Jackson ranch in Polk county.

The local post of the American Legion, which has been under temporary organization for several weeks, will hold a meeting at the armory tonight at 8 o'clock for the purpose of effecting permanent organization. Louis H. Compton has been serving as temporary chairman, with T. O. Hanson as secretary. All men and women who saw service in the war in any capacity whatever, either at home or overseas, are expected to interest themselves in this organization, and all are eligible to membership. E. J. Elyers, state chairman of the legion, will probably be present tonight and take part in the discussions.

Salem friends and relatives of soldier boys will be interested in the following brief mention of the returned or returning service men. Lieut. J. H. Garnjobst, who has been with a base hospital in France as an X-ray expert, has recently returned to Salem and will resume his practice here. E. T. Judd has received word of the recent arrival of his son, Lieut. E. T. Judd, in New York, after serving with a field hospital in France. Warren Welborn, who has been in France since March, 1917, is again in his former position in the post office. He was at one time a member of old Company M, and saw several months service with guard company No. 1, army service corps. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davey of this city, are gratified to learn that their son, former second lieutenant Robert E. Davey, has received his commission from the war department to the same rank as he formerly held with the reserve corps. He is now located in Portland. Monitor is to have a school house all of its own and to constitute itself and close in territory as a school district. Hereafter, there has been a school building in Monitor and the children had to attend a school some little distance out of town. The building is to be of two rooms and plans and specifications were drawn by P. A. Legg, architect. It will cost about $4000.
