Fords with one eye and those who do not observe the law in regard to dimming their automobile lights after dark, had better look out. At the session of the city council last evening, Alderman Moore called attention to the fact that very little attention was paid by drivers to the law in regard to dimming light. The council instructed Chief Varney to enforce the ordinance.

"Yes, and I think we had better include those one-eyed Fords running around," declared Alderman Vandervort.

Bishop recommends the cool, comfortable khaki for hot days.

Dr. B. L. Steeven and wife, in a recent letter to Dr. Fudler, tell of their arrival at Portsmouth, Ohio, having just recently visited Buffalo, Cleveland and Columbus. They found the heat in some sections almost intolerable and partly on this account have decided to ship their car at South Bend and finish the journey by train. They expect to stop at Rochester, Minn., to visit the celebrated Mayo institute.

F. A. Legg, architect, is drawing the plans and specifications for the new building to be erected by Vick Bros. in Portland as state headquarters for the Fordson tractor. It is to be 100 by 100 feet, mostly of concrete, with a pressed brick front and will be located at Second and Madison streets.

Walt Low, city street commissioner, was instructed by the councilmen at the session last evening, to work the team of fire horses that the city now owns. That is, the city owns the horses because it has not as yet found a buyer. Mr. Low will now work the horses at least three days in the week, per instructions.

Alderman H. H. Vandervort thinks hay will be cheaper in a few weeks than it is today. The city wants to buy about 30 tons and he suggested that the market had not as yet been established, and anyhow, there was a pretty heavy hay crop this year and he thought it might be cheaper after a general market price was made by dealers.

Howard Zincer, who recently returned from service with Uncle Sam's army has accepted an appointment by the local council, Boy Scouts of America as scout master of troop No. 3. This troop is affiliated with the Bungalow Christian troop and has for its territory the whole of east Salem. Mr. Zincer specialized in signaling while in the service and has had a great deal of experience in that line of work which will prove of considerable value in furthering the work of his troop. Mr. Zincer was formerly assistant scout master to troop No. 4 of this city and has considerable experience in scouting. During his travels back and forth across this country, Mr. Zincer has had an opportunity to get first hand information of the activities of scouts throughout the country and after a careful study of different situations existing at the present time renders the opinion that the training scouting offers in the American boy will be of untold value to the nation.

The contract for the erection of a $3000 barn at the state institution for the feeble minded has been awarded to Joe Knapp and construction will begin at once. It is to be 32 by 50 feet, with 30 feet from floor to the peak. The floor is to be of concrete with the rest of the building of lumber. F. A. Legg, architect drew the plans and specifications.

MAN LOSES HUNDREDS OF DOLLARS

"I am sorry I did not hear of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy a few years ago, as it would have saved me several hundred dollars. Five years I suffered from indigestion and severe bloating. I grew worse all the time. My doctor said an operation would be all that could save me. I took a course of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy instead and for the past year have been entirely well." It is a simple, harmless remedy that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. J. C. Perry, Capital Drug Store, and druggists everywhere.

"Give your Jitney a chance." This is the slogan for the Elks' dance to be given Wednesday evening at the armory. Besides being directly in charge of the Elks, one of the big attractions is the 15 piece orchestra.
