Here is the most enjoyable music known. It creates feeling, joy and that indefinable something commonly called "Pep." Your spirits change with the artist and you never tire of listening.

Dancing is a pleasure in such cases where the room will accommodate parties.

WE WILL ALSO BE PLEASED TO SHOW THE EDISON DIAMOND-DISC, VICTROLAS AND COLUMBIA PHONOGRAPHS.

TROUBLES OF FLYER AT END; FLIES TODAY

Lieutenant Browne Resumes Flights After Delays Due To Accident.

The troubles of the automobile driver are nothing compared to those of an airplane pilot, all due to the fact that as yet, airplane service stations are rather scarce in Oregon. The troubles of Lieutenant Browne, the airplane flyer who was advertised to fly in Salem July Fourth, and who did not, are as follows: July 3. Broke propeller and lower left wing while landing. July 4. Wired Sacramento for new propeller and parts of wing. July 5. Received wire that Mathew Field at Sacramento could not supply the needed parts. Wired Los Angeles and San Diego. July 6. Received wire San Diego could not supply parts. Los Angeles wired part of equipment could be sent, but no propeller. July 7. Found former airplane service man in Salem who could repair wing but no spruce of right hand could be found in city. Had to send to Portland for spruce. July 8. Began reconstruction of broken wing. July 9. Propeller came from Portland brought by George E. Love. Right hand of "dope" or varnish for the wing that had been reconstructed did not arrive as expected. July 10. Propeller put on plane, and now all ready excepting the dope or varnish, which must be applied six times to the new wing. July 11. Dope arrived in morning. Worked all day on plane. July 12. Today. Tuned plane up, and made trial flight in morning accompanied by mechanic Robert Perlich. Troubles ended. Airplane flying with passengers this afternoon. Among those most anxious to fly were Mrs. Blanche Liston Niemeyer, Miss Kathryn Gunnell and Mrs. Hazel Harris. There will be flying tomorrow and every day until all who wish to make an airplane flight have had the opportunity. "All's well that ends well."

GOVERNMENT AGENT MURDERED, BELIEF

Seattle, Wash., July 12.—That Fred A. Dowsey, government secret service agent, was murdered on the eve of filing papers that would send prominent men to the penitentiary, is the opinion of secret service men, now in Seattle, who are working on the case, which is one of the most mysterious in the history of the secret service.

Valuable papers which were said to be in Dowsey's possession when he was killed in the washroom of the Securities building, on the morning of May 2, were missing from the body when it was found by G. H. Douglas, clerk in the disbursing office of the Emergency Fleet Corporation. At least ten secret service men are now in Seattle, working on the case. It is their belief that Dowsey was murdered before he could send to his chief in Washington, D. C., the most important papers and information gathered in his investigation into an alleged syndicate connected with the shipping board which involved millions of dollars. There were two wounds on Dowsey's head when he was found lying dead on the floor of the washroom. One was a slight jagged cut, about three inches long, with a small welt in the center. But the wound that caused Dowsey's death, government operatives say, was a wound inflicted with a powerful instrument in the hands of a powerful man that struck him just at the base of his hairline, the most vulnerable spot on the head.

Such legislation, the commission stated would promote the efficiency of manufacturing and commercial institutions and serve the interests of the consuming public. Under the legislation recommended by the committee, manufacturers desiring to fix and maintain resale prices would file with an agency, to be designated by congress, description of articles, contracts of sale and the price schedules to be maintained. WILL GIVE SUPPORT TO IRISH IF PEOPLE WISH

Chicago, July 12.—"If the people of the United States tell President Wilson they want him to support the Irish cause, the president, as their representative, will carry out their wishes," Eamon De Valera, "president of the Irish republic," said on his arrival here today. DeValera was given a warm reception by Chicagoans. Stepping from the train, he and his party had difficulty in making their way to a waiting automobile. The crowd in the streets was so thick that his car fairly crept to the hotel, while thousands shouted, waved flags and shook the "president's" hand. "With regard to the question of the hissing of the president at an Irish meeting in New York," DeValera said, "this is not the attitude of the Irish people. I believe we can get the support of the American people. President Wilson said he will give his support, and I believe he will." DeValera said that Britain has no more claim to Ireland than Germany had to Belgium. He said the peace conference was not merely to settle the question of war but to straighten out the problems of the world. "The Irish question," he said, "is a matter of human law—the law of justice."

STATE HOUSE NEWS

According to a recent report from the office of State Highway Engineer Nunn, there are now in process of construction in Oregon a total of 354 miles of paving, 127 miles of macadam and 42 miles of grading, in addition to work on 60 bridges. The entire program involves a total expenditure of $12,820,000, of which $1,000,000 or more will be spent upon bridges. There are upwards of 8000 men at work and the daily payroll, with an average rate of $4 a day, amounts to about $30,000. This payroll is continually increasing as the work advances. Every county in the state is now included in the program of road construction. Secretary Goodin of the board of control returned yesterday from his quarterly visit to the ten institutions which are receiving state aid. In checking over the reports he found all of them being kept in creditable fashion and all performing their functions in a way that shows the need of their existence in Oregon. The founding asylums and baby homes are authorized by the legislature of 1913 to draw the amount of $10 a month for each child held under five years old and $8 a month for each child over five years old. Governor Olcott yesterday afternoon made the following statement regarding the candidacy of Senator L. L. Patterson for the position of warden at the penitentiary: "In view of the fact that some publicity has been given to a report that Senator L. L. Patterson of Polk county has been a candidate for wardenship of the state penitentiary I wish to state that upon resignation of Warden Stevens I had Senator Patterson in mind for the position. I told Senator Patterson as much at the time, but being mindful of the fact that he was a member of the legislature which increased the salary of the warden, the matter went no further. However, Senator Patterson told me at the time that if he were eligible for the appointment he could not and would not accept it under any condition."
