A number of men were also given flights. It is understood that the handling of the airplane flights heretofore will be so arranged that appointments may be made for a certain hour. A number of men who intend to ride have been unable to get away during business hours, but with evening flights, it is thought that satisfactory arrangements can be made all around.

Several years ago when Salem had no Commercial club, it did have a Salem Board of Trade, and this institution had a number of postal cards printed addressed to the Salem Board of Trade. These were sent out broadcast, with a dotted line on the back, which prospective settlers were urged to sign when they wanted some information. One of these cards from the middle ages was received at the Commercial club this morning. A man by the name of C. L. Huffer of Etters, Pa., had carefully preserved the Salem board of trade card and used it just a few days ago to gather information as to the north-west.

HARNEY COUNTY LAND CASE DECISION HOLDS

Supreme Court Sustains Lower Judge In Dismissing Suit.

Among the list of appealed cases coming before the supreme court during the past week is that of the state of Oregon vs. Pacific Livestock Company, appealed from Harney county, Hon. Dalton Biggs, judge. This case is of interest for the reason that it has to do with a big tract of state land claimed to have been conveyed fraudulently. The land in question comprised about 14,000 acres in the Harney basin. The defendant filed a demurrer to the complaint on various grounds—that he was an innocent purchaser and that there was not sufficient evidence upon which to base action. The demurrer was overruled. Defendant thereupon answered with a general denial of principal allegations, and asked for dismissal of the suit. The cases was continued from one term to another, until finally the plaintiff asked for dismissal of the case without prejudice. An order of dismissal was filed from which the defendant appealed on the ground that such dismissal would work a hardship upon them in that it left an uncertainty as to the title of certain lands included in a first complaint but not included in the second complaint. Justice Bennett, in writing the opinion, holds that the embarrassment and hardship growing out of such dismissal would be no greater than if the original suit had not been brought in the first place, pointing to the fact that the embarrassment grew out of the fact that under the constitution defendant cannot bring independent suit against the state to adjudicate his title, this being a matter for the legislative power of the state. He holds that the judgment of the lower court should be affirmed.

From this opinion Justice Burnett makes an extended dissenting opinion, in which Justice Benson concurs.

Other opinions handed down today were: N. J. Frayn, doing business as Retailers Advertising Association, appellant, vs. O. B. Pennington, et al, appeal from Lane county; suit alleging breach of contract. Opinion by Justice Johns, Judge G. F. Skipworth affirmed.

Oscar Furuset, administrator substituted for George Sorensen, deceased, vs. P. T. Mays, appellant, appeal from Multnomah county; suit to compel conveyance of an undivided one-third of lots in Rosemont addition, Portland. Opinion by Justice Benson. Judge Wm. Galloway reversed.

O. E. Fletcher vs. Sophia Fischer, et al, appellants, appeal from Multnomah county; action for recovery of damages for breach of contract. Opinion by Justice Benson. Judge Robert G. Morrow affirmed.

Grace F. Fuller, as administrator of estate of Walter Francis Fuller, deceased, vs. Oregon Washington Railroad & Navigation company, appellants, appeal from Union county. Petition for rehearing denied by Chief Justice McBride.

A 63 acre tract on the Pacific highway eight miles south of the city has been purchased by J. W. Hastings from Monroe Nye. The consideration was $5000. The tract is all cultivated land and Mr. Hastings intends to develop part of it in prunes. The transfer was handled by W. H. Grabenhorst and company.

Mary Pickford and Charlie Chaplin have both gone back to the country for their latest million dollar combination pictures. The Pickford picture, which again played at the Liberty in two crowded houses last night, takes in the country along with an orphan asylum. The coming picture of Chaplin is rural in every respect, as Charlie becomes a farm laborer in the reel entitled 'Sun-ny-side.'

Bent upon 'saving the country'—So far as the votes of women count—a delegation from the national women's party, headed by State Chairman Mrs. W. J. Hawkins of Portland, will call upon Governor Olcott at the capitol tomorrow to urge the calling of a special session of the legislature for the purpose of ratifying the national suffrage amendment. Included in the group are Miss Marie Ernst, Mrs. Thorsness, Misses Emma and Cora Weld, Miss Ruth Catlin, Miss Ruby Sherer, Miss Gertrude Talbot and Miss Ethel Griffith. Two of the western states—Colorado and Nevada—have announced their intention to hold special sessions, and California solons have expressed their willingness to meet without remuneration for this purpose.

