Salem and vicinity is doing its share in keeping the dead letter office at Washington, D. C., busy. During the past ten days, 26 letters have accumulated at the postoffice here, improperly addressed. They will soon be on their way to Washington. If these 26 people had taken the trouble to place a return address on the upper left hand corner of the envelope, these 26 letters would have been returned to the writers. Now they have to take chances of the dead letter office with delays of several weeks.
