BRAZIL'S PRESIDENT ELECT IS HOME AGAIN

Epitacio Pessoa Reaches Rio De Janeiro Upon U. S. Ship Today.

Rio De Janeiro, July 22.--Rio gave expression to all of its Latin enthusiasm when the American battleship Idaho, carrying President-elect Pessoa anchored in the harbor here shortly before mid night.

Pessoa's inauguration probably will take place July 26.

Pessoa, recently a visitor in the United States, has a triple affection--it is for good government, great cities and astounding natural wonders.

Dr. Pessoa admitted this when questioned regarding his impressions of the United States, on his arrival here today on the U. S. S. Idaho. His two and a half weeks in North America were spent principally at Washington and New York, with a stop-off at Niagara Falls on the way to Canada.

"Washington is the wonderful center of a marvelous system of government," said Dr. Pessoa.

"Washington is a shrine to which all lovers of good government, of democracy and of freedom should be proud to do homage."

"I love your New York. Five million souls--a nation in itself--dwelling in narrow confines in harmony and comfort. I marvel when I first saw her skyline. I marvel still."

"I had to see Niagara Falls. This grand natural creation is a thing for which North America should be grateful."

Dr. Pessoa's sentiments regarding America appear to be typically Brazilian. Older Brazilians whose memories extend back to the days of the empire recall that Dom Pedro on his memorable tour of the United States, related as his three outstanding impressions, glowing narratives of official grandeur of Washington, the flourishing activities of New York and the underground thrills of the Mammoth Cave in Kentucky.

Increases Fire Danger

Butte, Mont., July 22.--(United Press)--Continued hot weather with no rain had intensified the fire situation today in the timbered areas of Montana, according to reports from various sources received by local forest officials.

The fires are expected steadily to grow worse unless rain brings relief. Conditions are described as "most serious, requiring the extreme efforts of fire fighters. Hundreds of men are being rushed daily to the fire areas but their efforts have not availed to lessen the peril."

A big fire at Rousesake near defies the fighters whose efforts have been turned to directing its course away from valued timbered areas.

Clouds of smoke like a pall spread over this city this afternoon, obscured the sun and caused stores and offices to use light. A high wind last night had moderated somewhat today.

Washington, July 22.--(United Press)--Senator Owen, Oklahoma today reintroduced in the senate a bill, creating a federal reserve foreign bank, to help American business men in commercial dealings with foreign countries.

Washington, July 22.--The foreign relations committee today approved President Wilson's recommendation that the American legation at Brussels be raised to an embassy.

Washington, July 22.--Sale of excess government food supplies was held up in February under approval of Secretary Baker, Major General Harry L. Rogers, quartermaster general told the Reavis committee of the house war in investigating committee today.

Spokane, Wash., July 22.--"Go home, put on a silk dress and tan shoes. Bring $20 and come back to me," a phrenologist advised pretty Hazel Wyman, 22-year-old railroad clerk. Taking the advice Hazel disappeared. Police are searching for the phrenologist, while relatives, thinking the girl's mind unbalanced, are dragging the river for her body.

AUTO BANDITS ROB BANK MESSENGER OF $10,000

Chicago, July 22.--Two automobile bandits today held up a bank messenger of the Austin National Bank, Austin, Ill., and escaped with $1000 in liberty bonds and $400 in cash.

The robbery took place a short distance from the bank. The robbers escaped.

ARMY AVIATORS WAIT MORE FAVORABLE FLIGHT WEATHER

Washington, July 22.--Army aviators are waiting better weather to start the flight around the United States, plans for which were announced several days ago.

Under present conditions it was said today, the rain would interfere seriously with flying and wet landing fields might cause damage to planes.

LANSING HOME

New York, July 22.--Secretary Lansing arrived at Quarantine from Brest, France, on the Holland-American liner Rotterdam at 3 o'clock this afternoon. The steamer was expected to dock at Hoboken about 4 o'clock.

The Rotterdam had on board 2,230 men, including the 21st field artillery, complete.

CHANGE FAVORED

Salt Lake City, Utah, July 22.--A resolution favoring placing control of the public domain in the hands of the department of agriculture was passed late today by a meeting of stock men from 13 western states.

PRISONERS REVOLT

Leavenworth, Kan., July 22.--About 2,500 prisoners at the United States disciplinary barracks staged a great demonstration this morning. It was learned late today. The men went on strike, refusing to leave their cells.

The largest sale of farm land in the history of Wallawa county, Or., was made when J. N. Roberts sold his 952-acre ranch to H. B. Davidson for $117,000.

Kentish Flyweight Champ Would Gather In Yankee Dollars On Tour Of U. S.

By Don Chamberlain

(United Press staff correspondent)

London, July 22.--Jimmy Wilde, the Kentish flyweight marvel, wants to go to the United States and make a "clean up" of dollars. Therefore, it is not likely that Pal Moore and the little champion will meet again soon here, although Nate Lewis, manager of Moore, has asked for the match and received the sanction of Promoter C. B. Cochran, who staged the recent bout with Moore, Lewis announced last night. They will battle within the next three weeks.

Wilde's proposed trip to the United States does not include the possibility of meeting Pete Herman, world's heavyweight champion, because he holds Herman cannot make 116 pounds ring-side.

San Francisco, Cal., July 22.--Lieutenant Wilhelm Von Brincken today lost his wife and children, but he was a saint. They must bear his name.

An interdictory decree of divorce was issued by Judge Flood to the former Milo Abernethy, who based his suit on the fact that her husband former military attaché of the German consulate here, is in prison as an enemy of the government.

The defendant is serving a term at McNeill's island charged with violating American neutrality. The children were named Cecile and Frederick Wilhelm for the crown princess and crown prince of Germany. Mrs. Von Brincken told the court, and she asked that the names be changed.

Mrs. Von Brincken and her stepfather, George A. McGowan, were the witnesses. After their testimony a let-Nell's island was read. In this, the former Von Brincken, written at McNeill's said he would not contest the divorce if the children's names were not changed.