Undoubtedly Mr. Bryan, when he takes the platform in Salem tomorrow night, will have a few words to say with regard to the republican party. Apropos of this, Capt. Hindley, in his address at the tent last night, told of a chance meeting with Bryan on the platform at one point on the circuit. In the course of his speech Mr. Bryan remarked that in the course of his long

STATISTICS SHOW MEN TEACHERS AVERAGE $30 PER MONTH OVER WOMEN

For the year ending June 1919, the average salary of male teachers in Marion county was $118 a month while for females, it was $88 a month.

In the one room schools of the county, the male teachers averaged $98 a month while the females averaged only $68.90. This average last year for the women teachers in the one-room schools was one of the lowest in the state.

The average monthly salary of principals of buildings of more than one room for the past year was $118, while for the women it was $89.40.

The average annual salary of city superintendents in districts of the first class in Marion county is $2040. Salem school district pays its superintendent of schools $3 000 a year.

experience as a lawyer he always felt a bit hesitancy in making a statement in favor of an innocent client, for fear that he might prejudice his case. But when pleading for a guilty client he had no compunctions, for he was certain that he could not make his case any worse. With this sort of sentiment in mind he wished to make a few remarks about the republican party.

When Capt. Hindley came to the platform he came back at Bryan with the remark that in the course of his long experience in the ministry he learned to speak with the greatest respect of the dead, and he would like to make a few remarks about the democratic party.

According to official notice received at the Salem post office, official holidays for post office employees are hereafter to be as follows: New Year's day, Washington's birthday Feb. 22, Memorial day May 30, Independence day July 4, Labor day, first Monday in September, Thanksgiving day as proclaimed by the president and Christmas.

A telegram received at the Commercial club indicates that Senator McNary is doing all he can to protect the loganberry juice interests. When the federated commercial clubs of Marion county met a few days ago, telegrams were sent to all senators and representatives from Oregon, asking them to work for the removing or reducing the present tax on fruit juice, and urging them to support a measure now before the house for the elimination or reduction of the tax. This morning a wire was received from Senator McNary as follows: 'Doing everything possible to relieve loganberry industry from injurious tax. Appeared before ways and means committee of the house of representatives and urged relief.'

Seattle Police Disperse I.W.W. Street Meeting To Gain Support For Soviets

Seattle, Wash., July 22.—A meeting of I. W. W. in the lower end of town was dispersed by the police last night. Crowds jammed the intersections before three radical speakers, who were alleged to be spreading treasonable propaganda. Chief of Police Warren, with 150 patrolmen headed the raid. It was found necessary to charge the crowd with police automobiles to disperse the meeting.

Many missiles were thrown at the police, chiefly fruit taken from a fruit stand nearby. Several patrolmen were struck and sustained bruises. Half a dozen arrests were made for resisting the fire fighters.

President Asked To Send Troops To Help Kill Fires

Portland, Or., July 22.—President Wilson was today asked to send federal troops into the forests of the Pacific northwest to help fight the forest fires of Washington, Idaho and Montana.

George M. Cornwall, editor of the Timbeman, dispatches a telegram to the president. He said when troops were sent into the forests several years ago by President Taft to fight fires they rendered excellent service. The labor shortage is seriously hampering the fire fighters.

COURT HOUSE NEWS

In the suit of William Kennedy against J. H. Johnson, L. E. Luman and J. A. Brown in which it is alleged the defendants cut timber from the plaintiff's land without his consent, for his reply to the answer of the defendant, Mr. Kennedy alleges: That A. J. Hinemann wrongfully cut timber from his property and that Hinemann had agreed to pay $2 a thousand for the No. 1 timber and $1 per thousand feet for the No. 2 timber. That Hinemann later sold his sawmill to the defendants, representing to Mr. Kennedy that he had removed 12,000 of the 50,000 feet he had cut. That the defendants after being warned, continued to cut on the plaintiff's land, and that the plaintiff finally engaged a scaler who reported that the defendant had cut 163,399 feet of timber.

White Asks Instructions On Bulgarian Peace Pact

Paris, July 22.—Henry White of the American peace delegation, it was learned today, has called President Wilson asking specific instructions as to whether America should sign the peace treaty with Bulgaria. The Greek delegation is understood to have questioned why American participation in the peace negotiations was necessary if the Americans were uncertain whether they would sign the treaty.

The management of the new Paulinus cannery at Albany, Or., is pushing construction work, hoping to have it ready for the green loganberry season which opens about August 10.
