PERSHING IS GIVEN FREEDOM OF LONDON

Lord Mayor Presents Key Of City In Firm Of Sword Of Honor.

London, July 18.—(United Press)—With quaint, traditional ceremonies, the lord mayor of London tendered General Pershing the honorary freedom of the city today and presented with a sword of honor.

The presentation occurred at Guild Hall at noon, after which Pershing attended a luncheon in his honor at the Mansion House.

Crowds lined the streets and cheered as the state carriages passed on their way to Guild Hall for the ceremonies. Alighting at the hall, Pershing inspected the guard of honor, formed of grenadier guards. He then was conducted to the dining in the great hall where he was greeted by the lord mayor and members of the council, dressed in ceremonial robes.

The town clerk read the resolution of offering the American commander the freedom of the city and presenting him with the sword. Pershing replied briefly.

Accompanied by the Prince of Wales, General Pershing reviewed a composite regiment of American doughboys at Hyde Park. Four trainloads of Americans, comprising the composite regiment of 136 officers 3280 men, arrived here yesterday to participate in the peace parade tomorrow. Nineteen thousand allied troops will take part in the procession.

Although plans are under way for the entertainment of William Jennings Bryan when he comes to Salem next Wednesday to speak at the chautauqua, it is probable they will be cancelled. That is, unless the citizens wish to entertain the silver tongued orator after the evening program. Mr. Bryan speaks Tuesday evening at Ashland and leaves Wednesday morning for Salem on the Southern Pacific. This will bring him into Salem at 7:45 in the evening, provided of course the train is on time. Generally it isn't.

The next morning he will leave early for Portland in order to speak at St. Johns in the afternoon. Mr. Bryan is doing some rapid traveling and also some rapid talking. In the northwest he will visit 50 towns in 27 days. Ida M. Tarbell will also be on the program for next Wednesday evening, unless there is some change in the program.

DISCRIMINATION IS CHARGED AT HEARING

Northwest Fruit Shippers Say They Pay Deficits Of East And South.

Portland, Or., July 18.—Growers and shippers of Washington, Oregon and Idaho represented by an Idaho expert, made the charge today that the fruit industry of the northwest is being asked to make good the deficits of southern and eastern railroads.

This is being attempted while northwest railroads are rolling in wealth, it was declared.

The charge was brought out in the hearing before the interstate commerce commission on new and greatly increased tariffs on perishable freight. The tariffs affect being, heating, switching and other freight handling charges.

Leonard Way, vice president of the public utilities commission of Idaho, the first witness for the fruit industry, presented bulky collections of exhibits. He based much of his testimony upon his showing that the railroads are making a greater profit per gross ton mile on green fruit shipments than they are on such commodities as livestock and potatoes.

Way confirmed his testimony on the fruit raising districts of Idaho. He showed that the northwestern railroads where the fruit traffic is large, have considerably longer hauls per ton than do eastern and southern roads and that in spite of this fact, the per ton mile rate on eastern and southern roads is far lower than the charge in the northwest.

"The rate of the Union Pacific is $3.50 per ton mile, the highest cost of any carrier," he declared. "The Northern Pacific charge is $2.72, higher than any other roads except the U. P. and the Santa Fe. The O. W. R. and N. charge of $2.15 is higher than all but southwest carriers. Only seven carriers charge more than the $2.01 collected by the Great Northern."

Way cited numerous freight rate comparisons between the fruit growing districts of Idaho to a common destination, and other equally distant points of origin. He pointed to the fact that in the northwest and especially in Idaho, freight trains contain many more that are hauled over a much greater distance than is required of roads elsewhere. These things, he declared, should tend to lower comparative tariffs rather than increase them.

Harry New Answers Not Guilty Upon Charge Of Murdering Sweetheart

Los Angeles, Cal., July 18.—(United Press)—While a courtroom crowd made up more than 50 per cent of women, listened intently, Harry S. New today formally declared himself innocent of the charge of murdering his sweetheart, Frieda Losses.

"Do you plead guilty or not guilty?" asked the clerk of the court after the grand jury indictment had been read to New.

"Not guilty," was the quick and firm response.

Now pleaded after Superior Judge Craig had overruled a demurrer to the indictment which New's attorneys had presented. They claimed the indictment was not sufficiently clear. It had been expected that several hours would be consumed in argument, but Judge Craig quickly disposed of the matter when Attorney LeCompte Davis of the defense, indicated his willingness to dispense with argument.

Court House Notes

In the divorce proceedings tried yesterday before Judge George G. Bingham, wherein Henry M. Boedighelmer is asking for a divorce from Esther Boedighelmer, the decree was entered that the plaintiff was not entitled to a divorce as he had failed to establish by a preponderance of testimony that his wife had been guilty of cruel and inhuman treatment. Neither party is to recover costs from the other, as the husband had already paid into the court $70 suit money for his wife.
