RETURN OF RAILROADS

$500,000,000 to this fund, as soon as the railroads were returned.

Scheduled to follow Wheeler on the plan in support of the plan were Paul M. Warburg, former vice-chairman of the federal reserve board, Professor Emory R. Johnson, University of Pennsylvania; W. W. Salmon, president of the General Railway Signal company, Rochester, N. Y., and Alexander W. Smith, Atlanta, Ga.

All are members of the national transportation conference.

New packing plants and warehouses now under construction by Hood River orchardists will cost more than $25,000.

All bids for Shorman county's $300,000 issue of road bonds were rejected at a meeting of the county court Saturday.
