

By Gertrude Robinson

AMERICAN rides are the order of the day. Pack the little Ford in Indian blankets and board the street car to Obispo field. You can arrive expect to be quite in the "swim" unless you get a ride in that Curtiss, or De Havilland or whatever it is that the Commercial club is boosting out there.

The women of the city are just as enthusiastic over this latest and most improved mode of sightseeing, as the men of the town. A number of them have already taken flights, among them being Mrs. Thomas H. Kay, Miss Ina Spaulding, Mrs. Walter Spaulding, Mrs. T. E. Patterson, Mrs. W. E. Pettit, Mrs. Blanche Ligon Nisseney, Miss Hani Harris, Miss Ruth Fisher, Mrs. Gordon Wallace.

MRS. WILLIAM H. PRUNK
Whose beautiful vocal solos at the semi-weekly Cherrian band concerts, have added greatly to the popularity of the affair.

Word has just reached Salem that Miss Ina A. Hawley, daughter of Congressman and Mrs. Willis C. Hawley, sailed from New York Tuesday, July 22, accompanied by Mrs. Duncan U. Fletcher, wife of Senator Fletcher of Florida, and her daughter, Mrs. Lionel Smith Gordon. Miss Hawley expects to be absent from the United States about three months, spending most of the time in Ireland, where the husband of Mrs. Lionel Smith Gordon, have been at their home in Dublin, Ireland, and associated with his father, Sir Lionel Smith Gordon of Alderholt lodge, Salisbury, England, and Sir Horace Plunkett, head of the Irish cooperative agricultural association. Miss Hawley and Senator Fletcher's daughter, now Mrs. Lionel Smith Gordon, have been close friends for a number of years and now that the war has closed, Miss Hawley is availing herself of the urgent invitation of the latter to visit her Irish home. Both of Miss Hawley's brothers, Cecil and Kenneth, were with the American expeditionary forces in Europe, the former still being in the service there as an officer in the engineer corps, but the latter has been discharged and has taken up his work as an electrical engineer in this country.

Owing to the fact that a great many members of the Illinoise country club are enjoying vacation at the various beach and mountain resorts or are motorizing through the neighboring Pacific coast states, the dance at the golf links last Thursday night was attended by a comparatively small crowd. However, a most pleasurable time was enjoyed by those who attended and the good will and sociability that characterize all affairs at the club were as evident as ever.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Lisle had as their guests last week Mr. and Mrs. Rowland Everett, and Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Crosby of Seattle, who motored from Washington. Both families were intimate friends of the Lisles during their residence in Idaho nearly twenty years ago. Mr. Rowland is a prominent attorney of Everett and Mr. Crosby is sales manager of the Apperson automobile in Seattle. The party left Thursday night for their homes.

Dr. and Mrs. Henry H. Hendershott, Mrs. William Hendershott, Evelyn and Hears Hendershott of Portland, are spending the week end at their pruned ranch near Salem.

Miss Ida M. Turnbull, author, lecturer and club woman, was guest of the Salem Woman's club at a delightful luncheon Wednesday noon at the Marion hotel. Owing to fact that Mrs. Zadoc Riggs, president of the club, was away and did not return as was expected the luncheon was an impromptu affair, and a great many members who would have liked to meet Miss Turnbull were unable to present. Mrs. William E. Kirk had charge of the arrangements for the affair. Miss Turnbull gave a brief talk on the attitude of the French women toward the peace conference. Covers were laid for eight.

Previous to the luncheon, Miss Turnbull was taken for a drive about the city by Mrs. Alice H. Dault, Mrs. Charles Parks, Miss Mabel Wittycombe and Paul Wallace, and expressed her admiration of the views. The wealth of flowers, which is one of the capital city's chief beauties, were a revelation to the distinguished visitor. The women who were fortunate enough to meet her speak well of her congenial disposition and charming personality, which are, after all, nothing but two distinctive qualities of real greatness.

Two motor parties of prominent Salem folk chose Spang's landing as the most desirable place for an evening picnic, early in the week. One was composed of Mr. and Mrs. George Brown, Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Olinger, Mr. and Mrs. John Farrar, Mr. and Mrs. Heubert Farrar and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Baker. The other group comprised Dr. and Mrs. Frank Griffith, Mrs. George Chatsworth of Canyon City and Lewis Griffith.

Miss Bertha Eckerlin, who has been visiting for the past three weeks at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Eckerlin on North Liberty street, will leave for San Francisco next Tuesday. She will be accompanied by Miss Havelle Downing who will remain in the southern city for a visit of indefinite length. Miss Eckerlin is a general favorite in social circles and her numerous friends will regret her departure.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton L. Meyers are enjoying an outing at Tillamook.

