

Were you ever disappointed with your Home-made Preserves?

Even the best recipe can't make allowances for the way sugar will harden into candy—or for the failure of a jelly to "jell".

Thousands of women are finding the ideal preserving syrup is a blend of 1/4 Karo (Red Label) with 1/4 sugar—instead of all sugar. Preserving done this way is always uniform—jelly that really "jells"—jam that is neither too syrupy nor too thick.

It gives you preserves with the natural fresh fruit flavor.

This fine, clear Karo Syrup has a natural affinity for the juices of the fruit. It blends the fruit with the sugar—makes your syrup rich and heavy, and holds jams and jellies firm and mellow, with not the slightest tendency to "candy" in the glass.

For Cooking, Baking and Candy Making Karo (Red Label) is used in millions of homes. In all cooking and baking recipes use Karo instead of sugar. It is sweet, of delicate flavor, and brings out the natural flavor of the food.

FREE A book of sixty-eight pages that gives you the best recipes for sure results in preserving. Easy to follow. The Corn Products Cook Book is handsomely illustrated—and it's free. Write us today for it.

SOCIETY

By Gertrude Robison

HEADING the week's social calendar, the tea for which Miss Elizabeth Carson was hostess yesterday, holds an indisputable place of prominence. The attractive affair was held on the spacious lawn and in the beautiful Japanese gardens of the Lord residence on South High street. The tables, grouped beneath the pergola and in the gardens, were centered with art baskets of scarlet larkspur and heliotrope. The sheer, cool gowns of the guests, the gay social converse and the beautiful setting assisted in making the affair a perfect success. About sixty guests, including a number of out of town parties, were present.

The William A. Marshall home on Oak street was the scene of a delightful informal afternoon Saturday when Miss Marie Marshall and Miss Vivian Hargrove entertained a coterie of friends at tea. Artistic bowls of blue delphinium, snapdragons set off with glowing marigolds added charms to the pretty affair. Miss Grace Holt and Miss Ethel Franier poured. The invitation list included Mrs. Roy Wesley Barton, Mrs. William Walton, Miss Ila Spaulding, Miss Beatrice Walton, Miss Vivian Hopson, Miss Clara Breitenstein, Miss Marie Breitenstein, Miss Ethel Franier, Miss Olga Gray, Miss Ruth Schultz, Miss Edna Howd, Miss Veda Howd, Miss Irene Curtis, Miss Hestie Giaman, Miss Berie Holt, Miss Keatha Hughes, Miss Dorothy Donaldson, Miss Grace Holt and Miss Nanna Putnam.

Picnic parties were the order of the day yesterday. Sunrise saw merry groups motoring out of town for the various picnic resorts—Silver Creek, Spong's Landing and the numerable other points that offer their picturesque conveniences to nature lovers—and moonrise saw them returning along the cool, quiet country roads, happy after a blissful day of outdoor enjoyment. Later afternoon and early evening parties were also much in vogue, and no merrier groups of young people could be found than those that, choosing evening in preference to motoring, went up the river for a picnic and a pleasurable evening. One of these was the party composed of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Berg, Miss Leah Suing, Miss Olive Lester, Phillip Jaskook and Cyril Suing.

Members of the Artisan lodge enjoyed a merry picnic Friday evening at the Albert play grounds. A sumptuous lunch, games, phonograph music and a bonfire were prominent features of the evening. About twenty-five members were present.

Mrs. R. B. Duncan was hostess at a meeting of the missionary society of the First Congregational church Friday afternoon. A most enjoyable feature was the lovely program given by Mrs. W. C. Kantner and Miss Constance Kantner. The hostess was assisted in serving the delicious refreshments by her daughter, Mrs. Carl Abrams.

The home of Dr. and Mrs. M. C. Findley on North 20th street was the scene of a merry lawn party Friday evening, when members of the Epworth League of the Methodist church gathered to pass some pleasant hours.
