

The Western Electric Washing Machine

WASHES CLEAN AND SPOTLESS WHITE—There is never any need of the washboard or hand-rubbing. The hot filmy soap suds are gently but forcefully swirled through every garment and cloth, forcing out the dirt and grime under the magic power of electricity while you go about your other duties or sit quietly by reading a book. The clothes come out clean and white, from the daintiest lingerie to the heaviest blanket.

An ordinary washing for a family of five can be done in an hour, or hour and a half, leaving you the balance of the forenoon—hours formerly spent in drudgery—for your regular household duties or pleasure.

THE WESTERN ELECTRIC is compact and requires but little space. It is not an incumbrance, never in the way, a beautiful and attractive machine that commands admiration. Just a little out-of-the-way corner will be large enough for it.—“Put it behind the door” The tub rack may be telescoped and “hung on a nail” or shoved under the machine.

THE PRICE OF THE WESTERN ELECTRIC IS REASONABLE AND WITHIN THE REACH OF ALL.

Can be paid for on installments, monthly with your electric light bill.

Denver Walks To Work On Second Day Of Car Strike

Denver, Colo., July 9.—The second day of the street car men's strike against reduced wages resulting from restoration of five cent fares found Denver again completely without service today. Efforts of company officials to man a few cars resulted in picketers and sympathizers pulling off trolleys and stalling the cars.

One thousand “jitneys” were expected to be operating today. Beyond authorizing jitneys, the city administration has taken no steps to relieve the situation. Manufacturing concerns picked up their employees by motor trucks while workers in mercantile establishments walked to work, patronized the jitneys or were given free rides by incoming motorists.

Municipal ownership of the tramway system is being urged to solve the tie-up.

FACTIONS IN SENATE LINE UP FOR BATTLE

Members Of Both Parties Warned Against Long, Bitter Fight.

By L. C. Martin

Washington, July 10.—Every member (United Press staff correspondent) of both parties in the senate today received telegraphed orders from party leaders to be here Thursday, prepared to stay on the job until the treaty fight is finished.

With few exceptions, senators will be here and those who are absent will have suitable pairs arranged, so that their absence will not affect the result of any test vote on the treaty or the league of nations, party heads said.

Administration senators hoped to arrange conferences today at the white house with President Wilson to report to him before he delivers his speech, the exact situation as it appears to them.

Democratic leaders' eagerness to acquaint the executive at once with their views was stated to be due to a desire on their part to see him “take a sledge hammer to his opponents” in his opening speech tomorrow.

League advocates said today they will urge the president to talk “brass tacks,” both to the senate and the country. Although the senate speech is prepared, the president's ability to extemporize would enable him to change it if the information democrats hoped to give him today warranted a digression, they said.

League opponents are simply awaiting the Thursday speech as a cue to the president's plan of campaign. They are full of plans for meeting him on any plane he may fix for the struggle, they said today.

Anti-leaguers were making a careful canvass of senators to learn what amendments they will propose to the treaty or league covenant, so as to work out a concerted plan of support for any sore of opposition. The senate will convene at noon Thursday, just fifteen minutes before President Wilson's appearance. Preparations have been made to handle a record breaking crowd at the capitol.

The Joy of Living

To enjoy life we must have good health. No one can reasonably hope to get much real pleasure out of life when his bowels are clogged a good share of the time and the poisons that should be expelled are absorbed into the system, producing headache and indigestion. A few doses of Chamberlain's Tablets will move the bowels, strengthen the digestion and give you a chance to realize the real joy of living. Try it.

TROOPS GUARD ROME FROM FOOD RIOTERS

Cavalry Patrols Streets And Stores Closed In Italian Capital.

By Camillo Gianferra

(United Press staff correspondent)

Rome, July 10.—Cavalry was patrolling the streets today, dispersing groups of food rioters in front of the stores. There were few cases of looting.

Most of the stores were closed and the authorities announced they would use the utmost force to reopen them. Under a new ordinance penalties ranging from 500 to 5000 francs in fines and imprisonment of from one to thirty months will be imposed on traders refusing to keep their stores open during the prescribed hours.

Government representatives received a delegation from the chamber of labor today and promised a reduction in prices, but refused to authorize the chamber to supervise the enforcement of the laws. The delegation reserved its decision with regard to a general strike until later.

Conditions at Naples had quieted down today, with troops bivouacking in the streets.

At Genoa traders were selling at fifty percent reduction. The few stores refusing to open were looted.

At Turin the municipality has requisitioned all goods.

Order has been re-established in Florence and throughout the province.

Soviet Hold Strong

Paris, July 9.—Reports received here from Italy today indicated a number of the Italian cities were virtually in the hands of soviet, composed of radicals in some cases and conservatives in others.

It was stated that Genoa was under the control of a soviet composed of workmen and demobilized soldiers who had ordered a fifty percent reduction in the prices of all foods and had selected shops which did not comply. A committee of five conservatives, it was stated, control Florence under similar conditions.

Roosevelt Highway Not Likely To Be Built

Washington, July 10.—Oregon must amend the Roosevelt highway law before congress will appropriate money to aid in its construction. The United States does not and will not maintain military or other highways, though it has aided in construction. Even without the maintenance clause in the new Oregon law there is a hard road ahead of the Roosevelt highway law, as is shown in the statement of Congressman McArthur, in which he says: “During the past few days my office has been bombarded with telegrams from citizens of Oregon urging me to use every possible effort to obtain a congressional appropriation for the Roosevelt highway, and I wish to take this opportunity to say that these messages are altogether unnecessary, for I am heartily in favor of the project and will do everything possible to aid in accomplishing the desired end.

Familiar With Route. “I am thoroughly familiar with the country through which the proposed highway will run, having traveled the entire distance between the Columbia and Coquille rivers on foot, some portions of it many times. There is no question that such a highway will prove of great benefit to the state and as part of our national military defense it would have an added value.

There are, however, many difficulties to be surmounted before the desired congressional appropriation can be obtained. In the first place the house and senate are pledged to a program of rigid economy and will appropriate funds only where an imperative need is shown.

“There is no warrant of law for the proposed highway appropriation and consequently the hands of the appropriation committee are tied. This committee under the rules of the house cannot appropriate money for a specific project unless authorized to do so by existing law. The necessary authority, however, will be granted if Representative Hawley's bill becomes a law. This bill is now in the hands of the committee on roads and highways, and a hearing will be held in a few days.

“It will be necessary for friends of the measure to prove that the proposed highway is necessary from a military standpoint, and that it is not purely local in character. Efforts are being made to line up the delegations from California and Washington and to arouse interest in the project in those states. If our neighboring states will show as much initiative as Oregon has in this matter we will have firmer ground on which to stand as we ask for congressional aid.”