HOLDING a prominent place in the course of the events succeeding the homecoming of the Salem boys who took part in the world war, is the dance given by the war camp community service in the armory last Wednesday evening. Although it was booked as a military affair, a noticeable feature was the almost total absence of army uniforms. "Muffin" was evidently good enough for the boys after two weary years of olive drab, or navy blue. Nearly one hundred and fifty ex-service men responded to the cordial invitation of the women.

The high ceilinged room had been becomingly decorated with green and white streamers, while large American flags appropriately and artistically arranged supplied the patriotic note, and kept one's spirits at the correct "star spangled" pitch. Miss Catherine Carson with characteristic proficiency, took charge of all the committees. Acting as her able lieutenant, Miss Marie Chittenden, headed the floor committee; Miss Mabel Patterson and Miss Havelle Downing, the guest committee; Mrs. Marjorie Kay, the patronesses committee, and Miss Dorothy Boucher took charge of the refreshments. From the opening notes of "Johnny's In Town" to the last strains of the good night waltz, the dance was one complete cycle of unintermitted enjoyment.

The following prominent women were hostesses for the affair: Mrs. F. S. Stewart, Mrs. Dan J. Pye, Mrs. R. P. Boise, Mrs. P. W. Durbin, Mrs. Alice H. Dault and Mrs. Joseph H. Albert.

Those Salem folk who have been enjoying the Cherrian band concerts during the present season, have become quite enthusiastic in their praise of the programs since Mrs. William H. Prunk has made her appearance as soloist. Mrs. Prunk, always a favorite with business audiences, is gifted with the rare type of voice that loses nothing of its charm and sweetness in the open air, and carries with the clear certainty of a bugle call. These qualities, together with the pleasing personality of the singer, accounts for some of the great popularity that Mrs. Prunk enjoys in musical circles.

A lovely birthday party was given at the home of Mrs. Carrie H. Chapel, 411 North Front street, honoring Virginia Dorens. A pretty color scheme of yellow and white was carried thru out the decorations of the parlor, and the dining room was brightened with large bouquets of Shasta daisies. The table decorations, and refreshments all carried the same harmonizing colors.

Games were indulged in until all repaired to the dining room where the young people paid their compliment to the refreshments served. Centering the table was a beautiful birthday cake, combining the Angel Food and the sand cake, making the proper color combination. When it was known that the cake was a birthday gift of Mrs. Alice Wait nothing more remains to be said as the many prizes she has received for her most perfect confections is sufficient evidence of its quality.

The invitation list follows: Elizabeth Taft, Lavilla Boergy, Louise Heron, Elaine Foster, Pauline Knowland, Clara Howard, Charles Anderson, Sherman Plimpton, Vernon Perry, Carl Newton, Elbert Lachelle, Howard Hendrickson, Eugene Kennedy, Darwin George.

"Today will be an important date for women in the history of Oregon, for it will mark the state either as a progressive western state, or as being a little behind many of the middle western states and even put it on a par with many of the southern states," said Miss Vivian Pierce, prominent national suffrage worker who was in Portland Thursday when a delegation of Portland women left for Salem to confer with Governor Olesett in an effort to obtain a special session of the Oregon legislature to act on the Susan B. Anthony amendment. Among Portland women calling on the governor were Mrs. W. J. Hawkins, Miss Marie Ernst, Misses Emma and Cora Wood, Miss Ruth Catlin, Miss Ruby Sherer, Miss Gertrude Talbot, Miss Ethel E. Griffith and Mrs. L. W. Therkelsen, headed by Miss Pierce. Prominent suffragists of Eugene and Salem joined the delegation on their arrival at the capital.

According to Miss Pierce, 11 states have given ratification of the amendment up to the present time. Six other states have called special sessions, or have promised to do so. They are Arkansas, Colorado, Maine, Nevada, Nebraska and Indiana. Ratification by 37 states is needed to make it possible for women to vote at the presidential election in 1920.

At a prettily arranged announcement party last Saturday, Miss Ethel Trindle announced her engagement to George H. Rucker, the wedding to take place about the first of August. A dainty color scheme of pink and white was carried out in the decorations and refreshments. Among those present were Louise Dunham, Dale Rucker, Gertrude Ashby, Ruth Van Patton, Hazel Price, Ethel Roberts, Agnes Bayne, Edith Welborn, Violet Wolborn, Grace Fugate, Maudie Rucker, Hazel Todhunter, Mildred Trindle, Eunice Collins, Tessie, Wash. M. and Mrs. Oscar Goodkins of Portland.

