Aluminum Cooking Utensils

We have just received a big line of the genuine Illinois Pure Aluminum, which was bought when this kind of ware was much cheaper than at present. We are therefore able to make a very low price to introduce this ware. For the next few days we will sell this ware at 20 per cent discount from the regular retail prices. Every piece is guaranteed.

The old elevator building of the former flouring mill on Trade street between Commercial and Front is about to take up its bed and walk, metaphorically speaking. It is now the property of the Oregon Pulp and Paper mill company and will be removed from its present location to the foot of Trade street close to the river bank, where foundations have already been prepared. It will be necessary to cut the telephone wires on Front street while the old elevator is doing its traveling. After crossing Front street, it will start down hill to its resting place along the river bank and will later be used as a pulp mill for the $500,000 paper mill.