Among the many who motored to Silver Creek Falls last Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Prank W. Castle and their home guests, Mrs. Sophia Crosby, Miss Ethel Crosby of Tacoma, E. S. Hunt of Detroit, Mich., and their daughter, Mrs. Margie Schanell. Other guests in the party were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bartholomew, Miss Gladys and Lyle Bartholomew. This picnic was one of the many features of entertainment arranged for the pleasure of the out of town visitors.

Another charming affair at which the Crosby and Mr. Hunt were honor guests was the informal dinner given recently by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Paxon at their home on North 17th street. Additional guests were Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Castle and Mrs. Margie Connell. Mr. Hunt remains to enjoy the cool weather after the extreme heat of the past few days. Mrs. Crosby and daughter left Thursday for their home in Tacoma, having spent an enjoyable fortnight with friends in Salem.

Salem folk are looking forward eagerly to the arrival in the city of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Mathews of Illinois, who are expected here soon. Both Mr. and Mrs. Mathews are extremely well known in Salem. Mrs. Mathews being the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Brown, and Mr. Mathews the son of Mrs. Pannie Mathews and brother of Mrs. George Brown and Mrs. R. H. Olinger.

Shipley's

HERE'S OUT DOOR WEARABLES FOR VACATION TIME

Stylish and serviceable are the garments and accessories now showing in the various departments for the women and misses who desire to be attractively and pleasingly attired at mountain, seashore or at home.

Summer Dresses In Georgette, Voiles, and Gingham. Many Styles and Prices	Blouses In an almost unending assortment of attractive models, colors and prices.	Separate Skirts In a wide range of styles both in silk and woolen fabrics.
Sweaters In new models, silk, fibre silk and all wool, sleeveless and with sleeves. All the latest.	Bathing Suits Of snappy styles combined with beauty of color and of materials which will give real service.	Middy Blouses In a host of styles and at prices attractive by their reasonableness, for these practical garments.
Hosiery A good assortment considering market conditions. Silk-Lisle and the new wool half sox now popular.	Girls Gingham Dresses In well made, well designed models from materials of the best quality. Prices surprisingly low.	House Dresses and Aprons Made for wearing qualities, but still in style lines that are attractive. Good assortment.

Pretty Petticoats, Cool and Dainty Silk Underwear, Novelty Neckwear, Smart Veils and Veilings, Rain-Proof Parasols, Handkerchiefs

H. G. Shipley Co.

LIBERTY STREET

IDA M. TURNBULL
Who was the guest of the Salem Woman's club while filling her chautauque engagement in the city last week.

Margaret E. Sangster, poetess and author, writing recently of a visit to one of the units of the American women's hospitals at Lusany, says:

"Oh friends of mine, there are a great many people in our country who will say it isn't necessary for us to have hospitals in France, now that the actual fighting of the war is over. But let me tell you that France has still many grim battles to fight—battles with disease and famine and plague that are the direct result of war conditions—battles that must be won before over the reconstruction of France may be accomplished. And we, as the allies of France, are her logical helpers."

"They need us," one of the doctors, told me simply, "and we must stay. If you could see them intimately, if you could know them you would not question our decision. They don't thank us—those people we are working for—they don't need us! They radiate their thanks."

"The village children of Lusany are keeping sweet the graves in the garden of the American women's hospitals. And all over France other village children are keeping sweet other graves. For those graves are more than just graves—they are the lasting pledge of America's faith and idealism. And, even though the armistice has been signed, the Americans who are working for France and in France, men and women at that hospital are working, are also a pledge! They are the living cement that will hold France and America together and make of them a wall that will stand against all invasion, for humanity and peace."

Salem folk are looking forward eagerly to the arrival in the city of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Mathews of Illinois, who are expected here soon. Both Mr. and Mrs. Mathews are extremely well known in Salem. Mrs. Mathews being the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Brown, and Mr. Mathews the son of Mrs. Pannie Mathews and brother of Mrs. George Brown and Mrs. R. H. Olinger.

A golden wedding was most delightfully celebrated recently at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Kimball Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kugel, formerly of Niagara Falls but for the past ten years residents of Salem, were the honored guests. A daughter, Mrs. Lewis Hall, and granddaughter Emma of Oregon City, and Mr. and Mrs. Karl Kugel of Pendleton were present. The oldest son, Dr. A. C. Kugel of Buffalo, N. Y., could not be with them. A most bounteous dinner was served under the tall fir trees overlooking the beautiful capital city.

The table was artistically decorated with flowers, gallerias, marigolds and coreopsis predominating, giving a golden glow suitable to the occasion. A large, handsomely decorated wedding cake was cut by the "groom." Numerous friends participated and offered hearty congratulations to the happy couple. Among the many gifts received was a substantial gift of gold.

Toasts were in order, the toast given by the hostess recalling several weddings having taken place at their home in past years, but this the first golden wedding. The "bride" responding in a happy mood not forgetting to express their gratitude at living in this great state of Oregon and appreciating the fine hospitality of the people of Oregon, and realizing the pleasure of being entertained so generously at the hill home of Mr. and Mrs. Kimball.

Miss Cornelia Marvin, state librarian in Portland for a few days, Miss Marvin was recently made second vice president of the American Library Association at its meeting held in the east. She says orders from all the school districts of Oregon for allotments of school library books as provided by the statute, which allows the purchase of books to the amount of 10 cents for each child of school age, have been received at the library. From 20,000 to 25,000 books will be required to fill the demand, though the number is greatly curtailed on account of the advanced price of all books.

Edna Scofield was first at an enjoyable luncheon party and picnic Thursday evening, where she entertained her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Scofield of Kansas, who are visiting at the D. D. Scofield's home. Other guests were Mrs. H. Conrad, Miss Rev. Todhunter, Miss Salome Scofield, Robin Fisher and Miles Miller. Yesterday the party motored to Portland and enjoyed a trip over the Columbia highway.

Those who have been enjoying the dances given by the fifteen piere kik orchestra will be sorry to learn that next Wednesday they will give their final dance before leaving for Klamath Falls. Aside from the fact that they were sponsored by the Elks and consequently bound to be a success, the dances were always attended by record crowds, drawn there by the splendid music. The cessation of the dances will be a cause of regret to numberless persons who enjoy the popular pastime.

Mrs. E. Hofer is entertaining her uncle, J. B. Patrick, of Des Moines, Iowa, who is here for an indefinite visit.

The first annual reunion of the descendants of Henry and Elizabeth Hewitt was held at the old home place seven miles south of Dayton, recently. Seventy five members were present, among them, I. C. Hewitt of Salem.

Seven of the eight living sons were present, H. W. Hewitt of La Grande, being absent. M. C. Hewitt and family of Roseville, California, returned for the occasion, after an absence of twenty five years. A pleasing feature was the presence of Mrs. Charlotte Mathews Kirkwood, 81 years old, who is a sister of Elizabeth Hewitt.

Henry and Elizabeth Hewitt, with their infant daughter left their home in Missouri, May 3, 1843, with the first immigrant train that crossed the continent. They reached The Dalles November 8, 1843. The first year they spent in Washington county where their son, David M., was born. In 1844 they took up a donation claim in Yamhill county where they resided till their death in 1898.

They had ten children, one daughter and nine sons. The daughter, who became the wife of John Thornton, died 28 years ago. Her sons, Dr. L. M. and L. D. are dentists in Portland. Ladru is manager of the cooperative cannery at Unionville, and C. D. Thornton lives at Unionville. Her oldest son, Dr. E. H. Thornton who died in 1916, was a physician of Portland for a number of years.

The oldest son, D. M. Hewitt, died at Mouthout Oregon, in 1916. Judge H. H. lives in Albany, A. W. and J. A. occupy part of the old homestead; I. C. lives in Salem; M. C. in Roseville, California; Dr. J. L. in Portland; H. W. in La Grande and Dr. L. L. in Portland.

The lineal descendants number 121 of which 86 are living and 47 were present at the reunion. Four grandsons served in the recent war with Germany. During the day an organization was formed to arrange for future meetings. H. H. Hewitt, Albany, the oldest living member of the family, was made president with Miss Lucie Hewitt, Portland, secretary.

The home of Mrs. E. J. Raymond on North 14th street was the scene of a pretty party Tuesday, when little Miss Edna Raymond celebrated the eighth anniversary of her birthday. The event was in the form of a lawn party and various outdoor games were enjoyed during the afternoon. The special feature was of course, the large birthday cake with its gay array of eight lighted candles. All the dainty refreshments were in pink and white, during the serving of which, Mrs. Raymond was assisted by Miss Edith Barker and Mrs. William Barker. Guests at the party were Edna Raymond, Alton Claxton, Gladys Barker, Homer Zell, Alma Sweet, Edna Raymond, Orville Raymond, Albert Barker, Loyd Zell, Elwood Raymond, Richard Stranbaugh and Joseph Barker.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Plimpton and Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Van Doren have returned from an enjoyable motor trip to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Spaulding are Portland visitors. While there they are guests at the Imperial hotel.

(Continued on page three)

18-92 Illinois Aluminum Cooking Utensils

The Original Made In America

Aluminum Cooking Utensils

Are guaranteed by us to give entire satisfaction for twenty years. See window display.

20% Off

TO INTRODUCE THIS LINE

C. S. Hamilton

BUY IN SALEM ALWAYS